"The Piebe" Writes

Dear Cynthin—Another htty spasm. They pot me every moon.

Ye have heard that it was said by men of old time all beauty is of a kidney with romance. And, whereas romance is set in mystery, said mystery is of a surety grounded in ignorance, or innocence, or failing that, a deliberate veiling of the creball to that that is, having in mind the know-all sometimes called the flapper, write a 202-word essay on "Young Womanhood in the First Blush of Romance," for tomorrow's homework. Deer Cynthin Apropos of the letter of "All By Muself" in Saturday's Evening Public Ledors, I am a New York boy sent here by a firm on business, and, "honest lajum," no one can feel the pangs of loneliness more than I before the pange of loneliness more than Perhaps it is caused by the steel chains of "convention" which keep me in my room at nights or "allow" me to go to a movie or show alone.

"All By Mys it" believes platonic friendships are possible and cites the case of lor girl friend and a boy pal. I, too, think it possible and desirable. She says, "Oh, where is just such another glorious boy waiting for a girl whose hungry heart cries out for film?" bon't lose heart, cheer up; you may yet have occasion or circumstances may bring about our meeting, or perhaps one of the type you ask for.
