Nancy Wynne Talks of Decided Changes in Styles This Fall—She Chats About Several Sub-Debs—Only One-half of Richard Can Swim

CHANGES in style are so marked this year it's fairly bewildering at places like the tennis at Manhattan and other outdoor affairs to see the costumes.

There is a decided tendency toward things Russian. Blouses with odd things are very much in vogue and really the skirts are so long that the dolly skirts are several years older than their sister buds of last season.

Whole dresses of knitted wool are the rage in Paris, and some of the girls who have just come back from a sea-view have just come back from a sea-view have just come back from a sea-view.

Richard was running along the beach barefooted and in bathing trunks, and only now and again would he get into the water, and then only up to his ankles.

Deciphering NEW CODES in SPORTS MODES

Women's Top Coats 49.50 to 135.00 The symbols by which Sports Clothes render themselves distinguished, are a swagger sportsmanlike air, an aristocratic bearing, and a general demeanor of being well born.

A perfect understanding of these requirements governs the development of these Coats from the quality, character and color of fabric, the workmanship, down to the details of lining, buttons and buckles.

New Sports Coats, 19.50 to 59.50. Of the smart double-faced coatings, men's coatings, herringbone weaves and polo coating. Tans, mixtures, block tweeds, two-tones. Practical, though very swagger.
