It's Great to See That Swing and Snap in Every One's Step Again

David Livingstone, the African Explorer, Lies Buried in Westminster Abbey

His grave more than any other there shows the approach over stone pavements most worn by the feet of visitors—a proof that the Anglo-Saxon still esteems high courage and daring.

It was he, the man of almost super-human strength and endurance, that once said, "Try gently and equitably to make allowances for human weakness."

If each of us could do or say something worth remembering!

[Signed] John Wanamaker

September 11, 1922.

An Unusually Becoming Dark Silk Overblouse, $8.75

Splendid for women who wish to keep an effect of slenderness, for it comes down low over the hips, with a smooth wide band that is but a continuation of the blouse, except for the gathers on the sides above the hips.

It is our own blouse design and we had it made in especially good novelty silk.

In navy, trimmed with buttons and pipings of French blue taffeta.

(Third Floor)

These Maids' Uniforms Are Particularly Good

Well cut, carefully made, and notable for their good fit and neat appearance.

At $3.50, chambray in pink, blue, lavender, gray, green or tan, with white collar. Or blue, gray or striped chambray with high or low self-collar.

At $3.85, black cotton pongee with white hemstitched collar and cuffs. At $5, gray or black soisette with white hemstitched collar and cuffs.

Besides every other good kind of uniform, cap and service apron for the household's important helpers.

(Third Floor)

New Models in Letitia Corsets

The newest models show lovely materials and combine a high degree of comfort with the correct lines.

One, at $7.50, is of pink-and-white striped coutil, topless and with no elastic, to suit the preference of some women. Its line is long and straight, yet the hips are free.

Another, of soft pink material, lightly boned, is $6.50.

Two models at $5. A short model for slight figures is lightly boned and topless. There's a touch of blue in the trimming. The other is of sturdy pink coutil with elastic sections in the skirt and under the arms.

(Third Floor)

The Lovely New Fur Coats Are Fast Coming In

NOT a bit too soon to take a peep at their beauty. Some stop at the hips, as in the new Balkan blouse and sacque effects. Others descend to the very instep, as in a gracious garment of moleskin, with huge new sleeves and rich trimming of taupe fox.

Notice its becoming collar, which when opened does not fall flat on the shoulders, but stands up obligingly to frame the face. This is characteristic of the new coat collars.

A group of beautiful moleskin coats, varying from 32 to 50 inches in length, exhibit the quite new lines in every particular.

All are the finest Scotch mole—a very different thing from the inferior moleskin of other localities. Some have taupe fox or squirrel collars. All are delightfully lined.

Prices are $200 to $750.

(Second Floor)

Silk Stockings With Openwork Clocks Less Than Usual

$2.85 is the special price per pair and as every woman knows, black silk stockings with openwork clocks are looked upon with favor by Madame Fashion for Autumn.

Really an unusual opportunity for the thrifty buyer.

(West Aisle)

A Happy Run to Boyish Health

About time for the Fall advent of new velocipedes! The little boy has been promised one for a long time—and it will do him good, in many ways, actually to get it.

Splendid assortment at $7.50 to $22.50.

(Seventh Floor)

Women's New Bolivia Coats at $30 to $45

Correct in fashion and cut on lines of which one does not tire. They are in black, navy and the fashionable brown, lined throughout and interlined.

$30 coats have loose pleats for fullness.

$35 coats have scarf collars edged with fringe.

$45 coats are topped with collars of beaverette fur (dyed coney) and show three box pleats down the back.

All of the coats are cut full and have the deep sleeve and wide cuff of the moment.

(First Floor)

There Are a Few Pieces of Lace at Half Price

Real filet lace and imported at that. Perfectly good, but it has been cut up and used as samples. That is why the price has suffered so.

But all the lengths are practical—from 2/3 to 1 1/4 yards—and there are five pieces of each pattern, so a whole room can be fitted with it.

Widths are 4 to 18 inches and prices 65 cents to $7.25 the yard.

(West Aisle)

Hall Clocks of Magnificence

Each one is surely destined to become a prized family possession and to chime beautifully down the years.

Made by the best American artificers, they are of fine mahogany, beautifully tooled and in designs that are chaste and dignified.

Westminster, Whittington, Oxford and Canterbury chimes on tubular bells.

Some have silver-finished dials, others gilt, saw-pierced dials.

Prices, $315 to $855.

It Seems That Nine Homes Out of Ten Want 9x12 Ft. Rugs

Or at least a room or so in the home needs a standard size rug, and what a magnificent showing is here.

Every weaver that has won its way into the hearts of people for iron-bound wearing qualities, or for richness in color, or glory of patterns, is in abundance.

There are 9x12 ft. Wilton rugs from $84 to $125; Axminster rugs, $39 to $60; Body Brussels, $61; Tapestry Brussels, $27.50 to $33.50.

(Seventh Floor)

The Two Best All- linen Table Damasks

We Know of at $1.75 and $2.25 a Yard

Both silver bleached, which means they will whiten with a few tubbings, and both 70 inches wide.

Heavy and substantial almost as a piece of leather, they will give practically endless wear.

In fact, we know of nothing in household linen that will compare with them for long, hard service. Floral patterns.

As unusual in their way are certain Irish linen napkins, full bleached and silver bleached, the full bleached 19 and the silver bleached 20 inches square, all specially priced at $4.75 a dozen.

(First Floor)

Wool Canton Crepe With a Check

Different and ever so pretty. The self-colored check is a corded burette affair about an inch square.

In tan, chestnut, mohawk, black and navy.

54 inches wide, $4.50 yard.

(First Floor)

Men's Handkerchiefs Special—50c

Of a durable weight, pure linen. They are finished with half-inch hem, nicely hemstitched.

(West Aisle)

A Fresh Cake of Soap for Each Guest

Every hostess who has week-end guests will like the small cakes of hard-water soap, packed a dozen to a box. Each cake is daintily wrapped.

Violet, almond or verbena fragrances at 50c a box.

In buying large quantities there is a worth-while saving.

A Maker's Entire Sample Line of Fine Fitted and Unfitted Traveling Bags and Cases

On sale tomorrow at savings averaging 25 per cent. On many pieces the saving is one-third.

No better luggage made in America. From this same line we have chosen our finest luggage for Fall and Winter.

Included are men's and women's traveling bags and suit cases and some coat cases.

Many are completely fitted—the women's with gold-decorated shell, amber or white finished celluloid; men's with ebony fittings.

Cobra-grain cowhide, seal, walrus, calfskin and auto leather—some brown, but the majority black.

Beautifully made, exquisitely finished—the kind of bags travelers are proud to carry. Nearly all the cases with rounded corners. Gold-plated locks. Finest silk or leather linings.

(Main Floor)

Priced from $10 for a black cowhide unfitted bag for women to a handsome case with sixteen gold-decorated fittings at $100—worth nearly half as much again.

Plenty of pieces around $35 to $60. But, of course, through the whole collection there is but one piece of a kind.

Every College-Bound Trunk Seems to Carry

A 4-Piece Fall Suit

College men and sportsmen everywhere want it. And little wonder, for no suit could be so practical all the time, so smart and so comfortable.

A coat, vest, trousers and knickerbockers comprise a four-piece suit.

More than likely they will be of tweed—there seems to be more of that look of goodfellowship about tweed—and, of course, they will be light, bright, cheerful in color. Tans, browns, mixed grays and overplaids seem to rule the colors.

But one thing is certain, if a four-piece suit is going to be the best it will come from

The Men's London Shop

All kinds are here. Even a new camel's-hair cloth that has taken men by storm.

There are half-belted models with the bellouse back, or plain back models, and prices range from $50 to $68.

(The Gallery)

Woven Madras Shirts, in Stripes Aplenty, Are Only $2.50

But what's closer to the hearts of men, there is plenty of blue. Lavender or black, of course, there must be—but heaps and heaps of blue will make men happy.

And what a range of stripes! stripes—particularly good in blue. Pin stripes, cluster stripes, broad stripes and the beloved seersucker. Comfortable negligee shirts, with the soft turn-back cuffs.

(Main Floor)

There's Always a Smart, Well-Polished Look About an Enamelled Shoe

Droves of men had a genuine liking for them, but the war took them away. Now enamel shoes are back again—that is, sturdy, well-made enamel shoes that can be depended upon to stay looking good.

In the brogue last, like all good shoes. With a winged tip, but it's a different sort of a winged tip—lower and flatter and more comfortable looking. Of course, tiny perforations are everywhere.

In black only, and the price is $13.50.

(Main Floor)

Coat-and-Hat Sets for Little Boys and Girls

Brand new, really handsome and mostly trimmed with fur.

Caps or hats match the beautifully lined and warmly interlined coats.

Sizes are one to six years and prices from $24.50 to $55 a set.

One lovely set is of pink broadcloth trimmed with plating, $28.50. Fabrics include glossy broadcloths, rich deep bolivins and duvetynes, and colors are unusual.

(Third Floor)

500 Men's and Women's Umbrellas at $1 Each

Full-size umbrellas, 26 and 28 inches, of sturdy black cotton with tape edges, inside over paragon frames.

That means long wear. We'll have several such umbrellas in the house!

The women's have handles finished with rings or cords, while the men's have hook handles.

$1 is about present wholesale price for them.

(Main Floor)

Sweaters for School Days, $3.25 to $5

The Demand for Good Dishes in the September Sale

is about as good a sign of the times as anybody could ask for.

The capacity of the Sale to meet it is equally notable.

The collection of dinnerware sets is remarkably fine, embracing the most desirable shapes and decorations from the leading potteries of Europe, America and the Orient.

Prices are now 15 to 50 per cent less than regular figures.

On both dinner sets and glassware the average saving is about 27 per cent.

The whole beautiful, spacious china store is fairly sparkling with opportunities.

(Fourth Floor)

The September Sale of Housewares Is a Money-Saving Proposition

Money saving in the best sense, for you could not buy a trashy, second-rate article in it.

Everything, down to the last inch of clothes line, is perfect. Everything is of the best possible grade. Everything is made for practical usefulness and long service.

Wanamaker housewares are the best in the world.

The extent of this Sale is astonishing. Not only does it embrace the thousand-and-one things used in the kitchen, but also conveniences and necessities for the pantry, laundry, cellar and bathroom.
