

MET AT NOBLE. Miss Cecil Leitch, star British golfer, a spectator during Berthelby Cup tourney, at Huntingdon Valley Country Club

UP AMONG THE GLOBES. George Hemmingway adjusting the electric lights on standards in City Hall courtyard

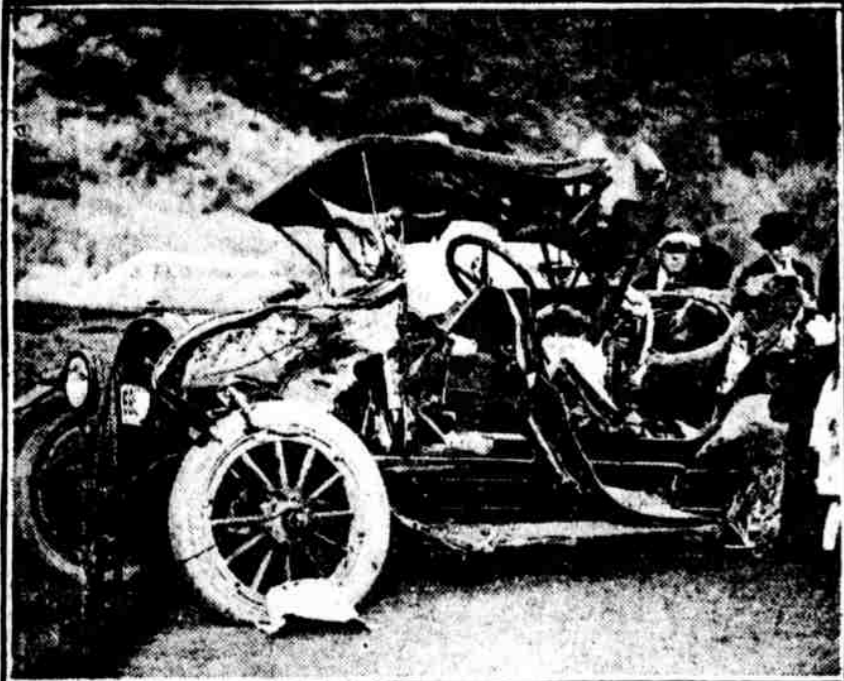

THE CLEAN-UP CAME. City Hall workmen were put to work on the statue of George Washington, in City Hall, yesterday. It took a lot of soap and water to do the job

YOUNG AMERICA ENVIES HIM. The happy lad is Eddie Bennett, mascot of the New York Yankees. He'll be much in evidence during World Series

GIOVANNI MARTINELLI (right) and ANTONIO SCOTTI, passengers on the same boat, as they arrive in New York from Italy

AUTOMOBILE IN GRADE-CROSSING ACCIDENT. Mrs. John Moroy, of East Mauch Chunk, was killed when a freight train struck the car at Lower Weiss Crossing, near Mauch Chunk

GREAT WEATHER for great swing work. This fair citizen of West Philadelphia was found at a playground

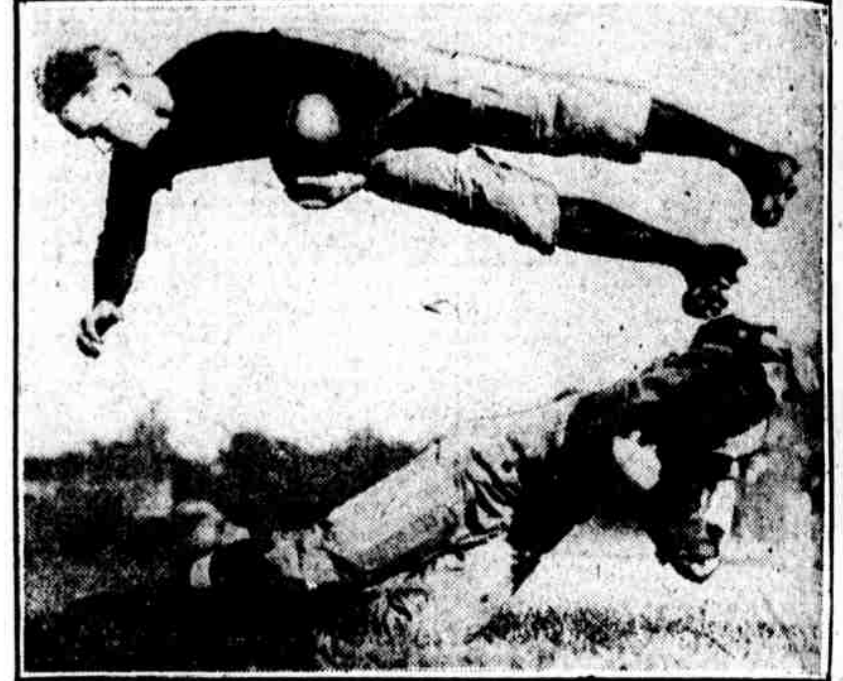

Miss Rose Schneiderman, of New York

Miss Emma Steghagen, of Chicago

MORE SOCCER TEAMS in action this season than ever before. The number of teams has greatly increased in West Philadelphia

WHY HAVE WINGS, WHEN ONE CAN FLY LIKE THIS? "Ty" Rauler, captain of Washington High School team, in the act of spilling what otherwise might have been a perfect tackle, on the part of Gene Casey

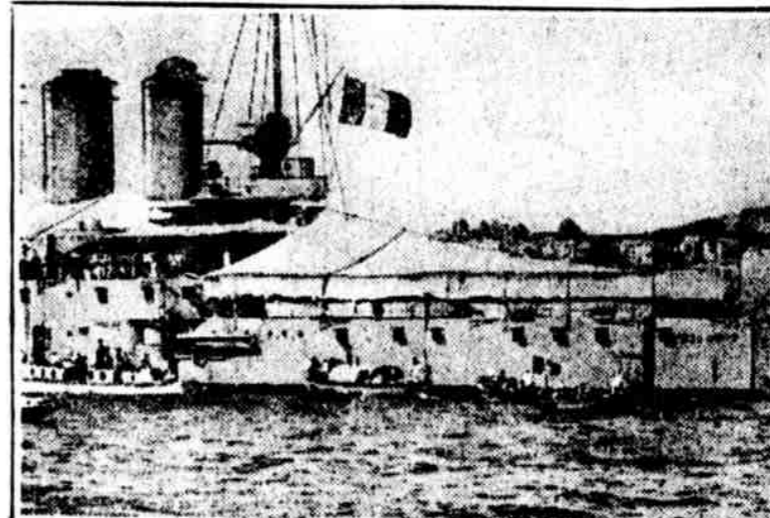

PAUL WENDLER, Jr., managing director of Tyrians, who is planning rally for Monday night

INVITED HERE FOR STUDY. Mlle. Yvonne Novajan, of Belgium, will prepare herself to teach Belgian children proper ways to health

THE BURNING OF SMYRNA. Four hours after start of fire. Moving-picture men were near at hand, as the Turks made their attack. Hundreds of small boats were used to take the refugees from the town

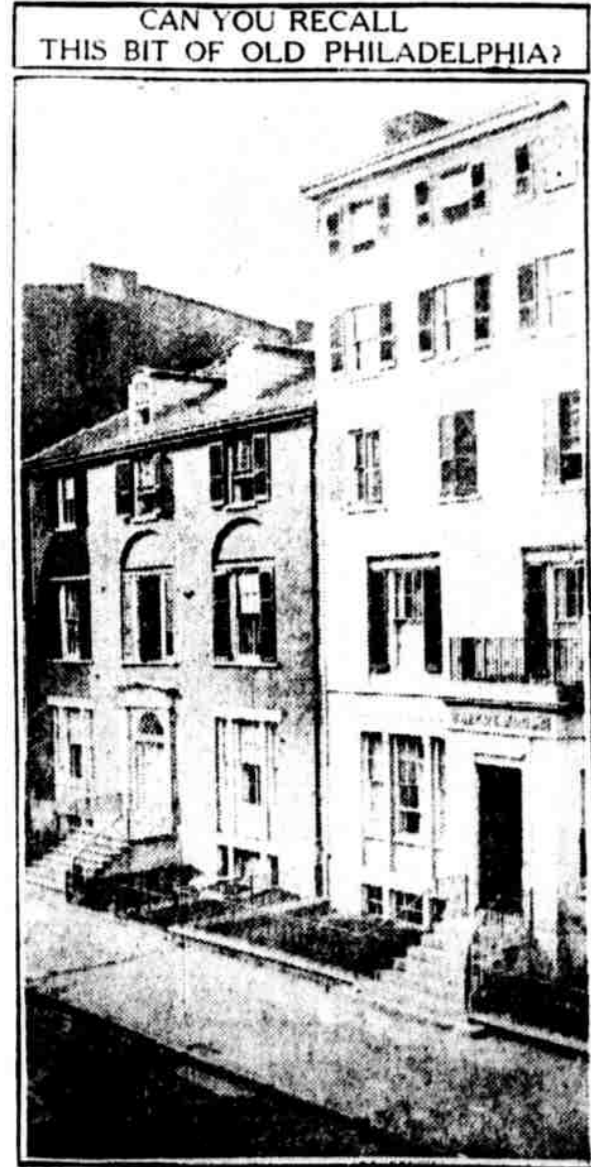

Refugees Boarding Battleship

ENJOYED THE OX ROAST, held on the Heyburn Farm, Walkingford, by the Delaware County G. O. P. In the group are Congressman Butler, Richard J. Baldwin and J. K. Haggerty

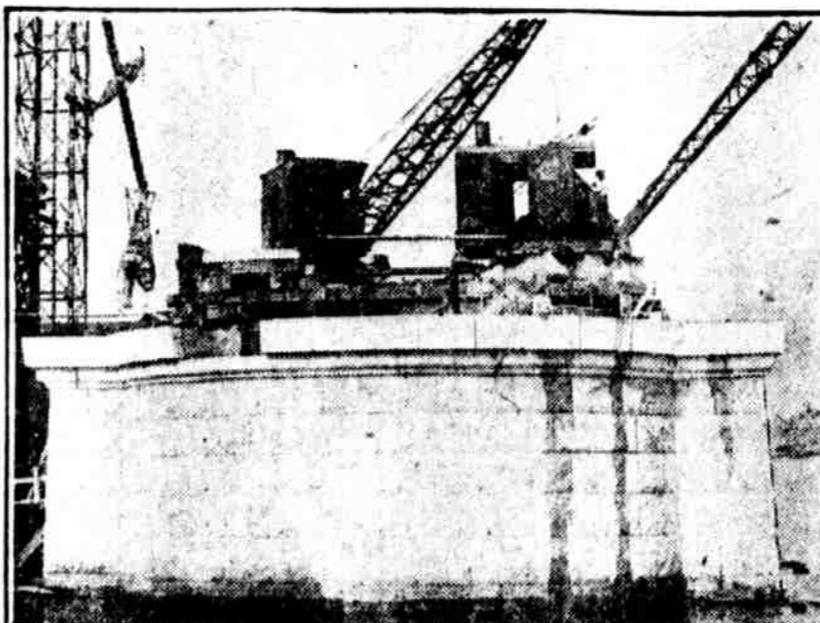

PRESIDENT COM-FORT of Haverford College, watches the football practice

THE NORTH SIDE OF CHESTNUT STREET west of Ninth. Etching shows the present site of Federal Reserve Bank and environs. These buildings were razed in 1880. Charles W. Beck, Sr., is contributor

LEONARD B. GARY, in charge of U. S. Foreign Trade Bureau in this city

THE START OF THE PHILADELPHIA PIER for the Delaware River Bridge at the foot of Vine street. Two derricks handle the huge blocks that make up the new construction

REAR ADMIRAL W. L. RODGERS, U. S. technical adviser at The Hague

BRIDGING DELAWARE AVENUE. Over this bridge the equipment and material for the Delaware River Bridge will be handled

WALTER W. HEAD, second vice president of American Bankers' Association

BELTRAM MATHIEU, Chilean Ambassador, back from the homeland

HAD A BIG TIME at the Delaware County G. O. P. ox roast

"PORT ARMS." Just a part of the rifle company of the Philadelphia Police Department, caught as they drill in Hunting Park