WOMAN STARTS SCHOOL ROW

Declared to Have Been Deprived of Place on Board

West Chester, Sept. 15.—A contest has been started in court here to de-termine who are the members of the school board of West Vincent Townboard of West Vincent Town-Butler Windle, District Attorney, de-manding why Smith W. Lumis, of Vincent, holds office as school

The statement says that at the election in November, 1921. Esther Fussell, Republican, received 151 votes for the office of school director; Howard Bertolett, Republican, 90 votes; Smith W. Lunis, Democrat, 94 votes; William Kring, Democrat, 96 votes, Cer-tificates of election were issued to Es-ther Fussell and William Kring, as they had received more votes than the other candidates.

It is charged the School Board later unlawfully declared Esther Fussell in-eligible and appointed Lumis director.

REUNION FOR VETERANS

Veterans of the 316th Infantry will meet in Atlantic City September 23 for the third annual reunion of the Three Sixteenth Association.

Former Members of 316th Infantry to Meet at Atlantic Ctiy

This regiment, which covered itself with glory at Montfaucon, in the Troyon sector and at Hill 378, was largely composed of men from Philadelphia and Eastern Pennsylvania.

Veterans of the regiment who have not as yet signified their intention of attending are requested to communicate with Ray Cullen, 1710 South Fifty-fifth street, Philadelphia, or R. Nor-
