80th Anniversary Sales For Tuesday

Government took, not army raincoats, but all the civilian raincoats to be found.

SUBWAY STORE DAY

Women's Suits, $18; Silk Stockings, 18c. A Tuesday feast unusual.

Anniversary Sale of 4000 Men's Raincoats at $6.75

Part of the U. S. Government's Emergency Purchase

One day, when an armistice was the least thing thought of, the army was found to need raincoats, and Government men were turned loose to requisition retail stocks—came here one afternoon and took every civilian raincoat we had. Not an army style in the lot; we didn't keep army clothes. And country-wide.

Before they were shipped from the country the war's end came—and the Government had the raincoats.

They were most carefully stored and only recently were they sold as—

Surplus Property

We bought 11,032 and the Philadelphia Store will sell its 4000 tomorrow.

It's the Greatest Sale of High-Grade Raincoats Philadelphia Ever Knew

Every garment was selected and is sold as first-class. Not army styles, but real, regular civilian styles.

Thousands of the Famous Raynster Coats are Included

And the other good standard makes. All in good fashion; all in good order.

Wool Worsteds : Cotton Worsteds : Double and Single Texture Cashmeres : Rubberized Cloth : Others With Rubberized Sheeting Inside. Every Garment With the Government Stamp "Emergency Purchase." Every Garment Guaranteed Showerproof!

All Sizes 36 to 48.
