

PAINTING PORTRAIT OF AMERICA'S QUEEN OF BATHING BEAUTIES. Joseph Cummings Clark, of New York, at work on "Miss America," who is Miss Marie Katherine Campbell, of Columbus, Ohio, poses.

ON THE GREENS AT MERION GOLF CLUB. Hundreds followed J. H. Taylor and Sandy Herd, of England, who were matched in exhibition play against Francis Outmet and Max Marston.

OFF TO PITTSBURGH. The relay team of the Curtis Country Club, accompanied by their chaperon, Mrs. Henry McGrath. They take part in most today. Left to right, Joan Steinhauer, Rose Liney, Nell Denehey, Mrs. McGrath and Anna Mulhern.

GET READY, GET MY BANG! If you can't count the golf athletes, that's the regular, they play in this race at Ocean City.

MRS. MAX MARSDEN (left) and Miss Lillie traveled with the gallery on the "Blue" course.

MRS. FRED BRICE. THEY'VE BEEN SEEN AT INTERNATIONAL POLO MATCHES AT THE PHILADELPHIA COUNTRY CLUB.

MRS. VICTOR C. MATHER. THEY'VE BEEN SEEN AT INTERNATIONAL POLO MATCHES AT THE PHILADELPHIA COUNTRY CLUB.

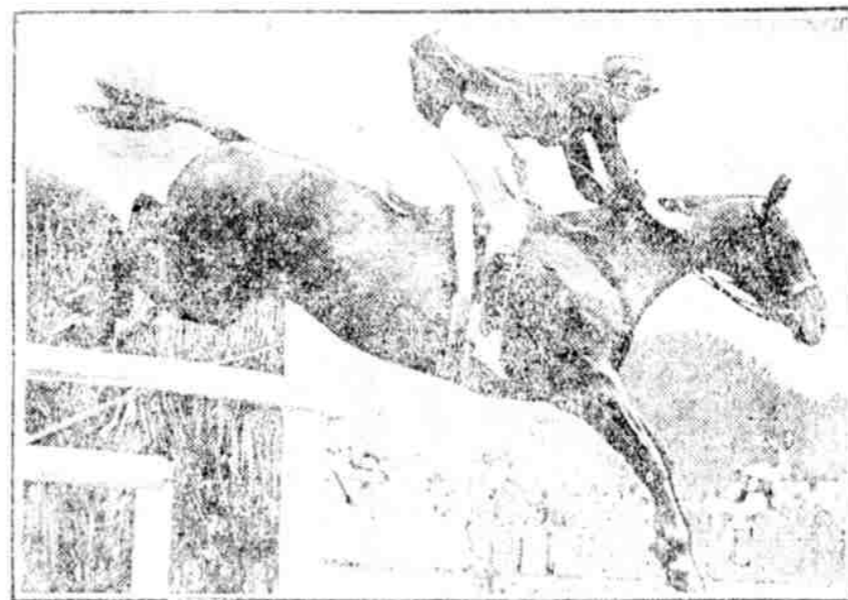

THEY DIDN'T MISS A THING. Salina Wood and Margaret Wood, who are cousins, peeped at the polo match from a comfortable place on the grass.

BORRED BY "DOCTOR." Yesterday a "doctor" called on the "Black Hills" $20,000 lottery.

TREAT CHILD'S CLOWNS. Three of New York policemen next night following show, put on by the New York police department in workshop.

ONLY WOMAN COMPETITOR WINS OVER MANY MEN. Miss Helen Bibebe going over the last jump at Broadlands Park, England, in the open jumping contest.

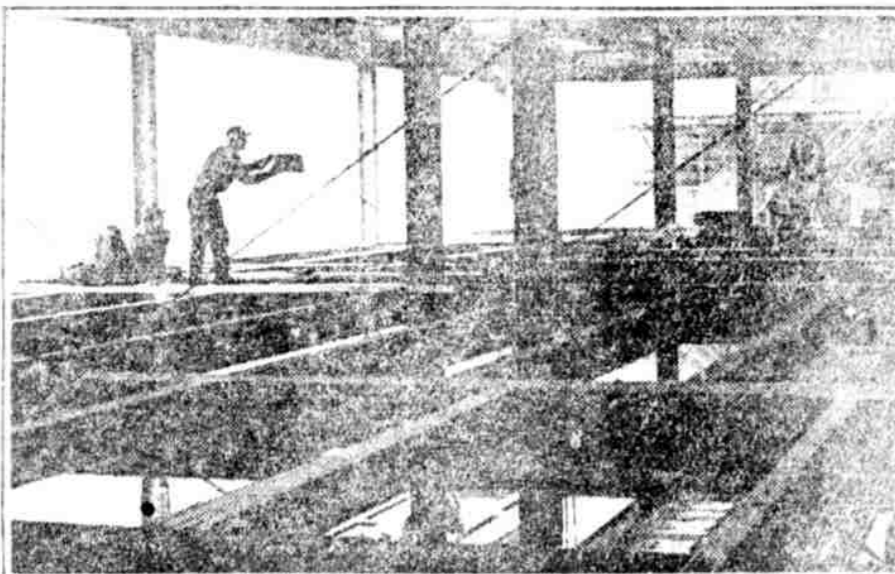

PAYING THIRD INSTALLMENT OF INCOME TAX. Every available clerk was put to work to handle the last-minute payers in the income tax division yesterday. The line started at the window where cash payments were made. Patrick J. Reilly, chief of the division, at his desk.

BEAR ADMIRAL R. J. ZIEGENHOF, new director of naval communications, lately in command of U. S. S. California.

C. B. SPOFFORD, new assistant trade commissioner, since, will go to India.

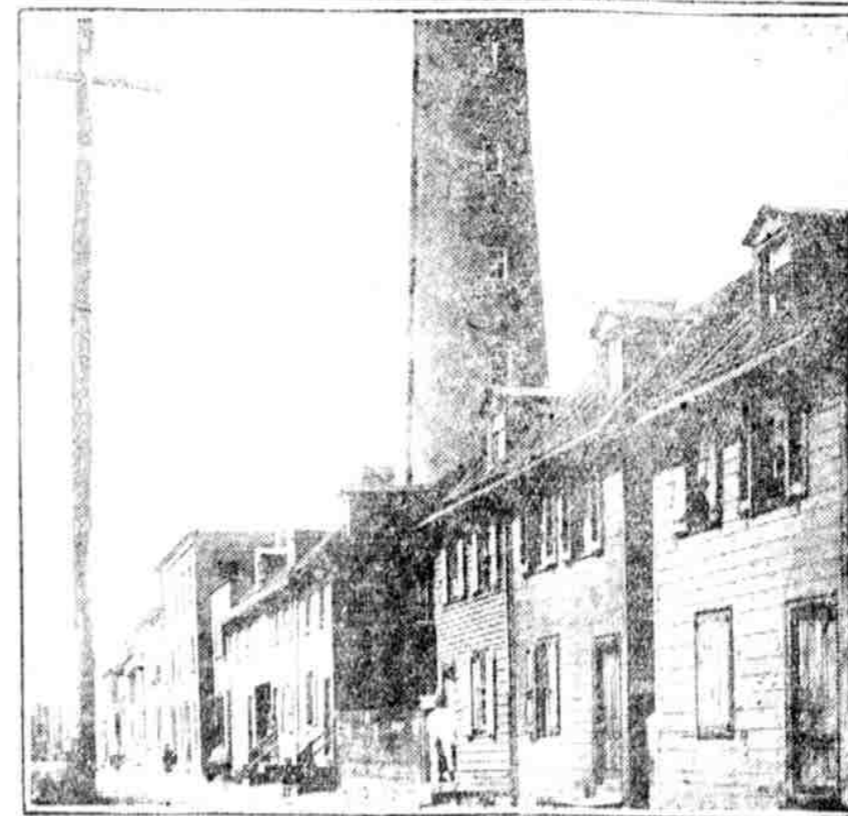

"SHOOTING" THE RIVETS. On the third floor of the new office building at Seventh and Chestnut streets. The workman at the right is operating the furnace and "shoots" the hot rivets to the "catcher."

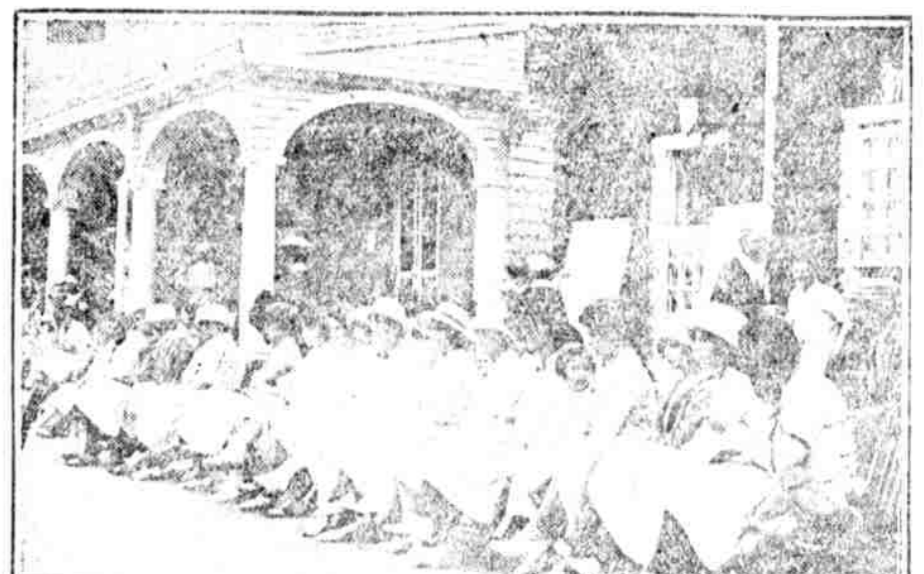

MISS HELEN WILLS, of California, who successfully defended her title as Girls' Singles Champion, chats with Max at Alamo after her conquest at St. Martins.

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

SHOT TOWER AND SURROUNDINGS, at Front and Carpenter streets as they looked in 1883. Send us your old Philadelphia photographs.

THE GALLERY. They watched the best women tennis players of the country on the courts of the Philadelphia Cricket Club at St. Martins. Philadelphia is having its share of the best kind of tennis.

BEAR ADMIRAL R. J. ZIEGENHOF, new director of naval communications, lately in command of U. S. S. California.

MISS GUYNELE BIGG, Washington swimmer, she'll enter national tournaments next year.

MISS FRANCES GERHARD. AMONG THOSE PRESENT as Tilden and Johnston qualified for the final match of the National Singles Tennis Tournament at Manheim today.

MISS ISABEL FRAZER. AMONG THOSE PRESENT as Tilden and Johnston qualified for the final match of the National Singles Tennis Tournament at Manheim today.

MISS JOAN MEALEY. AMONG THOSE PRESENT as Tilden and Johnston qualified for the final match of the National Singles Tennis Tournament at Manheim today.

MISS DOROTHY VALENTINE. POLO GIVES THE 1922-23 SOCIAL SEASON A START. These folk were found by the cameraman in boxes at Bala.

MRS. WALTER FOULKE. POLO GIVES THE 1922-23 SOCIAL SEASON A START. These folk were found by the cameraman in boxes at Bala.

MRS. DANIEL LAMMOT. POLO GIVES THE 1922-23 SOCIAL SEASON A START. These folk were found by the cameraman in boxes at Bala.

CHIEF J. A. VOGLESON talks of city planning in Editorial Page interview.