

PINCHOT CONFERS AT PITTSBURGH

Making Certain of Support for Legislative Program—Douglas Refuses Progressive Nomination

WILL SUPPORT FORESTER

Conferences are being held in Pittsburgh today between Gifford Pinchot, Republican nominee for Governor, and the candidates of the Allegheny County delegation to the State Legislature.

Mr. Pinchot is seeking to discover if all those, including Senator Leslie, who will represent the western county at Harrisburg next year, will support his legislative and administrative program.

Mr. Pinchot conferred on this subject last night until well after midnight with Mayor Magee, George S. Oliver, Alexander P. Moore, John W. English, John P. Harris, candidate for State Senate, and other leaders.

It is not only the purpose of Mr. Pinchot to ask the candidates as to their stand upon his platform, but, if there are any who refuse to pledge themselves, he expects to announce it on the platform.

The big Republican rally to be held tonight at Syria Mosque, Pittsburgh.

Mr. Pinchot said he will separate the answers to his question into four groups. These will be: Those who refuse to accept the platform at all; those who decline to tell what they will do, and those who, because of "sweet" sentiment in their opinions, or for another reason, say they will support all the planks except those relating to unions and enforcement of the "dry" laws.

M'SPARRAN USES PINCHOT SPEECH TO FIGHT PINCHOT

Quotes Forester's Statement in 1914 That G. O. P. 'Is Thing of the Past'

Gifford Pinchot, Progressive in 1914, was quoted against himself as a Republican candidate for Governor in 1922.

In the speech with which John A. McSparran, head of the State Grange and Democratic candidate for Governor, opened the party's campaign in Pittsburgh at a meeting held last night in Moore Temple.

McSparran, last night, continuing his attacks on high taxes in the State introduced a new feature for him by reading opinions of Mr. Pinchot, Progressive, expressed against the Republican Party.

He quoted from a speech by Mr. Pinchot at Harrisburg, Pa., March 18, 1914, when Mr. Pinchot said:

"The Republican Party is a thing of the past. Disloyal to its traditions and its record, split into factions, contentions, unhappy, weak, it is seeking feverishly for help that it cannot find. The Republicans are divided against themselves, but we know that a house divided against itself cannot stand. More than that, the Republican house is founded on sand—the sand of special privilege, and its foundations are rocking with political corruptions. The rains have descended and the floods are crumbling it to pieces."

DELAWARE COUNTY WOMEN ANGRY AT REPUBLICAN SNUB

Think One of Their Sex Should Have Been Named to Legislature

Republican women of Delaware county are in a rebellious mood today because their candidate for the Legislature was pushed aside by the Republican Committee.

The committee last night named Harry E. Herby to fill the vacancy in the legislative roster caused by the death of Representative Henry Miller.

Some of the women threatened to hold a meeting to support Mrs. Florence Dornblazer, the Democratic candidate at the primary. Later a compromise candidate they suggested Mrs. Jane Alice Barber, of Swarthmore, a sister of former Judge Patterson.

Of the five members of the Committee on Vacancies only one, Mrs. J. Claude Bedford, upheld the women candidates suggested.

"As a matter of justice the place on the ticket should have been given to Mrs. Worrell," said Mrs. Bedford today. "I feel that it is a matter of deep regret that the committee decided otherwise."

"As a member of the Republican County Committee and as president of the Women's Republican Club of Delaware county, I cannot vote for a Democrat. Of course I cannot speak for the other women."

THIEF GETS $4000 LOOT FROM BEDROOM

Steals Jewelry and Clothing in Overbrook Home—Caught Later

A light-footed sneakthief ransacked the bedroom occupied by Mr. and Mrs. C. McFadden, 6401 Overbrook avenue, early yesterday and escaped with $4000 worth of clothes and jewelry without arousing the sleepers.

The man was captured last night in Highland Park when Patrolman Aunan, of the Fernwood station, saw him carrying two handbags and wearing an overcoat reported as stolen.

The prisoner said he is Harris' Companion. Magistrate Valentine held him without bail after Mrs. McFadden had identified three watches, two diamond rings and other articles found in his possession.

"I thought I heard some one moving about in the room yesterday morning," said Mrs. McFadden today. "But I was sleepy and I believed the sound was caused by my son's footsteps. I didn't hear another sound and opened the door, I suppose."

The intruder had forced a door in the sun parlor of the McFadden home.

CONVICT IS REARRESTED; DENIED SIGHT OF BABY

Expected to Find New-Born and Wife, but is Wanted in N. Y.

"It is pretty hard for a man to spend five years in the Eastern Penitentiary looking forward to a meeting with the son he has never seen, and then he denied the privilege," Jacob Shindler, twenty-six years old, told Magistrate Renshaw in Central Station today.

Shindler was released from the penitentiary this morning, fully expecting to find his young wife and baby, born three months after his sentence began, waiting for him. Instead, Detective Stevenson approached with a detainer from the New York police, charging him with the murder of the same woman for which he was convicted here.

The man almost collapsed in front of the penitentiary when he did not see his wife there to meet him.

When he was held without bail to await extradition, Shindler requested Magistrate Renshaw to locate his wife and son. Their home is in Boston, where Shindler also wanted for pocketing. Shindler is a college graduate and during his imprisonment was editor of the prison weekly.

CHURCHES DEMAND U. S. SAVE ARMENIA

Federation Calls on Government to Go to War if Necessary to Stop Atrocities

FORTY READY TO FIGHT

Resolutions demanding that the United States Government take "military measures," if necessary, to protect the Armenians from the Turks, were adopted at a mass-meeting in Witherspoon Hall, under the direction of the Federation of Churches, last night.

Dr. Paul S. Leinbach, who presided, told by Dr. Mark H. Ward, who was engaged in medical work with the Near East Relief at Harport. He was deported three months ago by the Turks.

Dr. Ward told of how men, women and children were driven on to the roads by a distance of 600 miles, if they survived, and then left in the mountains without shelter or food to die.

Dr. Leinbach said he originally inserted in the resolution a request to the government to take whatever measures were necessary to protect the Armenians from the Turks.

"I move we put teeth in that resolution by inserting 'diplomatic or military,'" exclaimed the Rev. Dr. P. Y. Scholly, a Presbyterian clergyman. "I also move that we insert 'demand' instead of 'request' in requesting our government to do this."

Dr. Scholly's proposition caught the audience, and a dozen speakers insisted that "military" measures should be inserted.

"Do you know that that means war?" said the Rev. H. E. Benton, pastor of Messiah Universalist Church. "How many of you are ready to go to war to protect the Armenians?"

About forty persons stood up.

PERSHING MAKES APPEAL AGAINST FALSE ECONOMY

General Says Minimum Regular Force Should Be 150,000

Washington, Oct. 3.—(By A. P.)—In an appeal to the newly formed national organization of reserve officers of the army in session here to use its influence against "false economy" in army appropriations was made by General Pershing today, speaking at the first convention of the citizen officers.

The general at the same time reiterated his assertion that the minimum force of regulars needed by the country was 150,000 men and 13,000 officers. "That should be the very lowest limit," he declared.

"The influence of this organization should be very great in arousing our people to the necessity for reasonable appropriations for these purposes," General Pershing said.

"It would be false economy to save a few dollars by neglecting common preparation in peace times, and then to spend billions to make up the deficiency when war comes. Just as far as the people become interested in this matter, just that far will Congress stand ready to make the necessary appropriations."
