Entered as Second-Class Matter at the Postoffice at Philadelphia, Pa. Under the Act of March 5, 1879

PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1922

Published Daily Except Sunday. Subscription Price $6 a Year by Mail.

Copyright, 1922, by Public Ledger Company

PRICE TWO CENTS

CROWD MOBS OFFICIAL WHO HELPED OBTAIN SCHNEIDER'S "CONFESSION"; BAHMER LATEST MYSTERY SUSPECT

Frightened Deputy Sheriff Drops Charge Against Ringleader

MADE HASTY ESCAPE IN HAIL OF MISSILES

Townspeople Plan "Tag Day" to Raise Funds for Defense of Hayes

BELIEVE AUTHORITIES KNOW CRIME'S PERPETRATORS

Feeling Running High Against Arrest of Youths in Hall-Mills Murder

New Developments in Murder Mystery

Frank Kirby, Deputy Sheriff, chased and threatened by brick-hurling mob who believe he "turned up" Raymond Schneider and Clifford Townspeople plan "Tag Day" Saturday to raise funds to defend youths, especially Hayes, whom all believe innocent.

Nicholas Bahmer arrested and held in $10,000 bail on charges made by daughter Pearl, who is held as Word of "basket of bloody clothes" hid near murder scene arrives too late-somebody got the basket. Lieutenant "Bill" Belshaw, head of Philadelphia Murder Squad, sends for Detective Collins, of New Brunswick, to give him mys-

Mrs. Raymond Schneider said to have visited Phillips farm night bodies were found near there. Bahmer, in jail, denies in interview he had any part in murder.

New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 11 .-Frank Kirby, deputy sheriff, was attacked by a mob early today in the heart of the city and threatened with lynching and tar and feathers because of a belief that he had helped wring a confession from Schneider's Sweetheart, in Jall, Collects $430 Today From Auto nd Schneider, held in connection with the murder of the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Reinhardt Mills.

"Jimmy" Lyons, a Sixth Ward politician and brother of Raymond Lyons, Assemblyman from Middlesex County, was arrested before daybreak as one of the leaders of the mob. He was charged with assault and battery on Kirby.

Kirby Shows Fright

But the charge was withdrawn when be went to the police court at 9 o'clock. Kirby already was there when Lyons came in.

"Don't look at me, you rat!" shouted Lyons at Kirby when the two confronted each other. Kirby said he

"Kirby will have to get out of the in will arrested?" she asked, leaning Sixth Ward." he shouted. The latter foward excitedly. "It serves her right. was anxious to make peace.

Town Rallies to Haves So violent has the indignation of the der, and especially of Clifford Hayes, seetings were held during the night "tag day" to raise funds for Hayes' A committee, including two of the own's most popular young women, was announced this morning as having charge of 'Hayes Day,' which will be

The committee is composed of Rus-ell Reilly, chairman: John Gordon, scretary; Betty Fairett, treasurer; Agnes Reilly and John Hoey. All are widely have a supersymmetric stream. widely known in New Brunswick.

The sentiment in New Brunswick is overwhelmingly against Prosecutors A.

M. Beekman, of Somerset County, and Joseph E. Stricker, of Middlesex County, for the arrest of Schneider and Hayes and what is generally considered by the public as the apparent desire of the authorities to "sop" the Governor and "bunk" the people.

Town's Feeling Running High

All yesterday feeling ran high. On very street corner groups of people lacussed the case and the unsatisfactory turn it has taken. There were whisperings that Schneider's "confesbeen wrung from him by brutal methods, and that the authorities new they had arrested the wrong people. Many went so far as to say spenly that the authorities knew who seally were responsible for the murders and were afraid to arrest them. The attack on Kirby had something the political element in it. He is a in the midst of a hot political fight, ties learned of the incident. with the Democrats losing in strength because of the failure of Prosecutor Stricker, one of the outstanding Dem-cratic leaders, to get anywhere with Kirby is assistant custodian of the

PEARL BAHMER GOING TO JAIL

PEARL THREATENS 'FINING SQUIRE'

Flies Caught in the Mill-

bourne Spider Net

ONE MAN IS LOCKED UP

summonses for their appearance?
William H. Metcalf, president of other members of the association who were or ered to appear before Yerkes on similar charges were not present.

was the first victim to appear before

He testified that an automobile mechanic had directed him how to put the bumper on his machine and that he had done accordingly. He denied the license number was obscured.

Told to Cough Up

money with me."
"What did you expect to do out here?" demanded Yerkes. "Did you think you were coming out to have a walk pleasant chat with me and

The firehouse was crowded by

BREAKS COLLARBONE

Continued on Page Twenty-two. Column Three

Mrs. Charles Bryan Taken to Hospital in Wilmington

The automobile overturned on the New crop of Eatmor Cras-erries. The most economical f fruits, and easiest to pre-are.—Adv.

All three occupants

State highway. All three occupants were taken to the Delaware Hospital,

IN AUTO ACCIDENT

"Well, you'd better pay $15 then,"

"If some one told you to jump in a river would you do it?" Yerkes

Stonehurst Improvement Associa-

ing to Live For

WIFE TO STAND BY HIM

By a Staff Correspondent

New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 11 .-Behind prison bars, from which she shrinks in leathing and horror, is Pearl at his session of court in Millbourne Bahmer, Raymond Schneider's sweet-heart, who has turned from him in this twenty-four drew tines of $15 each on the technical charge of having the

And in a little house at 60 Obert street, South River, is Edna Schneider or Edna Letts, as she is known there. She is Raymond's wife, from whom he sides, they asked to the restrict of the street of has been separated for more than a sides, they asked, if the numbers were obscured, how could Yerkes' constable, Sapp. take their numbers and issue would withdraw the charge.

Lyons took the offensive throughout "Raymond never did it and I believe in him with all my heart."

seemed to be frightened at the public She deserves lots worse than that. She on similar charges were not present.

She deserves lots worse than that. She on similar charges were not present.

She deserves lots worse than that. She on similar charges were not present. I knew what kind she was the minute that they intended to ignore the summonses as being "too trivial."

Abraham Haskey, a cabinetmaker living at 2434 West Cumberland street.

town become over the arrest of Schnei-der, and especially of Clifford Hayes, come to the seventeen-year-old girl whom Schneider in his "confession" who has made this woman's life lonely of the double murder, that and miserable.

s were held during the night "I married him for better or for worse and I'm going to stick to him to the end," she continued. "He needs me now and I won't desert him."

Pearl Bahmer, who has been caught the rivered almost strangled in the dusty web replied. of intrigue and decit which has been weaving around her all her life. the threads becoming heavier and more strangling the last three years, wan figure in the New Brunswick jail.

Threatens to End Life

"If I had the strength I would break these bats," she said, twisting in her chair. "I won't stay in this place. I want to go home. I am not afraid of my father. I guess he would cut my throat now if he got a chance, but I

HERE IN MURDER CLUE

Continued on Page Two Column Five

Hall-Mills Mystery Sends Detective

to This City The Hall-Mills murder trail led back to Philadelphia again today. More than a week ago Detective Collins, of New Brunswick, was sent to confer with Lieutenant of Detectives Belshaw concerning a report that Mrs.

Republican and a leader in the Sixth ward, where Hayes and Schneider realde. The two youths and their friends no trace of blood on them. They had no trace of blood on them. They had no processes. The county has been returned by the time the authori-The county has been returned by the time the authori-Yesterday Lieutenant Belshaw sent word to Detective Collins that he had new information for him. Collins ter, Mrs. Phoebe Morris, and Mrs. called the canef of the Philadelphia murder squad on the telephone and arthis morning. They came on to this make a trip to the city to- city. YOU LOOKING FOR HELP? PER-bas the very person you want is adver-under Situations on page 20.—4dv.

Police Think Pearl's Father May Know Something of Crime

HELD IN $10,000 BAIL AFTER GIRL'S STORY

Man Admits He Was Drunk Night of Slaying, but Denles Complicity

DAUGHTER TELLS STORY OF HER MOVEMENTS

Insists Schneider and Hayes Followed Her and Talks of Two "Strange Men"

New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 11 .-Although Nicholas Bahmer is ostensibly held in jail on charges in- office volving the incorrigibility of his ued until this morning. seventeen-year-old daughter Pearl, the police are believed to have other and stronger motives.

They want to make sure that he has no guilty knowledge of the Hall-Mills murder.

The amount of ball imposed on ahman, $10,000, is itself an indication that the police consider it most important that this man be kept where can put their hands on him whenever they need him.

Just Getting Over Spree Detectives have been making inquiries learn whether Bahmer had a pistol.

ays he had, the night of the mur-Bahmer is in bad physical con-n, the result of a prolonged drunk, and when seen in the jail today said was "very sick and wanted a drink blankets, his face pallid and haggard. He was urged to come out of his cell don't want to talk," he said y. But he got out of the blankets and shambled into the corridor.

"Can you account for your move-ments the night of the murder?" he "Certainly I can, every minute," he declared you had gone to the Phillips farm late that night, and that in the belief that the Rev. Edward Wheeler or Reinhardt Mills were Raymond Schneider and your daughter Pearl, you had shot and killed them yourself?" Bahmer was shaking as he answered: "I'd say 'Not guilty,' 'Not guilty.' "Isn't it true that you threatened to cut Pearl's throat on account of

No. I never did."

Thirty-eight automobile owners paid "Isn't it true that every time you $430 in fines into the coffers of Squire got drunk you went out and bought a Yerkes, "fining squire of Millbourne," gun?"
"No, that's a lie."

"What did you do after you had seen Pearl home that night?" went home myself and to bed." "Did you go straight home?"
"Yes, I did."

"Didn't you stop at a saloon on the "No. I went straight home."
"Did you go back to the house where Pearl lives and watch for her. ing she might be going out again?"

"No. I didn't do anything of the sort. I went home." rovement Association is it is true that you went back to the twenty-three the park and thought you were trailing Pearl and Schneider when it really was Mr. Hall and Mrs. Mills?"

> Didn't Know Rector "No. I wouldn't know Mr. Hall or Mrs. Mills if I stumbled over them."
> "Were you very drunk that night?" "No, not very drunk. I knew what was doing. "There is a story that you pointed gun at a little girl in the house. hat's true, isn't it?" 'No. it isn't true. I never pointed An order from the jailer, "Every

MRS. W. J. FLEER AGAIN the magistrate ruled. "I'll have to send you a check," Haskey explained. "I didn't bring any money with me."

Widow of Chewing Gum Manufacturer Marries Baltimore Man Mrs. Willie Jenkins Fleer, widow of the late Frank H. Fleer, of Philadelphia, wealthy manufacturer of chewing away?"
"Well," Haskey said, "I haven't got the money. What are you going to do gum, was married last night to George Hume Rend, of Baltimore, at Charlotte,

The wedding came as a surprise totime with prospective victims.

City. Mr. Fleer, who was sixty of the city of the city. Mr. Fleer, who was sixty of the city of the city. Mr. Fleer, who was sixty of the city of the city. Mr. Fleer, who was sixty of the city of the city. Mr. Fleer, who was sixty of the city of the city of the city. Mr. Fleer, who was sixty of the city of the city. Mr. Fleer, who was sixty of the city of the city of the city. Mr. Fleer, who was sixty of the city o

Mr. Fleer's marriage to the then Miss Willie Jenkins on July 11, 1921, was northeast of Rome, appears to have been also a surprise to friends of both on account of the difference in their ages. of damage there have so far been re-Mr. Fleer's marriage to the then Miss Miss Jenkins was only in her thir-ties. They made their home in Lans-Belshaw concerning a report that Mrs.

Belshaw concerning a report that Mrs.

Brances Stevens Hall, widow of the murdered minister, had sent some clothes to a Philadelphia dye house to be cleaned. This was found to be the sister and nephew were slightly hurt. be clothes apparently had selected a broken color than three months when Mrs.

Mrs. Charles Bryan, 3019 West downe and their residence was one of the show places of that community. They had been married only a little more than three months when Mrs.

Mrs. Bryan was coming from her establishment is at 2042 North Tenth Crushed, Tells Hospital Surface. Mrs. Bryan was coming from her establisher's home in Milford, Del., to this street,

> Man Held for Shooting Magistrate Renshaw today held William Scott, a Negro employed as watch-man in a factory at 121 North Seventh street, without hail, to await inquest into the death of Harry Mutter, another

TRAIL TO LEADERS OF DRUG TRAFFIC

Imparts Valuable Information to Judge McDevitt and Sum-

GORDON STARTS GRILL OF PEDDLER OFFERING EXPOSE

'Joe Ritchie' Suddenly Changes last night.
When the Congressman was pressed Plea to Guilty-Prisoners

The drug crusade widened today as Mayor Moore and county officials gathered facts that are expected to rip away the veil hiding the sources that have poured narcotics into Philadelphia.

The Mayor imparted to Judge McDevitt "valuable and anonymous inforthat came to him last night and this morning. Immediately after a conference in chambers with the Judge, the Mayor summoned Director of Public Safety Cortelyou to his own of-

More spectacular was the sudden change to a guilty plea made by Jo-seph Allegro, alias "Joe Ritchie,"

Allegro, at his own request, was taken to Judge Monaghan's private office before going to Judge McDevitt's court, where his trial had been contin-After entering his changed plea, sentence of Allegro was suspended and he was taken to the District Attorney's office. Judge Monaghan District Attorney Rotan, Assistant District Attorney Gordon and Chief Wynne, of the county detective force, assembled to hear the revelations he had to make.

Joseph Bellona and Joseph Santore, the latter known as "Joe, the Book," also were interrogated in the District Attorney's office apart from Allegro. Bolona and Santore were brought up from prison. They were sentenced reguilty to charges of drug peddling.

Earlier today, Mr. Gordon talked with Frank Catine, a peddler, who changed his plea to guilty late yester-day. There were indications the au-thorities had learned sensational facts and sought to get further details from the demoralized peddlers.

Allegro's sudden change of plea seemed a surprise to his attorney, who late yesterday asked for a continuance until this morning. When the lawyer arrived in court, he was told of his client's action.

Allegre was one of six men held in $25,000 bail some weeks ago by Judge

Monaghan and who sought vainly who accompanied Mr. Moore to jurist's office. The three conferred for fifteen minutes. Later the Mayor said: information, but as Judge McDevitt has been sitting at a committing magis-trate, it is believed the information will f service to him. If true, it will be of the greatest value.

McDevitt on the vigorous manner he is displaying in drug cases and indicated the sentences he was imposing were more commensurate with the crime "I told Judge McDevitt the had been heartened and the Administration regarded the results recently attained as sustaining the activities of all the law officers."

Pinto's Case Continued The case of Matthew Pinto, listed for trial this morning before Judge Henry, was continued until October 30. He is charged with selling drugs.

Pinto and "Pittsburgh Sam" Cohen were held in $15,000 bail dach yesterday on charges of bribery. Elwood Yoest, a former vice squad detective and the principal witness against Pinto, said the two men, with a third person, called at his home last Saturday and effered $2500 if he would fail to identify Pinto

Continued on Page Two. Column Two BECOMES A BRIDE hear her home and that he wanted to mind and infring know when "Marty" would have $900 property owners for him.

Rome, Oct. 11. - (By A. P.)-A strong earthquake shock this city today. day to friends of Mrs. Fleer in this causing great alarm among the popula-city. Mr. Fleer, who was sixty-five tion. No damage, however, had been tion. No damage, however, had been reported up to 1 o'clock this afternoon. The apprehension among the people Mr. and Mrs. Reed left for New York immediately after the ceremony was stimulated by the recollection of and will sail in a few days for South similar shocks, although much less violated by the recollection of the recollection America, where they will spend their lent, which occurred in 1917 and con-honeymoon.

Needs Sleep, Brakeman, Leg Crushed, Tells Hospital Surgeons aroused from sleep.

Device is thirty years old and lives into the death of Harry Mutter, another at 337 South Eighth street. Glouces. Negro, of Wood street, near Tenth. It ter. He was on an express freight charged that Scott shot and killed running from Camben to Vineland Mutter last night in the course of an train turned into a stding and Devin argument between them. The argu- was justed under the wheels. His inment, supposedly, concerned the de- jured leg was amputated at the Mill- livery of some goods to the factory, wille Hospital.

Senator Vare's Condition Shows Slight Improvement

Still "Very, Very Sick," Says Brother, Who SIGNED BY Has Been at Bedside Since Saturday. Physicians Administer Oxygen

ill at his country home at Ambler, but the youngest child, is the Senator's pride and joy. Even while he himself his family and friends are hopeful he was ill and his family and friends are hopeful he was ill and should have been in bed, will live through the day and perhaps members of the family said, the Senator take a turn for the better.

Congressman William S. Vare. Senator's brother, who has been at the bedside since inst Saturday, said this morning that the Philadelphia political leader is "very, very sick," but that his condition is "slightly improved" over lost night.

somewhat on the condition of the pa-tient, and particularly whether friends of the Senator had any reason for fearing his death today, Congressman Vare

It is understood the physicians in attendance are administering oxygen from time to time.

Two or three times since yesterday into unconsciousness. This morning, however, he was conscious.
"I was talking to Ed," said the Congressman, 'just a few minutes ago.
I said 'Ed, you're very sick,' 'I don't feel sick,' he replied. 'I have no

James M. Hazlett, Recorder of Deeds. spent some time at Ambler last night, ance in active politics was when he but this morning only members of the spoke, a week ago last Monday, before family and Congressman Vare and his the Republican City Committee and family, together with the physicians and nurses, are at the Schuter's home. It is understood that the Senator's illness was caused primarily by kidney definiency of the first two days, trouble, followed by tonsilitis and other affections of the throat.

one of the contributing factors in the forcefulness rang out case was the Senator's devotion to his crowded committee room. youngest daughter. Abigail, ten years old, who has been ill with pneumonia. Continued on Page Twents-two. Column Five

Senator Edwing H. Vare is critically Abigail, said the Congressman, being 'He gave himself up for his daughwhen he was not strong enough to

Many Friends at Office

News of the critical condition of Senator Vare got around the city yes-terday afternoon and aroused the deep-est feelings among political allies of the lender. Telephone calls to the home at Ambler and to the Senator's office in the Lincoln Building were constant. Several prominent men, the closest of the Senator's personal and political friends, literally broke into tears when they were told how critical was the condition of the Senator.

Politicians gathered on the Rialto and talked of nothing else. The Senator's office, where he maps out political cam-paigns and inside strategy, was filled with triends who sat anxiously awaiting the latest word. There was a feeling that a big figure in the politics of Philadelphia and Pennsylvania was going through a life and death struggle. Senator Vare's most recent appear-urged his lieutenants to get busy and roll up a large registration. He par-When the Senator began to speak his voice was halting and shaks, but in a Members of the family believe that minute or so, the old-time forcefulness

IN HIS LONELINESS

ionship, Not Love, Inspired

Engagement

"Mr. Candler shall tell to the world not always fortune hunters that here.

tage of pride does not succumb to ma-terial desires. This shall be done

Mrs. De Bouchel, whose announces ment of her engagement to Mr Camber, several months ago, attracted national attention, is typical of the French type.

Host to Women

Confederate reunion in Atlanta as chap-eron general, she related. Mr. Candle, them eandy and flowers, placed his unwise "geted as any gentleman would."

After she had returned to her home

Continued on Page Twenty two, Column Four and meet every requirement may be found quickly by consulting the Apartment column on page 84 - Adv.

omobile at their disposal, and

When Mrs. De Bouchel attended the

AND THE ALLIES

Kemal's Delegate Held Out for More Gendarmerie, but Finally Gave In

YIELDED ON ALL POINTS DEMANDED BY ENTENTE

Eastern Thrace to Be Surrendered, With Safeguards for Protection of Christians

DARDANELLES IS NEUTRAL

Plans Being Made for Two Conferences on Near of which were punde public yesterday by the Associated Press

Ismet Pasha, the Turkish representative, held out for a larger number of gendarmerie in Eastern Thrace, and argued lengthily on several other points. but eventually gave way on every point of the Allied demands.

General Harington General harpy, the latter the French delegate, left for Constantinople this morning after a few hours' sleep abourd their warships.

London, Oct. 11.—(By A. P.)—With armistice just signed at Mudania, outting an end to the warfare between he Greeks and Turkish Nationalists, lans for the conferences designed to ring about a definite peace in the Near East are proceeding in a less agitated

Two conferences to this end are being arranged for, one to fix the general Near Eastern peace terms and another o provide for neutralization of the straits of the Dardanelles, Preparations are being made for both conferences by mt that the settlements reached at the first must necessarily affect the second.

Want United States Participation It is believed, according to expresions in authoritative quarters here, that all the governments would welcom the attendance of the United States at both conferences and probable that both the Greeks and the Turks will make formal requests to this,

A peaceful solution of the Near Eastern tangle has apparently been reached on the basis of of Eastern Thrace to the Turks with proper safeguards for the morities and the neutrality of the Dardanelles.

A convention putting into effect an armi-tice between the Kemalists and the seeks was signed by the delegates at adama late last night. The news ought great relief here, where there is con-iderable anxiety lest the Turks remain recalcitrant despite the newly declared unity of the Allies.

While the fragmentary dispatches from the scene of the conference did not state so entegorically, it is believed that Ismet Pasha, in signing for the Turks. did so under orders from the Angora Government, to which the nilled terms The Kemalists had been given until or reject the ailed proposals, and the

es last tuingte changes in the original On Allied Terms

It is assumed, however, that the armistice as concluded corresponds closely to the allied terms, the main points of Pinto's father. Lee Pinto, 823 North Women approved a passage and pathy for a lonely old man, whose chil- within afteen days and complete transdren had grown away from him, and a fer of civil administration to the Turks companionship I craved, rather than hew neutral zones along the Dardanelles Mrs. De Bouchel today awaited the missions and non-occupation of Thrace and Bosporus by mixed military com-> her by Mr. Caneller. delegates, who previously had supported

>
> "I do not want a single penny of the the Turkish stand, is believed to have operty owners.
>
> Mrs. A. E. Yarnall, of Swarthmore, they will have to pay, and pay deads, which the Kenalists yielded. Before they there exists they will have to pay, and pay deads, which the Kenalists yielded. Before the pay they have to wreck my required signing. Issuer Pasha is said to have ion with insults."
>
> In a public starement restorday, Mes, tradition to the assurances originally > > that the slander of uncrincipled men is such as the freedom of commercial navnot the reason he has cast me off, the matter through the Durdanelles, and woman whom he mas cast me off, the woman whom he asked to be his wife, she reiterated today. "He must disclose the sinnderers of my character, tell me and the world that we men are therefore any proposition to leave the Soviets without representation in the for scitlement of the Near Enstern question is alterether unsatisfactory to

> > In expressing this view M. Chi-"We are not making threats and are not ratifing the sword, but we do insist Her eyes are grayish-blue and her had aburn. She is wealthy, and is said tions relating to the Near East, parto have descended on both sides of her Continued on Page Twenty two. Column Three

VENIZELOS TO SIT AT PEACE TABLE

entertained the ladies of her court, sent Will Be Chief Plenipotentlary for Greece at Conference

After she had returned to her lome in New Orleans a correspondence developed, she continued. The capitalist told her how his daughter before her there conference of representatives of the conference of the marriage had always met him at the Greece and Turkey and the Allied Pow-The place and date of this conference

APARTMENTS TO SUIT EVERY PURSE have not yet been determined.

BLAZED BY MAYOR

mons Cortelyou

Are Quizzed

nown as one of the biggest venders in

Prisoners Interrogated

have the State Supreme Court order a reduction in bail.

The Mayor's visit to Judge McDevitt's chambers this morning followed by a call on City Solicitor Smyth,

"I took occasion to compliment Judge

Side the courtroom this morning when practice.

Your was pointed out to him.

Mrs. John L. Atlee. of Lancaster.

EARTHQUAKE SHAKES

WANT WIFE AWAKENED

As George Devine, a freight brakeman, tay with a crushed leg on an operating table early today he asked surgeone not to notify his wife until after daylight so she wouldn't be

The World Outside"

WOMEN DENOUNCE PITIED CANDLER

LAST-MINUTE NEWS

C. A. HOAK ARRESTED FOR DR. MAYNARD'S DEATH

was arrested at Houlton, Me., today for the accidental shooting yesterday of Dr. Lee H. Maynard, of this city, in the woods near Squaw Man Lake Monday. Mr. Hoak waived examination on a charge of negligence and was held in bail. Both men were members of a hunting party of Pennsylvanians. Mr. Hoak, it is said, mistook Dr. Maynard for a deer and fired, killing him.

SENATOR VARE REPORTED MUCH BETTER

better at noon today. Congressman Vare announced that the Senator had eaten a hearty breakfast of orange juice, eggs, toast and coffee and had wanted honeydew melon. "We expect him

Senator Vare, ill at his home at Ambler, was reported much

Charles A. Hoak, wealthy milk dealer, of Harrisburg, Pa.,

State Federation Delegates Mrs. De Bouchel Says Compan-Want Law to Bar Night

SPOONERS IN AUTOS

Parking at Roadside LAUD U. S. DRY SHIP RULING "MUST PAY FOR SLANDER"

nt his home last Saturday and offered 82500 if he would fail to identify Pinto at the trial.

Yoest notified Lieutenant Lee, head of the vice squad, and Cohen and Pinto were arrested on the bribery charge, the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women approved a resolution today to whose chargement to Ash G. Candler. Women approved a resolution today to minated, said today that "if deep sym-

The elder l'into said he recognized presented the resolution saying:

"We realize the parking of automo-love, inspired my engagement." called several times about two weeks biles at night on the country roads is ago at the l'into home in an attempt to a widespread nuisance in the State, consee the younger man. Mrs. Millie Mestituting a serious mennee to the moral called several times about two weeks blief at high several times and non-occupation of Thrace arrival of her attorney from New Orbon by Turkish military forces until a peace charge of indiscretion brought against the trent of the first high several times about two weeks blief at high several times are the high several times about two weeks blief at high several times are the high several times ar outside of court yesterday that Yoest people, as well as an invasion of our had telephoned several times to a store country districts, to the distress of to mind and infringement of the rights of Candler money,

ROME AND ANCONA

"Only those in the country date of this evil. De Bouchel said Mr. Candler had ingiven him by General Charge. He was formed her it would be impossible for told, however, that the French delement of the assurances originally formed her it would be impossible for told, however, that the French delement of the assurances originally formed her it would be impossible for told, however, that the French delement of the assurances originally formed her it would be impossible for told, however, that the French delement of this evil.

The only those in the country date of this evil. The public statement destendant description in the manner of the assurances originally formed her it would be impossible for told, however, that the French delement description is the country of the assurances originally formed her it would be impossible for told, however, that the French delement description is the country of the assurances originally formed her it would be impossible for told, however, that the French delement description is the country of the country dess. We don't know where to man to marry her, as he had invited two.

The only thing we can do is information that she had invited two many formation that she had invited two many formation that she had invited two many formations in a local hotel.

Moscow, Oct. 11.—(By A. P.)—

Button as a world Power must be reckhave a special State law framed to apply Great Alarm Felt in Italian Capital, bave a special State law irranses to the parking of automobiles along the during the Confederate reunion here in Russia as a world Power must be recktountry roads after dark."

| Mrs. H. H. | Wir. Capiller shall sale of the consideration of all oned with in the consideration of all oned with all Birney, of Philadelphia, the resolution was amended, calling for separate action by the various rural communities, as efforts in the past to obtain a State law on the subject have always infled.

Harding Is Commended President Harding was warmly com-ended for his stand against the sale of liquor on American ships, while Attorney General Daugherty avas complimented for "his righteens and luw-ful" legal opinion upon the matter. In addition, the delegates reaffirmed the peace resolution passed by the National Federation at the biennial Continued on Page Twenty-two, Column Two

$7,000,000 at Stake and a Girl's Love Jerry battles sinister forces, efever, quick, adreft, to hold his fortune and win his sweet-heart. Read about his struggle and triumph in

By Harold MacGrath Begins Today, Page 35