

A FEW OF THE WORLD SERIES SPECTATORS. General John J. Pershing and Judge and Mrs. Kenesaw Mountain Landis, photographed in their box at the Polo Grounds, New York, just before the Yankees and the Giants clashed.

OPPOSING MANAGERS. Miller Huggins (left), of the Yankees, and John McGraw, of the Giants, met on the Polo grounds in New York, as the first game of the 1922 World Series was about to start.

"BIG SIX" KEEPING SCORE. Christy Mathewson, seeing his first big league game in three years, MET ON THE POLO GROUNDS IN NEW YORK, as the first game of the 1922 World Series was about to start.

FORMER MEMBERS OF THE ATHLETICS. Left to right: Bush, Shawkey, pitchers on the New York American team; Eddie Plank, in civies; Schang and Home-Run Baker.

DR. MARION PARK, new head (left) and Miss Eleanor Bontecou, Dean of Yonkers, N. Y., all ready for their studios SEEN BY THE CAMERAMAN AS BRYN MAWR COLLEGE OPENS FOR ITS THIRTY-EIGHTH YEAR.

SISTERS. Isabelle and Helen Benugrist, of Yonkers, N. Y., all ready for their studios SEEN BY THE CAMERAMAN AS BRYN MAWR COLLEGE OPENS FOR ITS THIRTY-EIGHTH YEAR.

MISS ANNA CAIRNS

MRS. DAVIS J. CHRISTMAN AND ANNE WOOD

MISS HELEN GARRIGUES

CHINESE FETE AND PROCESSION OF THE DRAGON were given yesterday on the lawn at the home of Mrs. E. Clarence Miller, in Oak Lane, in aid of the Review Club Building Fund. Four of the cast are shown.

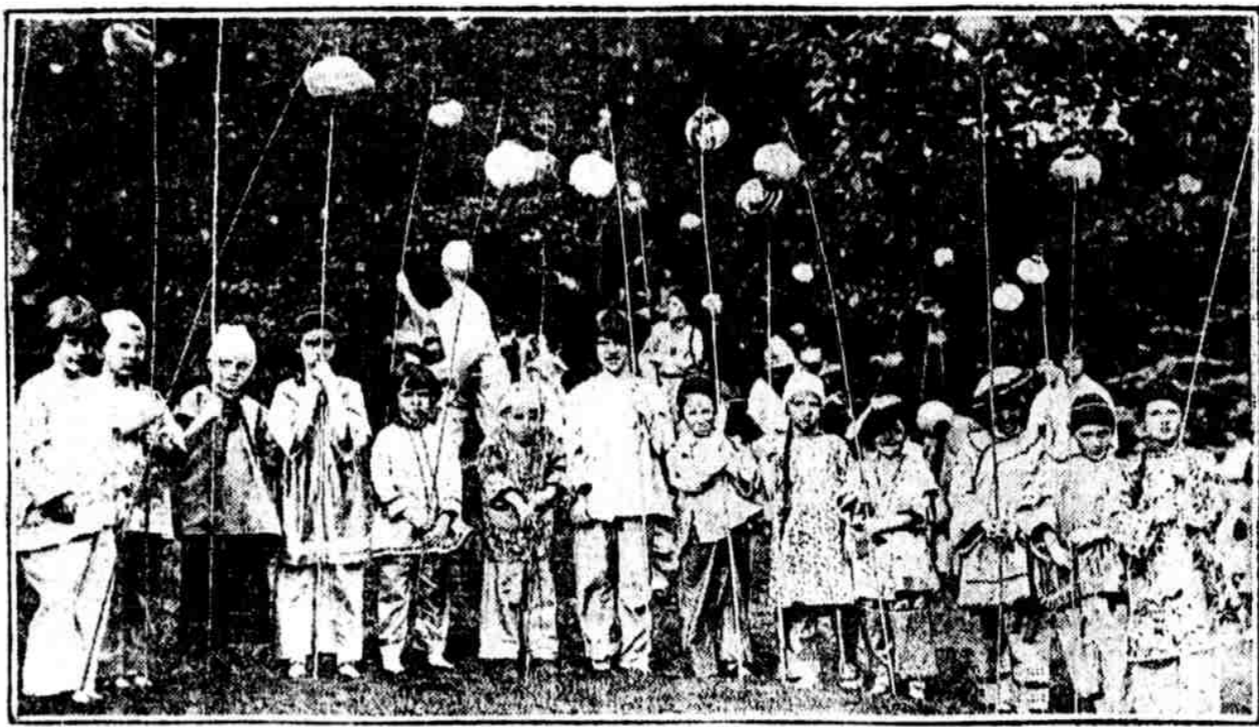

REAR ADMIRAL E. R. STITT, Chief of Bureau of Medicine

JOHN HAYS HAMMOND, mining engineer, called on the President

AT WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, Mrs. William A. Gavin, of England

"LISTENING IN." John Garrity is the operator at Engine Company No. 32, Sixth and Locust streets. These firemen have a high-class radio set.

LANTERN BEARERS. These children appeared in the Procession of the Dragon, adding to funds for the erection of a new clubhouse for the Review Club of Oak Lane.

MILDRED WOOD swings a wicked mallet

CLOSE TO A WICKET. She is Mrs. Howard D. J. Hodson

MAIN LINE FOLK gathered yesterday afternoon at the Green Hill Farms, where they participated in a croquet contest. A league may be formed.

MRS. HORACE S. SMITH, JR., watching Green Hill Farms matches

BILLY CRAIG, of the Yanks THE MASCOT OPPOSITION. Billy Craig leaped higher yesterday than Bennett when Giants won

ED BENNETT of the Yanks THE MASCOT OPPOSITION. Billy Craig leaped higher yesterday than Bennett when Giants won

PARK GUARD SELGEE'S watch is much in demand by the children at Rittenhouse Square

ONE OF THE BIGGEST GUNS IN THE WORLD firing a shell weighing over a ton to a range of about thirty miles at the Aberdeen proving ground in Maryland

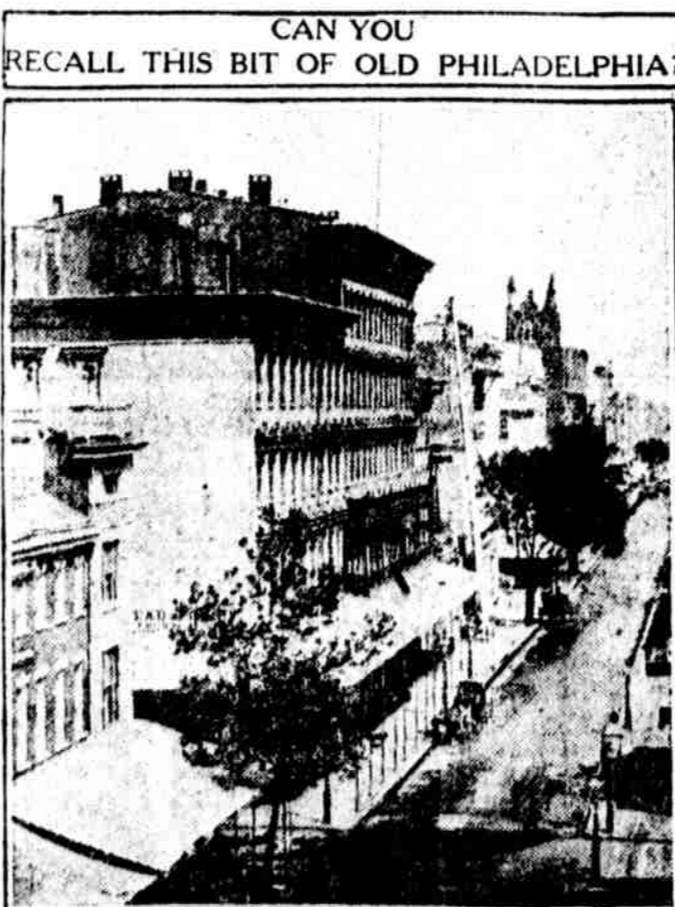

MRS. JOHN PEPPERMAN, on way to court, where Mrs. Clara Woodward is on trial for murdering her husband, John Pepperman. Veronica Pepperman is with her mother

MISS FANNY BRICE, former "Follies" girl, who is back from an engagement in London

"DOUG" SHOWS FRIEND WIFE how to become an expert archer. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks arrive in New York from the West

THE OLD GIRARD HOUSE, shown at the left, stood on the northeast corner of Ninth and Chestnut streets. In the distance can be seen the tower of the old Masonic Temple. Charles W. Beck, Jr., is the contributor

MRS. F. C. MORRELL AND SON GARRETT, OF LANGHORNE

THEY'RE WEARING 'EM LONGER IN PHILLY. Miss Sara Bell Spector

MRS. J. P. McCULLEY and son Harry G., of 4532 North Broad street

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

MET BY THE CAMERAMAN AS HE STROLLED ALONG BROAD STREET. BEAUTIFUL OCTOBER WEATHER MAKES THE CITY'S MAIN TRAFFIC ARTERY A GRAND PLACE FOR WALKING