TSN'T Lorraine Disaton's engagement bride is a daughter of Clarence Mackay, to Louis Lukens interesting? I can't of New York, you know. say I am surprised, for Louie has been devoted to Lorraine for some time, but that does not make it any the less interesting. And it's such a nice engagement. Lorraine is so sweet. Every one likes her and Louie, whose name, by the way, is spelled Lewis, though he's alled Louie. He is one of the most called Louie. He is one of the most popular of the younger men.

Lorraine is the youngest of the Dissson girls and came out about three years ago. She is a sister of Lucy Disston, who married John Gilpin; Effic. whose husband is Brad Fraley; Marie, who married Pat Grant; Dorothy, now Mrs. Richard Nalle, and Hamilton, Jacob, Jr., and Horace Disston. Lewis Lukens is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis N. Lukens, of Haverford. He has a very attractive dister, Elizabeth, and a brother, Ned. Lorraine returned only recently from a trip out West with Anna Lewis, her younger brother. Horace, and his friend, Jimmie Gittings. She has traveled a great deal and is very well read.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Mrs. Chase had invited to assist her were Mrs. Deas Sinkler, Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Frederick Chase and Miss Chase, I NOTE that the debutantes so far this season are wearing white for their debut party, he it dance or tea. Kitty Peace, for instance, was in white lace, and so was Bernadine yesterday. And a wee bird chirped into my ear that Helen Hope Montgomery would wear white for her tea. Poor child, there are so many parties for her I
