Nancy Wynne Talks of the Paul-Harlan Wedding in Baltimore on Saturday-Various Philadelphians Attend Ceremony

A NOTHER wedding in the Henry N. Paul family took place on Saturday, but this time the bride is not a Philadelphian. A lot of us went down to Baltimore on Saturday morning to attend the wedding, which took place at 4 in the afternoon. You know attend the wedding, which took place at 4 in the afternoon. You know Arthur Paul and Betty Welsh were married in the spring, Bill Paul and Adelaide Newlin on the 16th of last month and John Paul, who is a doctor, to Leita Harlah on Saturday, made the third marriage ceremony in the Paul family within a few months. Ted Paul, the eldest son, married Adeline Pepper, Senate Pepper's daughter, some years

Leita Harlan Paul is the daughter of former Judge Henry D. Harlan and Invitations for the marriage of Miss Reath and Mr. Neilson have been issued.

Battles was best man.

AFTER days of something doing A steadily in a week like last week, we come to a rest with a shock of surprise. Somehow I was wound up last week, and having started going early, I kept it up. It's great when you do that, even if you are fired at night. You get kind of peppy and interested and gay and probably bore those around you to death, but you do have a good time yourself. Be that as it may, there is certainly nothing of large proportions looming up in the social world today.

THERE are a number of changes in plans for the future among the debutantes to tell you about. In the first place, did you know the Greys

There is not only the beauty of having a small well-heated house to keep instead of the old-fashioned ones so many of us are used to, but these small streets will not have the noise small streets will not have the noise of the trolleys and trucks, which tear along these as if the witches were after them. At first they had chosen November 2 for a tea, but since then have found they cannot have possession of their new house on Panama street until some time in December, so the debutante entertainments for Norma will be a series of theatre parties. Mr. and Mrs. Grey are living temporarily in the R. Emott Hares' house at Twenty-second and Pine streets, and the Hares are at their country place in St. Davids.

Lucy and McKnight Black are to have the house next door to the Greys in Panama street; 1922, I think, is the number. They have been living since their wedding in apartments at 2310 Pine street. Lucy Black is Norma Grey's sister.
