PLACE IN POLITICS Mrs. Mary Greenewalt Says

Mrs. Lorimer and Mrs. Dunning to Talk to 46th Ward Republicans Thursday

PLEASED BY REGISTRATION

"The Woman Citizen—Her Mission in Politics," will be the topic of discussion at a meeting of the Forty-sixth Ward branch of the Republican Women

Mrs. Robert Carson, 6244 Washington avenue, wife of Magistrate Carson, chairman of the branch, has sent out a stirring appeal to women who stand for "civic righteousness" to attend the meeting. The principal speakers of the evening will be Mrs. George Horner Lorimer, president of the Republican Women of Pennsylvania, and Mrs. George A. Dunning, chairman of the Organization Committee of the club.

The cafeteria plan was abandoned today by the Republican women. Several weeks ago it was announced that a cafeteria, similar to the one of the club was beginning to feel its.

that a cafeteria, similar to the one during the Harding campaign, would be conducted in the Crozer Building. The idea was to have speakers and signers to inject enthusiasm into the Republican As to where the movement will end.

Mrs. Lorimer, who announced the abandonment of the cafeteria plan, said also that her club members were occu-

The women, who worked uncersingly for a large registration last Saturday. Were delighted with the total of approximately 160,000.

"I have been well aware for many years of the indifference of a large number of men voters," said Mrs. Dunning. "For that reason I knew there would be thousands of diffident women voters when suffrage was granted us. Saturday's registration was a splendid in-dication that the number of timed women voters is degreasing rapidly and that we are accomplishing much in our efforts to show the women the importance of the part they play in State governmental
