LEWIS STILL CONFIDENT

Special Dispatch to Evening Public Ledger. Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Sept. 7.—An indication that an insurgent outbreak may occur any moment at the tri-district convention of the United Mine Workers of America came today when reports were made by Mayor Hart...

BEAUTIES FROM ALL PARTS OF THE LAND—CANADA, TOO

They've gathered together in Atlantic City, candidates for the office of "Queen" of the pageant. One of this group of beauties, selected by their "home town" to make the try, will be chosen before the big doings close up on Friday night. Who will it be? That's the question. Mayor Bader was persuaded to pose with the girls.

"To let in the light and clean up the mess at Harrisburg is a long, difficult and many-sided undertaking. Without the support of the people it cannot be done at all. That is the first essential.

Will Fight for Economy

Harrisburg will require a complete reorganization of the government and its finances, these are the big things without which the people of Pennsylvania cannot have a good modern State government. They have not got it now. "The government of Pennsylvania does a fifty-million-dollar business every year. Many years of executive work in building up, managing, studying and planning for the reorganization of State and National Government organizations have given me a realizing sense of what the task of reorganization actually means.

Insurgent Leaders Active

Insurgents who are bent on having the Pepper-Koelb peace proposal rejected conducted a noisy campaign until the early hours this morning. They hurled delegates, they pleaded and they threatened, but dawn found the Lewis forces intact and well satisfied that the administration would not be repudiated.

Experts Get Busy Night

But the rolling chair parade will have little time for the madmen to prepare for the national beauty tournament tonight in Hotel Phipps Hall. Here they will be sorted, tabulated and appraised by a jury of experts. They will appear in evening gowns, and will glide before the judges, who are Howard Chandler Christy, the artist; Norman Rockwell, the illustrator; August Willard, the painter; and Mr. Arnold Koppe, chairman of the jury.

HUGHES PARTY WELCOMED

HAVANA OFFICIALS HIT

Cuban Measure Would Suspend Indicted Public Men. Havana, Sept. 7.—(By A. P.)—The Cuban House of Representatives has approved and sent to President Zayas a bill which would in effect authorize the courts to suspend virtually the entire Havana city administration. It empowers the instructional courts to suspend any public official in indictment and ex Mayor Diaz de Villagras and a large number of his officials are under charges of misappropriating public funds, they would be amenable to the act. The measure is part of the emergency legislative program recommended by the Cuban Government by Major General E. L. Crowder, personal representative of President Harding.

Will Let Insurgents Talk

Lewis is prepared to let the insurgents talk through the major street corner conferences and many quiet talks in the rooms of the union leaders, big and little. Insurgency has not lost its "punch," but it has lost its "thing more than to make a noise is concerned." The "poker face" of Lewis was beaming happily today. He was assured yesterday that the delegates from the 431 local unions would support him and the peace pact he has recommended. He said again today that a renouveau showed the administration would be supported by more than 400 local unions.

Fireworks Tonight

At 10 o'clock tonight, immediately following the beauty tournament, a brilliant series of fireworks will be displayed from vessels anchored along shore. During the first review last Saturday judges awarded prizes to the following boats for the most original displays: "The Fire Dragon," owned by Louis Bark, second; "Pastor," owned by J. W. Hubbard. For the most beautifully decorated boats, the "The Tropic" owned by Charles Bark, second; "The Tropic," owned by Charles Bark, second; "The Tropic," owned by Charles Bark, second.

HITS SLACKERS AT POLLS

W. T. Ellis Says Citizens Who Fail to Vote May Lose the Right. "Slacker citizens who fail to vote may be deprived of their right to vote," William T. Ellis, of Southmore, a candidate for Congress, asserted today of the 57,550 voters enrolled for the 1922 election in Delaware County only 54,111 actually voted and of 54,171 enrolled in Chester only 24,171 exercised their right of franchise, said Mr. Ellis. "Something must be done to shock these absentee voters into a sense of the gravity of their neglect of duty," he continued. "The time may come when the State will have to follow nature's law and take away the power that is not used. A man who will not vote may get deprived of the right to vote."

BONUS BOARD ENDS DUTIES

New Jersey Commission Transfers Business to Adjutant General. Trenton, Sept. 7.—The New Jersey Soldiers' Bonus Commission has concluded its activities and adopted a resolution transferring administrative business to Adjutant General Glykson, who will adjust pending disputes. There were 122,000 bonus applications and claims $721,000,000 approved by the voters in November, 1920.
