The Drexel Courses in DOMESTIC SCIENCE and ARTS offer more to the student today than ever before in the history of the school.
Through 30 years of experience we have learned to eliminate non-essentials and to include just those features that make every class hour full of worth-while instruction.
The small classes with individual instruction, in a pleasant student environment, is a tradition at Drexel. This careful attention to the individual student is a distinct advantage of the DREXEL PLAN.
Enrollment open now.

CLASH ON N. J. PRISON RULE
Commissioner Wants Head-Keeper Ignored on Appointments
Trenton, Sept. 20.—Requesting the Civil Service Commission to ignore the principal keeper, Joseph R. Hoff, in making appointments at the New Jersey State Prison, Commissioner Lewis, of the Department of Institutions and Agencies, has taken the initiative in bringing about a clash over supervision of industries at the penitentiary.
Commissioner Lewis said the institutions board had determined to exercise its authority adding that "this means that the State Department will employ instructors for the various industries in the State prison hereafter, including the instructor, superintendent or other person to be placed in charge of the artificial stone industry and woodworking industry."
The letter concluded by requesting the commission to take no further action.

Britain and France Near Agreement
The British troops would soon be withdrawn from Chanak.
Preliminary Conversation
The conversation was a preliminary to a conference of the Powers this afternoon. Lord Curzon on leaving said: "It was simply a private conversation. Some progress was made. There is nothing to be said for the moment. We will resume at 3:20 o'clock and continue tomorrow."
At this afternoon's conference, which will seek to adjust the whole Near Eastern tangle, representatives of France, Great Britain, Italy and Jugoslavia will put their heads together.
The representatives at the afternoon meeting will include Marquis Curzon, Premier Curzon, Count Storza, the Italian Ambassador; Admiral Easton, commander of the British fleet, and M. Nictich, the Jugoslavia Foreign Minister. Premier Poshitch, of Jugoslavia, who arrived today from Marienbad, also may participate.
The presence of Earl Beatty is taken here to mean that the British navy fleet, the Dardanelles can be fully protected from the Turkish menace by naval means which the admiral will explain to the conference.
The presence in the ascendancy this morning, and it was believed the statement would be able to arrange not only the base of a peace conference but also certain preliminary of a settlement.
Lord Curzon was accompanied by Baron Harding, the British Ambassador, and two secretaries, when he saw M. Poincare this forenoon. The two points upon which the agreement depends are the maintenance of the freedom of the Straits of Dardanelles and the confinement of Turkish troops to Asia Minor, and the policy of the French Government is said to be opposed to neither, so long as peace is not endangered.

69th St. Business Men Organize
The Sixty-ninth Street Business Association has been organized with the following officers: Edward J. Bartlett, president; Fred B. Snyder, first vice president; Miss Bertha Leute, second vice president; Miss Helen Hendrickson, secretary; T. C. Curzon, treasurer. Mr. Bartlett is vice president of the Sixty-ninth Street Terminal Title and Trust Company, and is one of the commissioners of Upper Merion Township.

Constantinople, Sept. 20.—Information that Mustafa Kemal Pasha is preparing to launch an attack for the possession of the Dardanelles in spite of the exhortations of General Pele. French High Commanders, is causing undigested anxiety in allied military circles in the capital.
It is not improbable that such an attack will be made before the end of the present week. It is stated, the Turks taking advantage of the fact that the British have not yet concentrated all their forces.
The British, however, are declared to be determined to hold the straits at all cost, regardless of how formidable the Kemalists forces may be, and regardless also of whether France and Italy participate in the defense.
One of the best evidences of the British determination to resist the Turks is the fact that many British subjects, including the families of officers, are leaving the city, showing that they believe the fighting imminent.
It is understood here that the French Cabinet warned the Ankara Government of the inadvisability of an assault on the neutral zone, but the Nationalists are believed to have replied that the proposed attack is in the nature of a defensive and protective movement in view of Great Britain's military preparations in support of her alleged policy of depriving Turkey of Thrace.
The Kemalists are in dangerous proximity to the neutral zone, and a forward movement on their part will meet with stern opposition from the British. The British position would be greatly augmented if the military and naval units promised from England and the Dominions were at hand.

London, Sept. 20.—(By A. P.)—Renewed reports received here that Mustafa Kemal Pasha's cavalry has invaded the neutral zone around the Straits of Dardanelles and that he is moving large forces in that direction evidently rest upon unconfutable rumors, and are disbelieved in well-informed quarters.
Turkish cavalry patrols admittedly have reached points, including Highgate, not greatly distant from Chanak, where the British are intrenching and otherwise preparing to resist a possible advance of the Kemalists, but none of
