Nancy Wynne Tells of Many Who Will Attend College During Their Debutante Year—Mr. and Mrs. Nalle Congratulated on Birth of a Son

It is remarkable how many of the season's girls are going to college this year. It is really hard to find a girl who is giving up her entire time to the "going out" as in the days "before the war."

If you don't go to college you take up some other interest, and you do besides going to parties. It's just an interest in athletics, but it's something outside of debauchery parties all the time, and it's a mighty good thing.

Take the college girls. There's Virginia Norris, one of the twin daughters of the Richard Norris, who is going to the University of Pennsylvania. Her twin sister, Helen, is going to the University of Pennsylvania. Her twin sister, Helen, is going to the University of Pennsylvania.

Josephine Crisfield is also going to college. She is going to the University of Pennsylvania. Her twin sister, Helen, is going to the University of Pennsylvania.
