Entered as Second-Class Matter at the Postoffice at Philadelphia. Pa.

PHILADELPHIA, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1922

Published Daily Except Sunday, Subscription Price 56 a Year by Mail.
Copyright, 1922, by Public Ledger Company

PRICE TWO CENTS

MILLS PASSES LIE TO MRS. HALL AS GOVERNOR PRODS

Under All-Night Grilling

EDWARDS IS ANGRY AT FUTILE INQUIRY

Talls State Police Head Not to Leave New Brunswick Till Mystery Is Solved

WIDOW STILL IS IMMUNE FROM ANY "THIRD DEGREE"

New Jersey Executive Expected Arrest Yesterday-Pledges Help to Charlotte

New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 7 .-If Mrs. Hall says that she saw me only once the day after my wife dis-This statement was made today by James Mills, husband of Mrs. Eleanor Reinhardt Mills, choir singer murdered September 14 with the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall, rector of the Episcopal Church of St. John the Evangelist.

Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall, widow and statements had mentioned meeting Mills the day after her husband and his wife disappeared, but has not enumerated the four instances of meeting him which he alleges VISITORS HAVE FAST positively. "I remember distinctly the times I men Mrs. Hall that day," said Mills teday. "The first time was between I and 9 o'clock in the morning. The my home when I was cooking lunch for my daughter Charlotte and my son. I saw her again about 5 o'clock in the fternoon, and the fourth time about 7 clock in the evening, when I had gone the church to open it for choir pracwartskopf, head of the State police, New Brunswick last evening to put some backbone into the county inves-

The Governor declared himself today, then seen during a trip to Gloucester County, as standing squarely behind the

"The murder of Mr. Hall and Mrs. Mills must be cleared up," said the Governor, with emphasis. "There has Governor, with emphasis. "There has hand to been too much time lost solving this struggle. mystery. I sent Colonel Swartzkonf to New Brunswick to get the murderer and not to come back until he did. I want the murderer arrested, whoever it is, and I expected that there would be as arrest made yesterday. I am surrised that there was not.

"This murder must be cleared up.
The daughter of Mrs. Mills appealed to me for help, and the needle me for help, and the people of that section and the State at large want to see the mystery solved and the criminal The Governor was asked why he had sent the head of the State Police to take charge at New Brunswick.

'You can't send a lawyer to do a job of this kind,' said the Governor, 'so sent Colonel Swartzkopf. I am going to give all the help within my power to find the murderer. Colonel Swartzlopf was given instructions to go the limit. The next time I expect to see him is when he comes to me and makes a report that the murderer is under prest."

The effect of Colonel Swartzkopf's atmost list last night was very evident in the two'' seized activity of the county authorities the first real action since the mur-ser investigation began. Colonel Swartzsopt had been informed that his men were not getting all the backing they felt they should have, and he laid down the law with a firm hand and plain-ing tongue to the Prosecutors of first effect of his coming was the lengthy examination of "Willie" Stevens, Mrs. Hall's brother, who was stilled for seven hours last night and y this morning. The examination began at 7 o'clock had been visiting her father, and it is last evening and lasted until 2 o'clock understood Mrs. Prown resented the understood Mrs. Col. Swartzkopf was visit. Clark then decided to call on her new husband and fight the matter

Murder Spot Visited

The long grilling of Stevens, cham-pion amateur fire-fighter and town ec-centric, is said to have included a grue-bene midnight visit to the lonely spot on the Phillips' farm, two miles in the centry, where the bodies of the slain Continued on Page Four. Column Two

WOMAN COMPELS RAID

Agered at Husband's Sprees, Causes Arrests at Oakview

Spress, His secretary in a statement today said that "if the press is interested enuogh to have me do so, I will notify the press of stills in the secretary in a statement today said that "if the press is interested enuogh to have me do so, I will notify the secretary in a statement today said that "if the press is interested enuogh to have me do so, I will notify the secretary in a statement today said that "if the press is interested enuogh to have me do so, I will notify the secretary in a statement today said that "if the press is interested enuogh to have me do so, I will notify the secretary in a statement today said that "if the press is interested enuogh to have me do so, I will notify the secretary in a statement today said that "if the press is interested enuogh to have me do so, I will notify the secretary in a statement today said that "if the press is interested enuogh to have me do so, I will not the secretary in a statement today said that "if the press is interested enuogh to have me do so, I will not if the press it interested enuogh to have me do so, I will not if the press it interested enuogh to have me do so, I will not if the press it interested enuogh to have me do so, I will not if the press it interested enuogh to have me do so, I will not if the press it interested enuogh to have me do so, I will not if the press it interested enuogh to have me do so, I will not if the press it interested enuogh to have me do so, I will not if the press it interested enuogh to have me do so, I will not if the press it interested enuogh to have me do so, I will not if the press it interested enuogh to have me do so, I will not if the press it interested enuogh to have me do so, I will not interested enuogh to have me do so the press it interested enuogh to have me do so the press it interested enuogh to have me do so the press it interested enuogh to have me do so the press it interested enuogh to have me do so the press it interested enuogh to have me do so the press it inter raided a series of Delaware County raided a series of stills in Oakthem of the time, place and conditions under which Mr. Lawson may be interto an appeal by a woman resiof the village, who declared she rechildren were starving because the children were starving because and spent his money on "moon-is men, giving their names as Andy D. Martin Cavviak, Andy Platuse, am Brush, Vincent Tissa and Description of the Magistrate

A Clifton Heights, held them in Description of the Court.

"Willie" Stevens Is Put | More Than 1000 Letters Sent to Charlotte Mills

Charlotte Mills has received more than 1000 letters from strangers in every State of the Union since the murder of her mother. They fill a scap box.

"Don't be a flapper," admonish some of them. "Send me your picture, color of your hair, eyes and $2 and I will tell you who killed your mother," "Will you marry me?" "May I adopt you?" Men, women and children are among Charlotte's correspondents.

She is proud of her swelling mail, but the mailman is sore. "My load's increased 80 per cent," says he, "and it all goes to Char-

A study of Charlotte Mills, with new photographs, appears on Page 17.

SOUTHERN ELEVEN U. OF P. A BATTLE ville, found the young woman in a dying condition and ordered her immediate removal to the Mercer Hospital, of the slain clergyman, in interviews Early Indications Point to Record-Preaking Crowd at Franklin Field

AND HEAVY AGGREGATION

thusiasm of Penn football rooters and the started early for the stadium to wit, ness the battle between the Pen to order a fast run to the home of Thomas Shinn, his father, in Morris-ville. Once there a telephone call that it will force Old Penn to the limit. At 1 o'clock the mammoth horseshoe was nearly half-filled and it was evident that another record-breaking crowd for an early season game would be on hand to witness the intersectional An official of Burlington County said and these have for the most part been sold. There is little doubt around the offices of the Athletic Association that the precious cardboards will be very

Continued on Page Fifteen. Column Four TRIES TO FIGHT DUEL OVER DIVORCED WIFE

Rejected and Police Are Called Leon Clark, of this city, last night offered to fight a revolver duck with Thomas W. Brown, of Primos, whose wife divorced Clark less than a year ago. 'Let's fight it out and may the best with a man win," said Clark, as, with a pistol in one hand, he offered another weapon to Brown.

The suggestion of a duel with its did not appeal to Mr. Brown, who seized the other's arm and jerked it upward. One of the revolvers exploded and the bullet entered the ceiling.

Mrs. Brown seized her former husband, and other members of the family telephoned to the Upper Darby police. Clark protested that he had done nothing wrong, and that his offer to nght a duel was "a fair and square" method of dealing with the man who had married his former wife. He was taken to the Fernwood police station and held in $1000 bail by Magistrate Valentine.

Meanway formerly used to connect building a connect building to the contractor.

A building is being torn down at Clifton and Sansom streets, behind the hospital, for an addition. Wappler's truck was being loaded when the passes way formerly used to connect building the contractor. in $1000 bail by Magistrate Valentine.

Mrs. Brown and her first husband have two daughters. One of the girls had been visiting her father, and it is

TOM LAWSON EXPECTED

TO MAKE REAPPEARANCE Secretary Ready to Arrange Meeting Between Financier and Press Boston, Oct. 7.—(By A. P.)— Thomas W. Lawson, who has been in seclusion since announcing the sale of his South Shore estate, apparently is planning an early reappearance, lease of a furnished apartment in the Fenway district for a year was in behalf of his daughter, Mrs. Burgess

AND ENDS OWN LIFE IN JEALOUS RAGE

Mount Holly Resident Wounds Sweetheart Who Left Him to Marry Another

FIRES LAST BULLET INTO HER ON WAY TO HOSPITAL

Takes Wounded Woman to Home of Father Before He Tries Suicide

Charles M. Shinn, of Mount Holly shot and seriously wounded Mrs. Florence Matthews, twenty years old, of Cookstown, N. J., today while he had a jitney drive wait outside her home, and later shot himself fatally.

Burlington County officials say that Shinn was in love with the woman and that she had scorned his pleadings that she leave her husband for him. Shinn died in the Mercer Hospital at Trenton, at 12:40 o'clock, as sur- Man Arrested After Oil-Soaked geons were preparing to operate on the young woman, who has three bullets in her abdomen and one in her head.

Alternate rage 'and pity marked Shinn's actions before he killed himself. He had dragged Mrs. Matthews out to the motorcar from her home, and after taking her to his father's home in Mariarilla aummonad a physician. Morrisville summoned a physician. Dr. Arthur Warcham, of Morris-

Fires Again in Taxicab Once more Mrs. Matthews was bun-dled into the jitney and Samuel Good-rich, of Trenton, the driver, sped to the hospital. As the car rocked along the road Shinn's rage returned once more and he fired a bullet into the woman's head. He then sent three bullets into his own head.

Said She Was Shinn's Wife Mrs. Matthews had told Dr. Wareham Mrs. Matthews had told Dr. Wareham that Shinn shot her. She also told him that she was Shinn's wife.

Both were unconscious when the jitney reached the hospital, but after Mrs. Matthews regained her senses in the hospital for a few moments, and was asked who had shot her, she replied that Shinn didn't shoot her and she hadn't shot hersel.

Goodrich, the beginning in Wrightstown. Shinn ordered him to drive to Cookstown, saying he wanted to get "Mrs. Shinn!" there.

Shinu gave no caplanation other than the started early for the stadium to wit.

ness the battle between the Red and Blue and University of South.

While little is known of the strength of the Southern eleven, it is expected along a road toward the hospital he said Shinn called out:

As an appetizer, the Penn yearlings squared off against the speedy Dean Academy eleven from Franklin, Mass.

Forty-thousand seats are available and these heve for the seath are available and these seath are available and the seat nilitary authorities and was sent to Fort Leavenworth, returning a year were soon revived. kstown, where he works as a farm hand.

Were in Philadelphia Recently Shinn frequently met Mrs. Matthews unaware that his wife and baby had during her husband's absence, officials been rescued, came down the stairway say, and when she began living with toward a rear door, while the men, the ex-soldier again Shinn pleaded in directed by Battalion Chief Dougherty, ain for her to return to him. Shinn is said to have been employed in this city. He frequently went out with Mrs. Matthews without her husband's knowledge, detectives say, and planation, was in Philadelphia with her last week. While h

TRUCK OVERTURNED BY CAVE-IN: 2 HURT

Caught in Accident at Rear of Jefferson Hospital

Two men were injured shortly after 11 o'clock today when an underground passage at the Jefferson Hospital annex llapsed under the weight of an auto-

The injured are Lewis Wappler, 2727 Nineteenth street, owner and of the truck, and Stephen Hettle, North wrong, and that his offer to fight 1416 North Eleventh street, a checker sageway, formerly used to connect buildings, caved in. The truck overturned. Wappler's legs were caught and crushed, and Hettle was injured about

YEGGMEN GET $650

Smash Safe Combination in Hard ware Store at Front and Lehigh Safe crackers broke into the hard-ware store of Fifer & Beatty, northeast corner of Front street and Lehigh avenue, early today, and after ashing the safe combination, escaped with

Police discovered that the men en climbing over an awning in front of the store, and walking along a cornice to a side window on the second

FIRE CALL: NO BLAZE

Alarm From Bellevue - Stratford Merely Gives Firemen Exercise An alarm of fire, sent out from the sellevue-Stratford Hotel at 1 o'clock Allison Edwards.

APARTMENTS TO SUIT EVERY PURSE and meet every requirement may be found quickly by consulting the Apartment estums or page 22 — Adv.

Submarine Heaver

CARL MAYS Whom Huggins will probably send to the mound today in an effort to turn back the Giants

Rags Are Found in Store at 1125 N. 40th Street

SUSPECT INJURED LATER BY GASOLINE EXPLOSION

Leaving his wife and two-year-old son in their beds while a fire threatened his delicatessen store at 1125 tween the Yanks and the Glants in North Fortieth street, shortly after 4 o'clock this morning, Samuel Levin, the proprietor, was arrested as he atempted to escape from the place. Later setting fire to the place.

Mrs. Levin and the baby, Samuel, Jr., were saved by Patrolman McEwan, who collapsed after the rescue and was taken to the Presbyterian Hospital. Oil Soaked Rags Found

A can of gasoline and a bundle of rags soaked in oil were found behind the counter in the rear of the store which was directly under the bedroom The gasoline was mixed with oil and when, after the blaze was extinguished, Levin stirred the liquid to show the firemen that it was harmless the mixture flared into flame and caused a slight explosion. The flame burned

Levin, who was treated at the Miser icordia Hospital.

rear. They found the doors locked but bursting them open.

McEwan heard faint cries on the bedroom door locked. Although the east, brit weakened, as a result or inhaling smoke, he broke open the door. Henry Fab The patrolman roused Mrs. Levin base path, p and was about to help her to the street.

"Take the baby first," she said, "maybe I can make the street my-

McEwan threw a quilt around the infant, and groping his way down the smoke-filled stairway, handed the baby o Houck. McEwan then returned to the second floor and carried Mrs. Levin to the street. Then the patrolman collapsed. Mrs. Levin and the baby

Ask Levin to Explain

Several fire companies resconded to were attacking the flames, Patrolman Houck, who was aiding the firemen, stopped Levin as he was about to leave and demanded an ex-While he was being questioned Chief Dougherty discovered the gasoline can and rags. He ordered Levin's arrest. That's only fish in the can, Levin said.

"Explanation" Was Costly As Chief Dougherty and other fire As Chief Dougherty and other in Colonel George E. Schap, positive officials stood nearby with lighted lanter, says he is unable to account for terns, Levin stirred the contents of the terns, says he is unable to account for the sending of a loaded weapon from receptacle and a moment later a tongue

Refore Magistrate Stevenson Doughstore and was corroborated by Captain Pettit, Engine Company No. 6 and Lieutenant Hogg, Engine Company

In mentioning the bucket of Dougherty said:
"If that had been covered there would have been an explosion which probably would have killed every one in the testify Assistant Fire Marshal Gallagher told the magistrate that Levin's place was insured for $4000. The fire damage is about $500.

FAMILIES ARE RESCUED FROM ROOF IN BLAZE

Hillcrest Apartment Tenants Feared Stairway Would Cut Off Escape Residents of the Hillcrest Apart-ments. Thirty-fourth and Race streets, fled to the roof when fire started in the building this morning, shortly after 9 o'clock. They were rescued by fire-

The fire originated in the servants quarters, in the rear of the first floor. Smoke spread quickly through the building, which is five stories, and The fire originated in the servants families occupying apartments on the upper floors, fearing escape would be impossible by the stairway, fled to the Ladderman Curley, of Truck Com-pany No. 6, hastened to the roof when his company reached the fire and led the tenants safely down the hre-escape. Then he plunged into the servants' quarters and rescued a Negro baby, which had been left there a one.

The blaze was quickly retinguished.

Damage amounts to about $130.

RAIN AS YANKEES AND GIANTS DRILL

Mays and Nehf Probable Pitchprs in Series Game Today. Weather Permitting

DREARY DAY IN ACCORD WITH HUGGINS' SPIRIT

Early Drizzle and Dark Clouds Make Playing of Nine Innings Doubtful

Battle Array for Fourth Big Fracas

E. Meusel, If. Young, rf. Kelly, 1b. Cunningham, cf. Snyder, c. Nehf, p.

YANKEES Witt, cf. Dugan, 3b. Ruth. If. Pipp, 1b. R. Meusel, cf. Schang, c. McNally, 26. Scott, 85.

Vehf, p. Mays, p. Umpires Owens (A), behind the plate; Klem (N), first base; Hilde-brand (A), second base; McCormick (N), third base. Time-2 o'clock P. M.

By JOSEPH T. LABRUM New York, Oct. 7 .- It began to rain shortly before 1 o'clock today and a postponement of the fourth clash be-Father Knickerbocker's exclusive World Series looked extremely probable.

A drizzle this morning dampened the bleacher benches and sprinkled the he was held without ball on a charge of dusty diamond. It was a dreary day. in absolute accord with the spirit of the Yankees, who are reeling under the two victories scored by the aggressive

National League champions,
The hope of the McGraw men was bright and cheery. They expect to dash through the Huggins athletes for four consecutive triumphs. They ar-gue that the nearest the Yanks will come to victory was in the ten-inning tie game on Thursday. The American Leaguers were the home folks today and gave funereal welcome to the Giants, who planned to make it four straight over their hapless foemen and capture the crown of Groh Confident after many efforts, in prospects of a contest dubious and uncertain. The weather man took a slant second floor. He reached there with breeze would bring showers before much difficulty and found the front nightfall. The wind came in puffs from with breeze would bring showers before the east, bringing with it an intermit Henry Fabian, groundkeeper, had the base path, pitcher's and batter's box blanketed under heavy canvases. The outer gardens were in need of rain and the drizzled served only to allay the dusty top soil. The crowd came early and the wet weather did not seem to rust the edge of its enthusiasm.

Spectators placed newspapers on the vet chairs and watched the threatening Continued on Page Fifteen. Column Three

RIFLE MAILED HERE WOUNDS N. Y. CARRIER

Weapon Discharges as Mount Morris Postman Delivers It

A bullet from a rifle sent through the mails from this city shattered the bone in the right arm of William Alexander, a rural mail carrier, of Mount Morris, according to word received by postal authorities here today.

The loaded weapon discharged as but not enough to cause pedestrians to law apply to British ships on American A exander lifted it from his mail bag. He is in a hospital. That the rife should have been sent through the mails without first undergoing an inspection here is a violation of the postal regula-

Colonel George E. Kemp, postmas-

"If the story is true I can promise Before Magistrate Stevenson Dougherty testified to what occurred in the store and was corroborated by Captain mails in a package not too bulky for a mail carrier's sack." The postmaster read the following regulations on firearms which are to be sent through the mails:

"Unloaded pistols and guns may be sent through the mails, but the post-master at the point of sending shall examine them to discover if they are harmless. Cartridges or londed shells are not to be sent through the mails."

CREASY SENTENCED TO DIE Edith Lavoy's Slayer to Be Electrocuted in Week of November 6 Mineola, N. Y., Oct. 7 .- William M. Creasy, of Fort Thomas, Ky., who was convicted last Tuesday of the murder of his former fiancee, Edith Lavoy, Freeport school teacher, was sentenced to-day by Judge Smith to death in the electric chair at Sing Sing Prison in the week of November 6. Creasy's counsel moved for an arrest of judgment. The motion was denied, and counsel filed notice of appeal. D'OLIER HASN'T RESIGNED

Laughs at Rumor He Would Quit Sesqui-Centennial Association

Colonel Franklin D'Olier laughed

Colonel Franklin D'Olier laughed today when asked about a rumor that he intended to resign as president of the Sesqui-Centennial Association.

'On the day I was selected for the presidency, I resigned myself to the lask of finding out what the people of Philadelphia really wanted, and what they would actually support,' he said, 'That's all the resigning I have done, and all I intend to do.'

Letter From Mrs. Stillman Says

Child Was at Death's Door

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Oct. 7.—(By has been relieved of his duties as militry attache of the British-Embassy at Paris and ordered to active service with the fleet, it was learned yesterday. Captain the Honorable Alexander Ramsay, D. S. O., has been relieved of his duties as militry attache of the British-Embassy at Paris and ordered to active service with the fleet, it was learned yesterday. Captain the Honorable Alexander Ramsay, D. S. O., has been relieved of his duties as militry attache of the British-Embassy at Paris and ordered to active service with the fleet, it was learned yesterday. Captain the Honorable Alexander Ramsay, D. S. O., has been relieved of his duties as militry attache of the British-Embassy at Paris and ordered to active service with the fleet, it was learned yesterday. Captain the Honorable Alexander Ramsay, D. S. O., has been relieved of his duties as militry attache of the British-Embassy at Paris and ordered to active service with the fleet. It was learned yesterday. Captain the Honorable Alexander Ramsay, D. S. O., has been relieved of his duties as militry attache of the British-Embassy at Paris and ordered to active service with the fleet. It was learned yesterday. Captain the Honorable Alexander Ramsay, D. S. O., has been relieved of his duties as militry attache of the British-Embassy at Paris and ordered to active service with the fleet.

LAST-MINUTE NEWS

McQUILLAN AND MAYS PITCH IN WORLD SERIES GAME

POLO GROUNDS, N. Y., Oct. 7 .- McQuillant and Snyder comprised the Giants' battery in today's World Series game. Mays and Schang were the battery selections of Miller Huggins for the Yanks.

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Oct. 7 .- As the zero hour approached for the start of the fourth World Series game this afternoon the Giants and Tankees were practicing in a drizzle with heavy clouds hanging overhead. It was fifteen minutes before game time, but no decision had been made yet whether the contest would be played.

PHILADELPHIA WORLD SERIES POSTPONED

Bain today caused a postponement in the double-header scheduled at the Philadelphia Ball Park to decide the "World Series" of Philadelphia. Shanahan, Fleisher and J. J. Dobson were to have played, but they will have to wait until next Saturday to decide the local championship.

WHOLE OREGON TOWN POLICE FORCE STRIKES

BAKER, Ore., Oct. 7 .- The entire Baker police force, numbering five patrolmen, walked out today when the City Commissioners refused to discharge Frank Littlefield, acting chief of police. Charges of misconduct in office had been brought against Littlefield.

FRENCH BUSINESS PICKS UP; BRITISH QUIET

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7 .- Varying economic conditions in Europe were noted in reports from its representaties abroad, made public today by the Commerce Department. Business in Great Britain was said to be quiet, industrial activity was reported to be reviving in Italy, while in France business was declared to be picking up in practically all lines.

GREEK BANKS LOAN MONEY FOR ARMY

LONDON, Oct. 7 .- The Greek national banks have granted the Greek Government a loan of 250,000,000 drachmas to be appried exclusively to the army, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Athens today.

MANAYUNK GETS BRITISH AMAZED WELCOME SHOWERS

in His Three-Mile Zone

Ruling

By CLINTON W. GILBERT

It is plain that foreign governments

In view of the Supreme Court's recent decision in the Anchor Line and

BOY KILLED IN PLANT

Gloucester Yarn Factory

shaft. As the yarn wound on the Princess Pat's Husband Assigned

carrying a case to the Supreme Court.

welcome the delay afforded by

Slight Drizzle in Other Sections Declare Daugherty Inconsistent Will Probably Increase in Volume Tonight

HOT WAVE ABOUT OVER LINERS WILL RAISE FARES

A steady shower began falling in Manayunk shortly after men today, but other sections of the city were still in Copyright, 1922, by Public Ledger Company Washington, Oct. 7—The British the grip of the drought. There was a "sprinkle" in the lewstown section. Washington, Oct. 7—The British Government is amazed at the ruling which makes the American prohibition waters. The announcement yesterday came as a complete surprise to the that by night rain will be falling in all sections of the city, and surround-formulated, but it is expected that so Prediction for next week, issued today at Washington, is fair weather for the South Atlantic States with temperature below normal during the first part of the week. The abnormally her weather here is about over, said Mr. Bliss.

A rainstorm broke over Pittsburgh this morning and rain also was reported from Norfolk, Richmond, Cleve-land, Columbus, Indian Police of the United States is inconsistent under Daugherty's ruling that an American ship is American territory wherever it is and subject to American laws, but that a foreign ship ceases to be foreign territory and constant.

land, Columbra, Indianapolis, Chicago, St. Paul and other cities.

American laws when it is in American waters. The last rainfall of any consequence in Philadelphia was on September 12. will when the gauge recorded .67 of an inch On September 24, .05 of an inch fell Land over the entire State is purched, streams have fallen, wells have dried up, crops have been damaged and industrial plants, using hydro-electric decision in the Anchor Line and Walker cases, it is not believed here that much hope of relief from the Attorney General's rulings lies in such an appeal. The Supreme Court has al-Land over the entire State is parched.

Centinued on Page Four. Column Five FIND MAN'S BODY IN RIVER

Note on Envelope Addressed to "Dear Sam" in Coat Pocket

The body of a man about thirty-five years old was found floating in the Schuylkill River north of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad bridge, in Fairmount this morning when whirled around a and Ohio Railroad bridge, in Fairmount Park, this morning at 8:30 o'clock. In the inside pocket of the man's coat was a note, written with pencil on the back of an old envelope and addressed to "Dear Sam." It was dated October his neck and it become entangled on the and park guards believe it was written just before the man leaped into the river. Most of the writing was illegi-ble. The body was taken to the morgus.

BABY GUY IS BETTER

being convinced he had gone beyond position of Angora Govern-Paris, Oct. 7.-Great Britain and retary Curzon and Premier Poincare. have agreed in principle that the troops of the Turkish Nationalists shall be three steps for the return of Thrace to the Turks, as follows: First. The Greek army and those allowed to cross the Straits of the Dardanelles and enter Thrace only upon the conclusion of a peace treaty Thrace is completely

This general agreement was submitted to the French and British cabinets, and will be referred to Rome by the Italian representative, Signor Galli, charge d'affaires, who concurred in the agreement. The French Cabinet approved the instructions which M. Poincare sent to the French representatives at Mu-

The conference, which began last night upon the arrival of Lord Curson from London to discuss the Turkish sit. untion, was ended shortly after 2 o'clock this morning.

hausted, but we have done good work. Staff Correspondent Evening Public Ledger Baron Hardinge, the British Am-at the conference were Count de Peretti formulated, but it is expected that so la Rocca, director of political affairs at the Foreign Office, and M. Camer> ment during the day, Lord Curzon said, when leaving the foreign office to inform his government of the develop-> dania and some other matters, and now are referring them to our respective cabinets. We are agreed in principle." The modified program of the Allies, it believed, will give the Kemalists added insurance that the three powers intend that Eastern Thrace shall be returned to Turkey as roon as adequate measures have been taken to make the report that Sultan Mohammed VI line shaft in the plant of the Forrest of Turkey has abdicated was received early this afternoon by the Russian delegation here in a wirehis neck and it become entangled on the less dispatch from Moscow.

Continued on Page Four. Column Three Continued on Page Four. Column Four SULTAN OF TURKEY

Whirled Around Line Shaft in Moscow Hears Mohammed VI Has Renounced Throne

and whirled about the shaft until the He died on the way to a Camdea be in close Constantinople. be in close communication with

The Moscow dispatch, which reported a message from Angora, says that upon his abdication the Sultan named as his successor his cousin, Abdul Medjid Effendi, who will be

DO YOU WANT A JOB? THERE AND plenty of them advertised in the Help

Won't Permit Turks to Occupy Thrace Until Treaty Is Concluded

POINCARE AND CURZON ARRIVE AT AGREEMENT

Ismet Pasha, Admitting Excessive Demands, Becomes Conciliatory at Conference

PEACE HOPES ARE BRIGHTER

Bonar Law's Threat of English Withdrawal From Entente Influences Situation

Great Britain and France, as repre-sented by Curzon and Poincare, agree Turkish troops shall occupy Eastern Thrace only after peace treaty is concluded. French Cabinet approves Poincare's action.

Bonar Law threatens disruption of Entente and withdrawal of British forces from Rhine unless France supported British policy in Near Ismet Pasha sounds conciliatory note as Mudania conference is resumed, Ten thousand Greek troops concentrate in Eastern Thrace.

France, as represented by Foreign Secallowed to occupy Eastern Thrace only fter the conclusion of a peace treaty. The solution agreed upon provides

First. The Greek army and those of the population desiring to leave must evacuate immediately.

Second. A Turkish civil administration will be installed at the same time the allied troops take the place of the Greek forces to preserve order.

Third. The Turkish army will be allowed to grows the Strates of the and it will not be until that time that stored to Turkey.

danta as the result of the agreement. There is considered to be little doubt that the other Cabinets will accept, and AT DRY DECISION that the details will be worked out this afternoon so that the allied generals at Mudania can resume their confessors Mudania can resume their conference in full agreement with each other as to the terms to be offered the Turks.

> la reply to questions, the British Foreign Minister declared: "I am exbassador, also was optimistic over the results of the night's deliberations, expressing confidence that all would be | waters. The announcement yesterday With Signor Galli, the Italian charge,

It is pointed out that the position care and Lord Curzon consumed two under Daugherty's rules.

The conversation between M. Poincare and Lord Curzon consumed two hours and a half. lynck, the supreme counsel interpreter, We hope to reach a complete agree-

ABDICATES, REPORT

London, Oct. 7 .- (By A. P.) -A

There is no confirmation of the report, but Moscow is believed to known as Medjid II.