

ON THEIR WAY HOME AFTER WINNING BLUE RIBBON The Meadowbrook hounds being loaded into wagon at Bryn Mawr

WILLIAM H. WANAMAKER, Miss Louisa Wanamaker and Miss Alma Wanamaker at the fence

SAILING OVER THE BARRIER. Robert E. Strawbridge, Jr., in one of the hunter classes

IN CUSTODY OF THE NUMBERS, Ray Wood one of the busy men of the show

DOING GOOD WORK AS JUDGES WATCH. Miss Helen Mary Cassatt on Sunnybrook Lass

SEEN THROUGH THE CAMERA'S EYE AT THE BRYN MAWR HORSE SHOW

MAKING NOTES ON WAY FROM LUNCH. Miss Edna T. Patterson, a clerk for the Civil Service Commission

ACTING PROVOST PENNIMAN of Pennsylvania, was a very busy man as the term started

CAPTAIN FRED SCHANCHE, the winning pilot

ONE OF HIS MANY GAINS. Martin Brill, of Penn Charter, was on his way for a touchdown when the camera man caught him with the ball
PENN CHARTER continued its winning streak by trimming the Central High School eleven

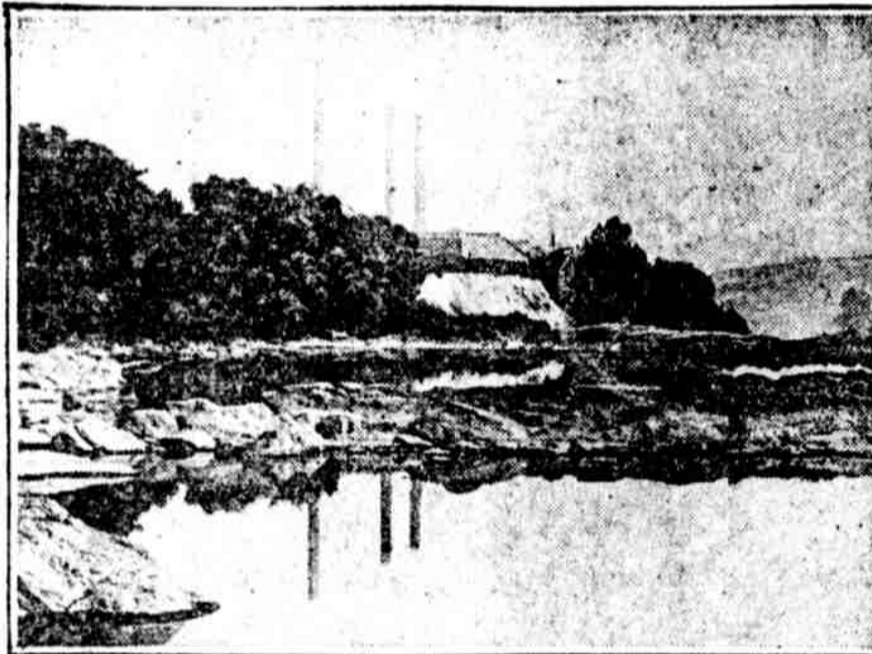

"ANDY" SCHROEDER, captain of Central High footballers

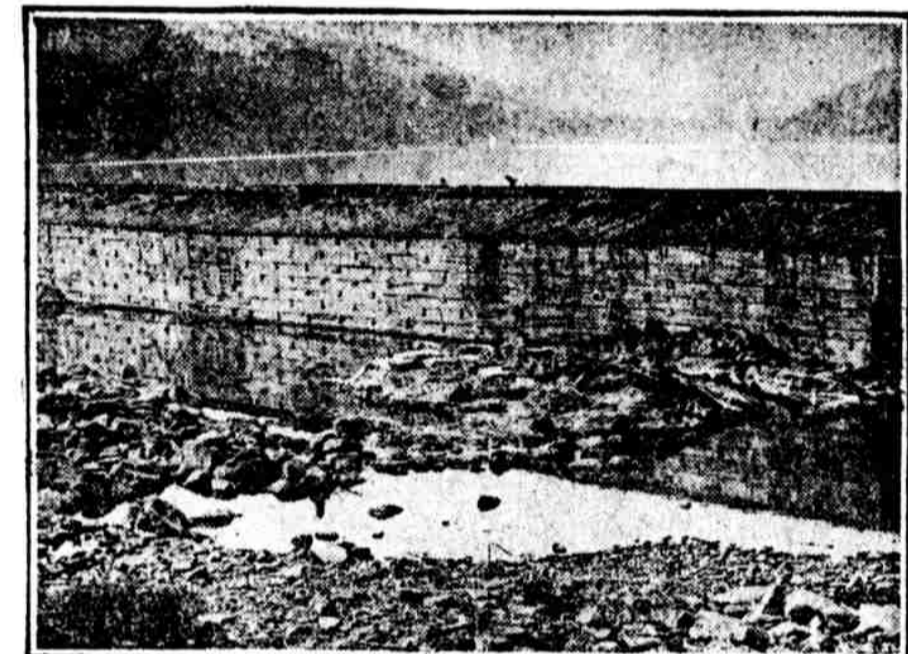

MADAME BELLUEVA, a Russian dancer, who is visiting Philadelphia

BACK FROM BRAZIL. Almost every member of the Maryland crew brought back a mascot

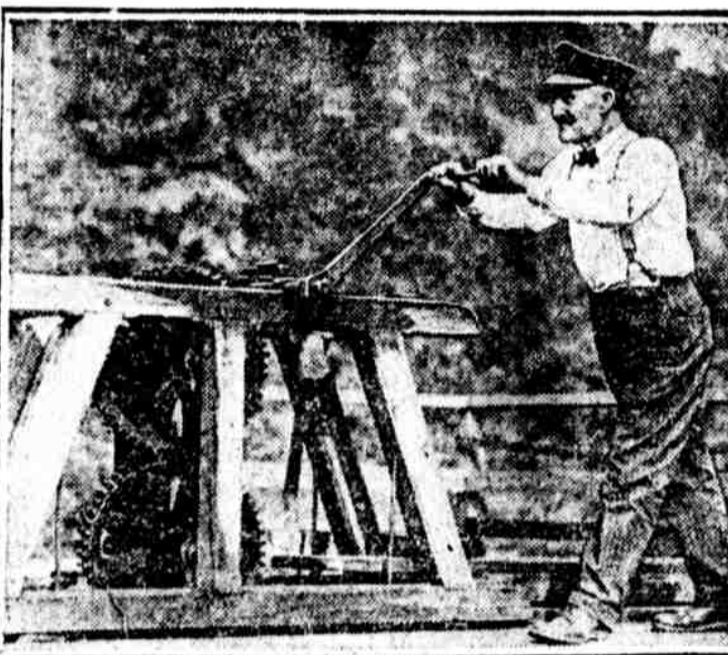

THE SCHUYLKILL NEEDS WATER—DO YOUR DUTY, MR. JUP. PLUV. There is not enough water in the river at the Flat Rock dam to supply the canal and still have enough left to run over the dam. The dam and a part of the river bed north of the dam give a good idea of the shortage of water

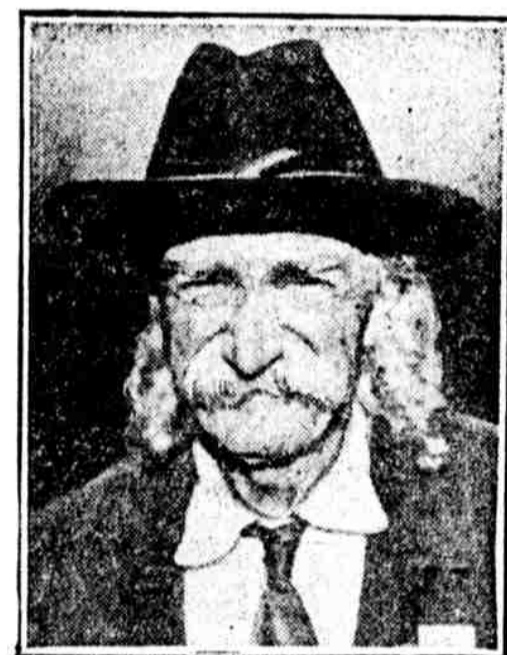

NEIL CAMPBELL, CHAS. ROSNER, CHAS. YHEALON BANDITS wrenched a bag containing money and checks valued at $8900 from Rosner, cashier for Wilson-Martin Company, at Thirty-sixth street and Grays Ferry avenue. Campbell opened fire and the conductor helped in the fruitless chase

TURNTABLE OPERATOR. Van Smolk works for the Philadelphia and Reading Railway at Ninth and Green streets

WILL RETIRE SOON. W. P. Giles, for many years the lock tender at the Flat Rock Dam, will retire this winter. He's building a home along the Schuylkill

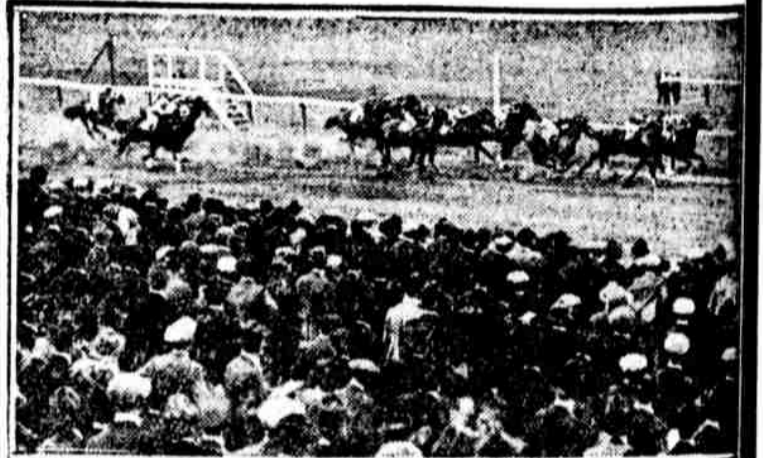

OLDEST G. A. R. VETERAN IS 102. He is George Boyer, of the old Third Illinois Cavalry

KENNETH E. LINSAY, EDWARD MARJORIBANKS, leader, MABOOH MAHMOOD, native of India. OXFORD DEBATERS. They are in this country to represent the English University in debating contests

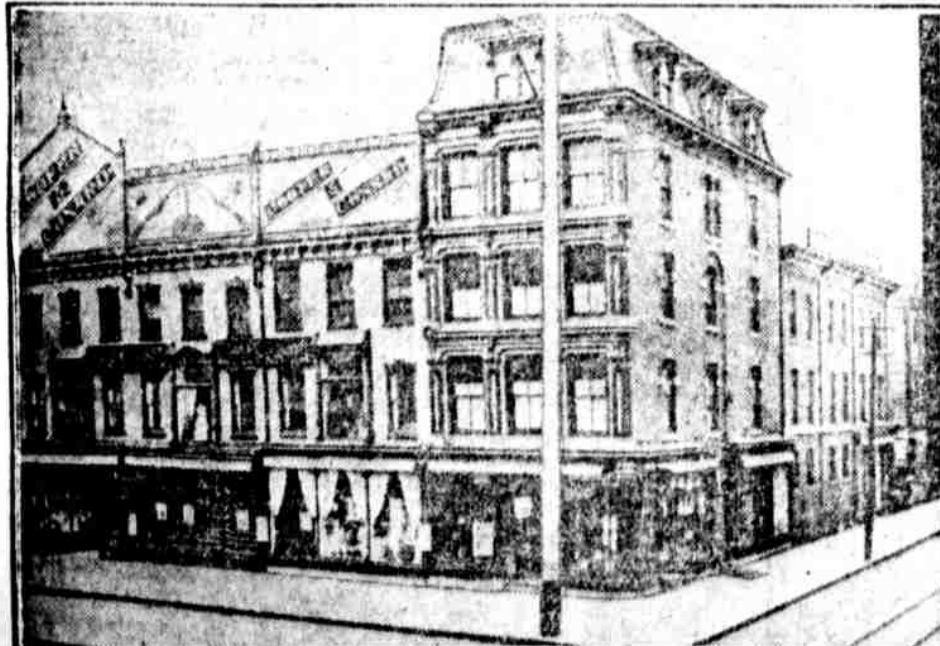

FAMILY OF ACCUSED MAN AT TRIAL of William M. Cressy, alleged slayer of Edith Lavooy, Freeport schoolteacher. Fishing shows James A. Cressy, Fort Thomas, Ky. father; Mrs. R. L. Warriner, Richmond, Va. sister; Austin, and James, Jr.

SPEEDING AROUND THE TRACK AT HAVRE DE GRACE. There were many folk present as this and other races were contested

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

THE COOPER & CONARD STORE, which stood on the southeast corner of Ninth and Market streets. When the building was razed Granville B. Haines & Co. placed the present building on the site. Twenty-eight years ago Gimbel Brothers took over the property and made it a part of their Market street store

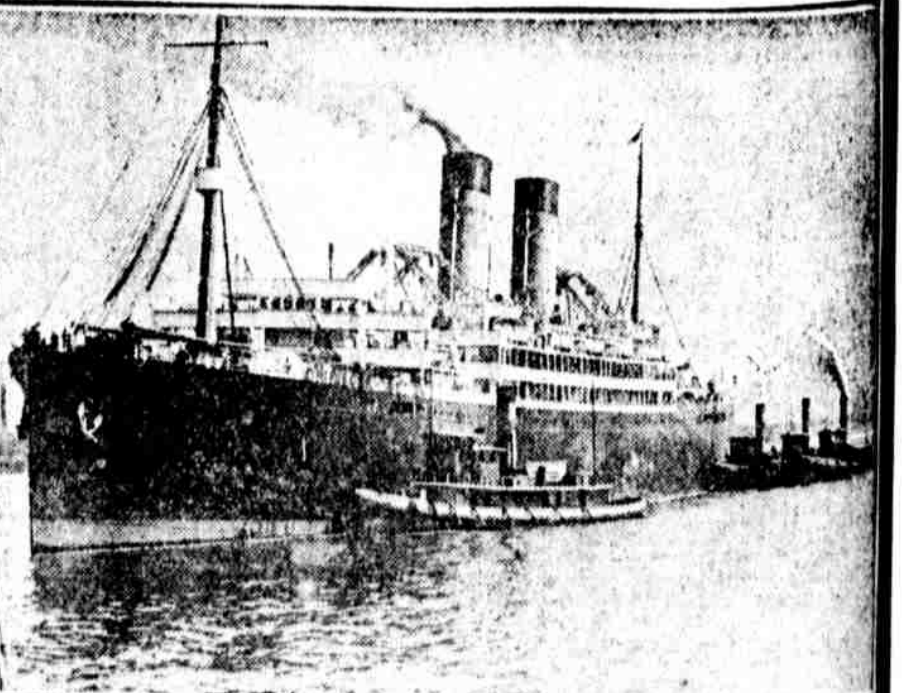

KNOWN TO THOUSANDS. Charles McLaughlin, private secretary to Captain of Detectives Souder. He has served under many captains

COON, a former U. of P. football player, is now with the Franklin and Marshall squad

THE PITTSBURGH ARRIVES IN PORT. The boat was pushed into its dock by four tugs yesterday afternoon. William Bradford is with his mother, Mrs. C. H. Bradford, as they wait to meet friends who have been abroad

THE PITTSBURGH ARRIVES IN PORT. The boat was pushed into its dock by four tugs yesterday afternoon. William Bradford is with his mother, Mrs. C. H. Bradford, as they wait to meet friends who have been abroad