Nancy Wynne Talks of the Opening of the Horse Show at Bryn Mawr Today—She Chats About Various Matters

I HAVE been looking forward with a great deal of pleasure to the horse show at Bryn Mawr, which opens today.

Of course, I always rave about the show out there, because I always rave about the Bryn Mawr Polo Club grounds.

There's a decidedly added note of interest this season in the radically different things about the styles in gowns and hats.

The visiting judges and other prominent men and women from other cities will be guests of honor at a dinner this evening to be given by Mr. William Strubbers Ellis.

Starting with the Bob Strawbridges are Mr. James Appleton, of Ipswich, Mass., and Mr. F. Ambrose Carter.

I HEAR that Alberta Reath and Harry Neilson, whose marriage is to take place on October 18, will live at 1029 Pine street.

Alberta's wedding is to be in St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, at Chestnut street near Chestnut.

AND, speaking of Ellen, have you seen that exquisite frock she is wearing?

THE horse was hushed, every one was a frightened look and certainly you could have heard the proverbial pin drop if you happened to care to listen for it.
