EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1922

Narcotic Agent Durham Tells of Exciting Chase Over Roofs and Gun Battle

WINS PRAISE FOR ARRESTS

The crack of guns and a short, brish parsuit over the roofs in the vicinity f Front and Vine streets were not the lesst thrilling details in the raid made resterday afternoon by Federal narcotic agents, which resulted in the arrest of four men and the seizure of cocaine valued at $75,000.

'H. S. Durham, special narcotic agent. has been commended for his services which led to one of the most import-int raids since the beginning of Judge Monghan's drug investigation.

"It took weeks of hard work to round that crew," is Durham's modest up that nent. The men arrested are Joseph Antoluv

The men arrested are Joseph Antohiv and Tony Marvovia, alias "Zippy," of New York; Antohio Dobra, alias "Slavo," whose barber shop was the scene of the raid; and Gracio Aristetie. "Investigation of Dobra and his bar-ber shop began a long while ago," said Darham today. He is a small man with dark skin. He is young. "I got into the habit of going to the shop for a shave, and I always managed to sit in Dobra's chair. "Investigation of Dobra and his bar

Got Chummy With Barber

"And one day he asked me where I was from. I told him Atlantic City. I said I was a large drug dealer, but that business was too tight in Phila-delphia since Judge Monaghan got on the job, and that I was nosing around r some place to get a supply. "He replied to that that sometime he knew sailors who had the stuff and were willing to sell. Said he'd be glad to let me know if he ran into any. "For a while there was nothing further mentioned about drugs. One day, last week, he told me that he had found a fellow who might help me. found a this man would only do busi-ness on a large scale. No ounce busi-ness would suit him, only kilos.

"He told me that the man' was from New York, and a day later he had word that he could put his hands on five kilos of cocaine, if I had the price to Face First-Degree Charges pay for it. And finally he gave me the name of the New York man. It Indictments for first degree murder was Joseph Antulov. After several were returned last night by the Bur-discussions it was arranged that I lington County Grand Jury against would buy two kilos for $2000 money down; that Antuloy would send the rest C. Mohr, and Charles M. Powell, for Two policemen forced an extrance to down; that Antulov would send the rest to my place in Atlantic City. Alto: pether the selling price of five kilos would amount to $75,000, though I woman's husband, March 10, at Riverwas to pay much less for the dope my- side, N. J. The jury sat in Mount

"On September 19 the barber and I Holly, telegraphed Antulov to bring his stuff Mrs. Brunen broke down after learnto Philade'phia, and yesterday at the barber shop I met the New York man for the first time. It was about 1 o'clock in the afternoon. He was an Austrian, a man about forty years old, and very well dressed. Says He Was Threatened "He had with him his friend. Zippy, the barber took was up to a third. a Philadephia, and yesterday at the ing of the indictment and was unable and the barber took us up to a third of a boy Tuesday. The child was born for rear room of the house. His as- in the Burlington County Hospital. stant came with us. The blinds were down and the shutters of the room Gosed, and the gas was lighted. "The five of us sat around a table, and Antoiny booked me over.

'If you're double-crossing me.' he

Detective Ellis Parker, handcuffed to Charles M. Powell, is leading the former circus employe out of the Mount Holly courthouse on his way back to his cell after the Grand Jury had returned a true bill against Powell. It was for his part in the murder of "Honest John" Brunen

THREE ARE INDICTED MAN FALLS ASLEEP WITH IN BRUNEN MURDER

Widow, Her Brother and Powell. Still Snoozing When Policemen

Haul Him From Burning Mattress A boarder in the home of Mrs. Jacob Glick, 302 South Fourth street, went to sleep with a cigarette in his mouth shortly after midnight this morning. the house and dragged him from the burning mattress, uninjured and still sleeping. They had seen the flames through a window, Meantime, Harry Ziegenfuss, who conducts a restaurant at Fourth and Pine streets, saw the fire and notified the firehouse at Third and De Lancey

Veterans to Hold Reunion

Several hundred Philadelphia veterans Several hundred Finlage plan versions of the World War, led by Lieutenant Colonel II. Harrison Smith, will leave for Atlantic City tomorrow to partici-pate in the third annual remnion of the 316th Infantry. The veterans will gather at the Ambassador Hotel and continue in convention until Sunday. CAMDEN WOMAN MISSING

JILTS HIS FIANCEE

Professor, Who Met Girl in France, Has Change of Heart

SHE AWAITS DEPORTATION

up her nose at everything in the United of the French liner. States, I was convinced that it would be worse than folly for us to be mar-

Such, in substance, was the excuse made by Prof. Darbin Rowland for his sudden disavowal of his romance with Mile. Marcelle Dallaire, beautiful Sam Singer's Sentence Too Severe, Federal Court Rules Sam Singer, who was sentenced to Mile. Marcelle Daillaire, beautiful French girl, after the latter had arrived here to become his wife.

Thus cast off by the college professor. her buoyant hopes blasted, her dreams shattered, the pretty mademoiselle is now on Ellis Island awaiting deporta-tion. She scorned the proffer of an appeal for admittance to the country. She said: "No. I have no desire now to enter the United States. Deport me. Let me go back to France and try to forget."

I'rof. Rowland was a soldier of the should have been only a term of six months

To all such suggestions of a recon-ciliation, however, the comely made-moiselle could only reply with a sob, or a pathetic shrug of her shoulders. She stammered amid her tears: "Ah, if he had only faced me here and to here things, if he had only and told me these things-if he had only been the brave man I believed him and frankly confessed a change of heart-maybe then I might have forgiven him. Why did he say to others what he has never said to me?"

Mile. Daillaire came on the Paris about a fortnight ago to be married to French girl showed to immigration of-ficials letters she said the professor to stay forever in America. Prof. Rowland, it appears, experi-enced a change of heart after meeting

11111111 - Comment Terra a state of the state of t

> We're proud of Philadelphia-and we're glad that we have done our small part in helping it grow. Putting up new buildings for clients is our specialty. "New lamps for old," was Mile Datilaire when the Paris docked here. He went back to Greencastle and wrote to the Travelers' Aid So-ciety, whose ministrations had been clety, whose ministrations had been proffered to expedite the welding. This letter embodied the professor's reasons for putting aside the girl. He said he had been astounded to recently "married off a younger daugh-ter with considerable ponp and dash." He took this to mean her parents did not stake very high pride and hope in New York, Sept. 22.—"Because she saw nothing in America to admire: nagged me about my country; grew sarcastic about New York and turned saw admire to be allowed to re-main on Ellis Island until the Paris sails again. Her brother is an officer

"BOOTLEGGER KING" FREE

Sam Singer, who was sentenced to eighteen months in Essex County prison in New Jersey by Judge Joseph L. Bo-dine, of the United States District dine, of the United States Discuss Court of New Jersey, has been released from jail. Singer is known as "King Dectlorgers." from jail. Singer of the Bootleggers.

Judge Victor B. Wooley, of the United States District Court of Ap-

so back to France and try to forget." A member of the Board of Special he passed sentence on the prisoner. Inquiry asked her if she could not earn her support here, hinting that the cold love of the college professor might again be warmed, and they might some day yet realize the full fruition of their romance, which started in France while according to Judge Wooley's decision.

To all such suggestions of a recon-Henry F. Miller in Hospital Henry F. Miller, Drexel Hill, a memher of the Assembly from the Dela-ware County district, underwent an operation at the National Stomach Hospital yesterday. The operation was per-formed by Dr. M. P. Warmouth, Mr. Miller's condition is serious.

the teacher of languages and literature, whom she had met at Bouvet Oise, France, when he was convalescing. The CIGARETTE IN HIS MOUTH had written her, and a cablegram sh-had sent, telling him she was "comin-

New York. Sept. 22.—The couch and pillows upon which Edith Lavoy. Free-port. L. L. school teacher, lay when she was shot June 23, were carried into court and entered as evidence yesterday

The position of her body showed she could not have committed suicide, coming from her home in Tupper Lake, N. Y., to identify the body of her sis-in the trial of William Creasy, Ken-tucky railroad shopman, on trial for her murder before Judge Smith at the County Court, Mincola.

said Prosecutor Edwards in his opening peech to the jury. Eva Lavoy, the first witness, told of cigarettes.

10¢

They are

GOOD!

Saturday Closing Hour

12 moon_

LEYBANKSEBIDI

TIME CHANCES SUNDAY 2AM.

The Watch Experts of this Establishment will adjust watches without charge

Striking Clocks should be stopped for one hour - not turned back

ter. Mrs. Mildred Simser Shelton, also a school teacher and bosom friend of Miss Lavoy, married since the crime, said she was in bed that night, next to the sitting room where the pair were. POLICE START DRIVE She said Creasy was in a dangerous mood and that she had begged Miss Lavoy not to go out with him.

He said he had been astounded to hear her denounce America and Ameri-can ways. She was bored by the mere sight of New York, and he knew if she saw nothing in the American metropolis to admire, life in a mid-Western col-lege town would be unbearable. The professor further wrote he was surprised that the girl's parents had packed her off to America with but ittle baggage, although they had only recently "married off a younger daugh-" could have been self-inflicted.

When the young woman refused, one of

on the streets.

coat! Be fair to yourself and look around before you decide.

Visit other good stores, make comparisons and then see what the Perry Super-Value Policy means to you.

It offers the widest selection of the most beautiful fabrics and the finest tailoring, at the prices you want to pay.

ON AUTO "HE VAMPS" Decide on Crusade After Attack on Telephone Operator temple. "Creasy was sitting in a chair moan- ing car and invited her to take a ride. ing: 'Oh, I loved her so.' Mrs. Annie Smith, owner of the boarding house; Miss Grace C. Walsh, of Millbrook, N. Y., and Miss Marjorie Duble, school teacher friends of Edith Lavoy, who were downstairs at the time of the shooting owner of the teacher friends of Edith of the shooting, were called to testify tendent Mills in their war on "auto how the body was placed when they vamps" have issued instructions to po-first saw it. Their stories made it ap-pear uncertain whether the wound who attempt to first with young women who attempt to first with young women

