Nancy Wynne Talks of the Dance Given Last Night by Mrs. Philip Peace-She Chats About Other Debutante Dates and Things

THE Peaces' party last night was a beautiful affair, and Kitty looked who has been at Prouts Nack for several weeks, accompanied her.

Affair veiled in real valenciennes lace veiled in real valenciennes lace veiled in real valenciennes lace the skirt caught here and there sprays of gardenias. Kitty has sprays of gardenias. Kitty has hair with beautiful auburn tints, hair with beautiful auburn tints, hair with pearly pretty figure and and she has a very pretty figure and holds herself well. Mrs. Peace wore a gorgeous gown of white velvet and looked extremely well. The house was decorated with autumn flowers and leaves, and supper was served after where midnight. Kitty carried an old-fash-ioned bouquet—and her other flowers were simply wonderful.

were simply wonderful.

There were several dinners before the dance. The Boyer Davises entermined for Priscilla, and the Bill Relins entertained for their daughter, Many Carroll Relin. Still another dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Leafter their granddaughter, Sarah Hudson. New York, who is over here visiting HEAR the Ned Crozers will come reet last year to the William Coleman Freemans and have been living in New York the greater part of the time, Mona Crozer, who married Neal Wainwright bout a year ago, is at present in Paris. She and Neal spent a month up in York Harbor with Mr. and Mrs. Crozer, and miled for Europe a few weeks ago.

A RE you not wondering what the afternoon long skirts are really here, for this season at least? It was all very well when the skirt was short; somehow bobbed hair seemed to go with it, but how droll it is with the more dignified length of skirt. On every side I hear the maidens sighing and trying to hurry the growing of their locks. But there's one thing about it, with a little care and guidance bobbed hair can be trained in lose to the head and worn with a net. and it will not seem as if it were bobbed, especially if a bit of a knot is attached at the back until the hair is
