MINERS GREET PINCHOT

Republican Geta Warm Reception in Coal Fields

Gifford Pinchot, Republican nomince for Governor, addressing a mass-meeting last night in Coudersport. Pa., said he was convinced that any bitterness engendered by the recent strike, which some politicians believed would have a regious effect upon the Republican ticket, had been entirely eradicated.

Mr. Pinchot spoke also at Blossburg. the home of former Secretary of Labor

William B. Wilson. Blossburg is in the bituminous region. The way in which the miners turned out and the cordial reception which was given the nominee gave clear indication that there is no strife beveen them and the Republican Party. Mr. Pinchot made a short address and then went to Coudersport, where he was the chief speaker at a mass-meet-

McSPARRAN RAPS PINCHOT

Demands Republican Take Stand on School Policy Issue

Enthusiastic crowds attending the fairs at Clearfield and St. Marys yesterday greeted John A. McSparrati. Democratic nominee for Governor. The hominee spoke at both places and at tereral other towns in Clearfield and Elk Counties. Last night he left for Washington County. Washington County.
In his speeches, Mr. McSparran attacked his Republican opponent on the school issue.

"Is Mr. Pinchot going to make a decision on the school issue in time for the voters to register their choice the polls. As usual, of course, Mr.

Pinchet expects the voters to take a pig in a poke, 'he said, "All this is only another link in the Pincher chain of humbuggery. The real crax of the situation lies in his fear of offending some of his followers who are known to be interested in the Fineganized system.
