Bridgeport, Conn., Sept. 7.—The romance of Joseph Meredith Towne, twenty-two, grandson of Henry R. Towne, chairman of the Board of Directors of the Yale & Towne Manufacturing Company, of Stamford, lock makers, and Sarah Raven, the dark-haired girl from Klev, Russin, who worked as a bench hand in the Towne factory, has ended with the filing of papers in the Superior Court here by young Towne, charging infidelity and peritioning for a divorce.

The couple elopted on March 13.

Minneapolis, Sept. 7.—Vice President Coolidge yesterday was boosed by a crowd of twenty thousand at the Minnecrowd of twenty and compelled to quit in the middle of a set speech devoted to agricultural problems and the interests of the Northwest.

The crowd in the grandstand was in no mood for oratory, and especially for the statistical type of address which was being delivered. The temperature was 98 degrees when Vice President Coolidge arrived, and the crowd was restless. Thousands sat in the open

When Mr. Coolidge began his speech he received attention for a few minutes. Then there began a call for the races. Horses were being driven along the track near the speaker's stand and the disorder grew. Mr. Coolidge was speaking into a device which threw his rate all over the grounds. After-Dinner Tricks

No. 260-The Bird in the Cage A novel little trick that will occa-sion much amusement can be done with calling card and two small bits of a calling card and two small bits of string. A representation of a bird cage is drawn on one side of the card, and a bird on the other. The problem is to "put the bird in the cage."

Attach one piece of string to each end of the calling card, cutting small holes for the purpose, as shown in the diagram. Hold the ends of the strings and blow upon the card, which will and blow upon the card, which will revolve rapidly. Both the bird and the cage will appear at the same time, and the bird will seem to be in the cage.
