Episcopalians Discuss Resolutions Against Secret Bodies

Portland, Ore., Sept. 15 .- The House Deputies of the Protestant Episcoand Church general convention here faced a long grind when it resumed prayer-book revision. Reports on resolutions denouncing nob violence and secret organizations which have been introduced by deputies from Georgia, were expected from the social service committee of the House of Deputies.

Prayer-book revision in the House of Deputies on the program for today included further revision of the marriage service and the burial service. The deputies, in their action on prayer-book revision, continue to act on re-ports from the House of Bishops, pre-pared during their week of preliminary Brent, reading as follows: "Nor shall it be lawful for any member of this Church to enter upon a marriage when either of the contract-ing parties is the husband or the wife of any other persons then living from whom he or she has been divorced for any cause arising after marriage." any cause arising after marriage." The elergy are now prohibited from officiating at such merriages and the amendment to the canon now prohibits members of the Church from contracting such marriages. If approved by the House of Deputies the canon will go into effect January 1.

The House of Deputies agreed with the House of Bishops in striking out the word "obey" from the promise made by the women in the nonrringe service. The action was taken by an overwhelming majority. As that involves a change in the constitution of the Church, it will have to be ratified at the next convention, The Ku Klux Klub, though not mentioned by name, was severely secred in the following resolution presented to the House of Deputies yesterday by the Rev. Dr. John D. Wing, rector of Christ Church, Savannah, Ga. :

Reselved, by the House of Depu-ties, the House of Bisheps concurring. That we solemnly condemn all secure, so-called "patriotic" so-cieties, whose masked and unknown memberships capitalize bigotry and hate, foster racial and religious
