

"Can Prove He Was in Bed at Home at Time of Murder," They Assert

CALL STORY "IMAGINATION"

New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 11 .- " an see by many witnesses that Clifford Bays was at home and in hed at the bour Raymond Schneider says Hayes abot and killed the Rev. Edward Wheel-Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Reinhardt Hayes' lawyer, today.

Mr. Haggerty, with former Senator Thomas Brown, associate counsel for Hayes, visited him in his cell at Somerville, and had a long talk with him. Both attorneys and the youth had made a good impression on them.

"As I listened to his statement." mid Senator rBown, "I was convinced that when it is told the public's eyes will be opened. He is a straightforward. He is a straightforward. He is a straightforward. honest, clear-minded boy. I have the utmost confidence in all that he told Continued from Page One

Mr. Haggerty said he had found Hayes in good physical condition and cheerful spirits, but worried about his the doors all down the tier clanged as mother, "I reassured him on that they went shot and locked automatipoint, however," said Mr. Haggerty, cally. It was noon, and jail attend-

Says Hayes Has Alibi

"After a careful investigation of the case and its surroundings. I am satis-fied that Clifford has a perfect alibi. He is able to account for every minute of bia time for a week before the hurder drink." his time for a week before the nurder. We can prove that this boy was not on the Phillips farm the night of Septem-ber 14 or the morning of September 15. "After talking with him I am firmly

"After talking with him I am firmly convinced of the truthfulness of his story. He admits being in Buceleuch Park that night in company with Schneider, and says he went home about 12:45 o'clock. I have checked up on this story and find it is perfect in detail. I am satisfied that Schnei-ation, and that neither Schneider or Hayes was on the farm that night. "Schneider has vitid imaginative.

powers. what we will do in this regard." however, she had Walter C. Sedam, attorney for Schneider, will apply for bail for his Tells Story

"I have been told by the probably he set 21 "At 5:30 I quit work and Raymond Sedam. "It will probably be set 21 met me and took me home." she said. "That is, he took me to the corner, and $10,000 tomorrow, and I expect to have the boy free tomorrow, and i expert to have "So far I know very little of the case because I have not yet had the opportunity to talk confidentially with Schneider. "Why even his father was kent from

By a Staff Correspondent New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 11,— Here is the exact text of the first state-ment, or "confession." made by Ray-mond Schneider, a statement since re-vised several times:

in Mystery Probe

body in his cell," terminated the interview. Bahmer entered the cell and the doors all down the tier clanged as ants began to go around with measures

Pearl Bahmer Talks

Pearl Bahmer today gave an exact circumstantial account of her movements the day Hall and Mrs. Mills were mur-

"Schneider has vivid imaginative powers. I cannot afford to make mownt my plans in regard to a writ of habeas corpus. In fact, I do not know after his return to his own home-ha

Tells Story of Movements

"I have been told by the prosecution "I have been told by the prosecution It bail will not be opposed," said Mr. "At 5:30 I quit work and Raymond Schneider, in "Confession," Denies to me. "He said, 'Where have you been, "He said to the moving pictures." Pearl?, I said to the moving pictures.

Somerville on business connected with prison. the murder. It is in Somerville jail Prison. "They have got to let him out," Mrs.

der, who "confessed" his chum killed Mrs. Mills and the Rev. E. W. Hall, Below is Scimelder's

Isn't Bothering About Truth of Statement wife

New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 11. "Have you satisfied yourself as to the truth of Raymond A. Schneider's statement?" Prosecutor Beekman was asked. "Truth? We are not trying to determine the truth of the state-ment. I don't have to do that. All that I have to do is look for a rea-sonable basis for prosecution." he replied. Went out there any more that night. I have no reason to believe that he did. But after he went home and got that note yoa couldn't tell what he might 'have done." was asked.

Crowd Tries to Continued from Pace One county building and known to every-body in town. He was on his way home early this morning, when he passed building alley and Allenny streats a Spring alley and Albany streets, a nightly rendezvous for the sporting element. Kirby, it is said, had been to Somerville on business connected with blances for her husband's being in Charlotty Mills is shown discussing developments in the search for her mother's slayer with her at-torney. Florence North (wearing hat): the oval is of Pcarl Bahmer, the sw etheart of Raymond Schneihad been standing at the street inter-section discussing the case, and Kirby's section discussing the case, and harvy a talked. name had been mentioned frequently. He was on guard in the courthouse the him again if he works and does right. 1

As Kirby passed Spring alley he was ficial

"You sold out on Schneider to get the

Pearl Threatens to End Her Life

Continued from Page One am not afraid," she repeated stubbornly "And when I get out." she continued in the same low, level voice which grated like a bit of broken glass drawn across a stone. "I will jump in the canal again and this time I'll go down and stay." "But Pearl, you are a child; you have your life to live." "I have a life to live?" "I have a life to live?"

"I have a life to live?" "I have no life to live as long as my father is alive. What can I do that I want to? He won't let me do nothin'. I might as well be dead." She pulled at her short white skirt, but it was not long enough to hide the holes in her white stockings nor the black etracks her sandels had made on black streaks her sandals had made on hem.

She reminded one strangely, this odd little figure, of "Little Orphant Annie," only she has no house to which she can "come to stay." There is no place for her to go, no arms waiting to receive her, no love or understanding from which she can gain courage—only a girl, no mother, an inhuman father, simply homeless.

Says She's Not "Bad"

There is neither light nor life in her small pinched face, leaden-white under her rough straw-colored hair. The blue green of her crocheted sweater, which ries to Lynch Sheriff hands hung loosely from thin wrists.

Called "Stool Pigeon" A crowd of men, many of them drunk, id been standing at the street lenk,

He was on guard in the courthouse the night the first confession was obtained from Schneider, and it was popularly supposed that he had practiced on his acquaintance with the youth, near whose home Kirby lives, to make him And I'd go back to him tomorrow if he was free and done right. "Pearl? I wouldn't

As introp passed spring alley he was recognized by Lyons, it is said, and stopped. Men in the crowd began to call names. "Rat" and "stool pigeon" were two of the epithets hurled at the Again a shrug of the thin shoulders Again a shrug of the thin shoulders and a tinkle, tinkle of the beads.

BANKERS PLAYING A PART

WITH GOLDEN

cisms. Pointing Out Charity

and Loans

By CLINTON W. GILBERT Staff Correspondent Evening Public Ledger opyright, 1922, by Public Ledger Company Washington, Oct. 11 .- The Adminis-

States changes its attitude of indiffer-

Edward Schneider, father of the youth who, "confessed" his chum killed the Rev. E. W. Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Mills, is shown comforting

VICTIMS OF TRAGEDY AFTERMATH

his grief-stricken wife on the porch of their New Brunswick home SEEKS PEPPER AID S. AIDS EUROPE

TO SETTLE STRIKE Representative of Raliway Shop-men Asks Conference With Senator

TO SETTLE STRIKE Representative of Railway Shop-men Asks Conference With Senator An effort to enlist Senator Pepper's aid in arranging a settlement of the railrond shopmen's strike on hard-coal carrying roads will be made today in this city. There is the senator pepper's and the settlement of the carrying roads will be made today in this city. There is a subserved to the senator of the settlement of the said in arranging a settlement of the carrying roads will be made today in this city. There is a subserved to the settlement of the said. State Department Refutes Criti-

Thomas Kennedy, president of Dis-trict No. 7. United Mine Workers of America, is expected here as the intermediary for the strikers.

Senator Pepper received a telegram from Mr. Kennedy in which the mine chief asked for a conference "on an important matter." He did not state the subject of the proposed conference. The Senator said he expected Mr. Kennedy to arrive in Philadelphia some tration replied sharply to the criticism that this country was doing nothing for his engagement calendar is full. He the rehabilitation of Europe. Word is would not comment on the strike setconstantly coming from abroad that tlement proposal in advance of the

Enrope can only be saved if the United States changes its attitude of indiffer-an official of the Machinists' Union, Biscuit Co. to Double Stock

W. S. Vandruff

The Rev. George J. Fischer

Williamsport, Pa., Oct. 11. — The Rev. George J. Fischer, curate of St. Boniface Church, in this city, died yes-terday. He formerly was in Wilkes-

William L. Stevens

ence and comes to the aid. At the State Department it was de-clared that no check was being placed upon Americans loans abroad. The upon Americans loans abroad. The the railroad shopmen as he did for policy of this Government is now, as the miners of the hard-coal field. MER FAMILY HAVEhim.Many in the crowd went for bricks, which they got from a pile
bricks, which they got from a pile herrhy, Some one in the crowd shouldMrs. Schneider is an ardent movie fan and says she was at a moving picture show in South River the night of the Hall-Mills murder.policy of this Government is now, as the has been since this Administration entered office, to place no obstacles in the Hall-Mills murder.er. Son and Daughter ArrestedFlees From Excited MobMrs. Schneider insists that the only time she saw Pearl was on Schurday as on Schurday.policy of this Government is now, as the has been since this Administration
the Hall-Mills murder.
Mrs. Schneider insists that the only time she saw Pearl was on Schurday. POPE BLESSES WEDDING

Letter From Benedict Read at Mar-

Woman Accused of Murdering Husband Seems Indifferent to Proceedings

4 WOMEN ON JURY PANEL

By a Staff Correspondent

By a Staff Correspondent Tom's River, N. J., Oct. 11.—Mrs. Ivy Giberson, charged with the murder of her husband at their home in Lake-burst on the night of August 14, was placed on trial here today before Judge Kalisch. The court room was packed to overflowing by residents from all sec-tions of Ocean County. and, from the general buzz of conversation. most of them are inclined to believe that the defendant is innocent. defendant is innocent.

defendant is innocent. Giberson, who operated taxicabs, was found dead in bed with a bullet in his head. Mrs. Giber on said her husband had been killed by burglars, who first bound her with strong twine. She spread news of the robbers after apparently freeing herself. Discovery of letters to Mrs. Giberson from other men and the finding of a revolver in an outbuilding led to her arrest.

Indifferent to Proceedings

Tastefully dressed, Mrs. Giberson in-differently watched the preliminary proceedings of the trial. She wore a brocecings of the trial. She wore a black silk dress, a black hat and black vloves. Aside from being slightly pale, the showel no other ill effects result-ing from her imprisonment. She is represented by William II. Jeffery. Prosecutor Wilfred H. Jayne appeared for the Commonwealth.

Prosecutor Wilfred H. Jayne appeared for the Commonwealth. Considerable time was spent at the outset of the proceedings in a quibble over possession of certain exhibits. These articles included a ball of twine found in the Giberson home, a re-volver and other things. The defense demanded these things, but the request was opposed by Prosecutor Jayne.

Four Women on Panel

Four women are on the panel from which the jury is being chosen. It is reported their selection will be strongly posed by the prosecution. Selection of the jury did not get un-

WOMAN KILLED BY TROLLEY

Mrs. H. W. McCracken Fatally Hurt in Ridley Park

Mrs. H. W. McCracken, of Wallingford, Pa., was killed last night when struck by a trolley car at Chester pike near Bartol avenue, Ridley Park. The woman stepped on the tracks after one car had passed in front of another coming in the opposite direction.

She was employed in the home of H. R. Sack and was on her way home. She leaves her husband and two sons.

New York, Oct. 11.-Directors of the Vational Biscuit Company have voted to submit to the stockholders a pro-posal to double the authorized stock and to change its par value from $100 to

"Statement of Raymond C. Schnei-der, made in the presence of County Detective Ferd David, Deputy Sheriff Frank P. Kirby and State Police Trooper Dickman on the morning of October 9, 1922

Frank P. Kirby and State Police Trooper Dickman on the morning of October 9, 1922. "I and Clifferd Hayes left the Ri-voli Theatre about 10:55 P. M. Thure-day and followed Mr. Bahmer and his daughter Pearl up George street to Hamilton, their to College avenue, up College avenue to McCauley's lane and themee to Easton avenue, where we lest track of them Hayes and I want through De Russeys gully, and when about three-quarters of the way up we said to me. The rentry are, and fulled a gun from his pocket and fired three a gun from his pocket and fired three or four times.

"I was about four feet away when Hayes fired and 1 then started to run toward De Russeys lane, which was a short distance away, and on arriving at the lane I started to walk toward Easton avenue road, where I met Kauffman with a machine, who asked

"I told him that Heyes was coming, "I told him that Heyes was coming, and we waited. Shortly Hayes came along and we all three drove down to Buccleuch Park, when Hayes and I got out, Kauffman going home. Hayes and I remained together a short time and we parted. Hayes going home and I, too. "The next morning, which was Friday. I again went out looking for ishrooms, along with Pearl Bahmer, and again on Saturday, when we came across Mr. Hall's and Mrs. Mills' bodies. I immediately ran to the house of Mrs. Striker and phoned to the police. On the night that Hayes shot Mr. Hall and Mrs. Mills I knew a mistake had been made. I did not touch the bodies, but Hayes pulled Mrs. Mills' scarf that she had worn over her face. and Mr. Hall's hat partly over his face. "I do not know what became of the run after the shooting. All I am sorry for now is that I did not report this sooner

Signed by RAYMOND C. SCHNEIDER. Witnes FERD DAVID. FRANK P. KIRBY.

SAY SCHNEIDER'S WIFE HAD PHILLIPS HOUSE KEY

Pearl Bahmer Asserts Woman Searched Place After Murder

By a Staff Correspondent New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 11.— Pearl Bahmer, under arrest here, has told the authorities that Mr. Raymond told the authorities that Mr. Raymond inther that night. We arrived home at 12 o'clock. My father was angry at me. 12 o'clock. My father was angry at me.

mond and I found the bolies." said the girl." Mrs. Schneider came to my bouse, and nsked me to show her where the bodies were discovered. "Yext morning fother came over to my house, still drunk, mad and raving the bodies were discovered.

took a key from her pocketbook. She ter, but he accused me of writing it, indicked the door of the kitchen and "I didn't go in with her, but waited rutaide for her to return. She spent "But if he thought I had it would be just like him to get a knife and gun and follow me and slash my throat and shoot Ray as he had often threat-ened to do. I don't think my father to come Frequently in New Brunswick

By a Staff Correspondent New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 11-In-

'Is that your father?' I said yes, police magistrate on a charge of mall- a window. Many of the men went Father didn't seem to pay any atten- clous mischief after he had smashed questing for him about the building

Alleged Shoplifter Held

shoplifting. She was captured yes-play, according to detectives, in the

Mobbed Sheriff

STOR .

street department store.

taking dresses from a Market

rather dunt seem to pay any atten-tion, he was very drunk. Ray then indicated he was going to follow us. "As we walked up George street, I looked behind and saw that Clifford, Henry, was killed several years ago Ray and Leon were following and I also noticed two strange men following us. "Of course I was surprised to see Ray because he had told me he was

"Of course I was surprised to see He asserted he took the self-defense. Ray because he had told me he was going home, but I was glad he was fol-lowing me, and as we got to Johnson & Johnson's place I saw Ray take off Brunswick police since he was a boy. Nicholas Bahmer's son, "Happy," the police to disperse it.

his cont. 'My father was pleased and happy and has participated in many street fights. He has been arrested frequently because Richard and Lillian had left or petty larceny. Thus far this year 'Happy.' who is twenty-two years

If he had a knife or gun with him then, unconscious in a gutter on the out. "I know the Hayes family well," he I said, 'Please, father, don't make me skirts of the town Investigation re- said. "I also know the Schneiders. I stay out late. You know Lillian will yealed the woman to be Pearl Bahmer, had nothing to do with the arrests of scold." while out with two men.

Saw Schneider and Hayes

"He said. 'They know you're out with me. They won't scold you for being out with your father.' Then we being out with your father.' Then we sat down. I looked around and I saw Clifford Hayes and Kauffman crawling toward us. My father saw them and asked Hayes what he wanted, and Haves said he was looking for a place to sleep, I plainly saw Raymond standscold.

ing back. Father said, 'We'll move out of here, as they're looking for a place to sleep.' We started away. Two men

I did not know walked ahead of us and stood at Huntington street. We walked a little bit and sat down again and as we did noticed that Clifford, Raymond and Leon still were following un strange men came on down and as they did I coughed. Father put his hand over my mouth and told me to be still. I insisted that he take me home and he the bodies were discovered, "It was dark, but I went with her to the Phillips farmhouse, I pointed out the spot to her. Then dee went to the door of the old house, and would not tell me what was in the lef-ter, but be accused ine of writing it, molocked the door of the kitchen and and shapped ine in the spot to the door on my stationery, which I didn't would not tell me what was in the lef-ter, but be accused ine of writing it,

Edward Wheeler Hall, and Mrs. Elea. Edward Wheeler Hall, and Mrs. Elea. Finited the pince the night of Septem- ber 16. The night of that day when Ray. The night of that day when Ray. The night of that day when Ray.

Father, Son and Daughter Arrested

where it was thin and dashed through. vestigation of the police records at New The crowd pressed hard at his Brunswick today revealed that members Brunswick coday revealed that members Bricks crashed around him, and for a new moments in danger of serious injury, is not dental. The edical ran for the Pennsylva-nia Railroad station, nearby, dashed in and shammed the door behind him. It caught with a spring lock. Bricks dented the wood as the mob came up The building was surrounded, and the crowd howled for Kirby to come out, The station agent tried to pacify the made dow. Many of the mewent the building were cold. What did he ever do so window. Many of the building the building were cold. What did he ever do the big sorrow into your life? I wouldn't be living for that man, I never "Investment about the back by means of the building were cold. What did he ever do the blig sorrow into your life? I wouldn't be living for that man, I never "Investment about the back by means of the building were cold. What did he ever do the blig sorrow into your life? I wouldn't be living for that man, I never "Investment about the back by means of the building were cold. What did he ever do the building were cold. What did he ever do the building were cold. What did he ever do the blig sorrow into your life? I wouldn't be living for that man, I never "Investment about the law of American money into the It dow of American money in

The crowd hung about until 4 o'clock this morning in spite of the efforts of Indignant Over Suspicion Shortly before daylight the police or not." arrested Lyons on information given by Kirby. The official says that when hecause Richard and Lillian had left us. Of course, when Ray took his coat off I knew he was there to defend me. I couldn't make out who the other strange men were, but I knew they were watching us. I said to father. There arrested frequently for truancy and de-arrested frequently for truancy and de-arrested frequently for truancy and de-inquency. August 22, 1921, the po-over the suspicious of the crowd than their physical attack on him. by Kirby. The official says that when the moh first gathered about him and began to menage him there were inquency. August 22, 1921, the po- over the suspicions of the cr ice were notified a woman was lying their physical attack on him, unconscious in a gutter on the out-t. I know the Hayes family

e had suffered an attack of epilepsy the boys or Schneider's confession. I lie out with two men. this morning to assure the boy's parents that the charges the people are making

Mrs. Sara Katrotsky, forty-nine against me charges the people are making against me were unjust." The Landing Athletic Club was the first of several organizations to make a move to defend Hayes, who is popular and generally believed guiltless. The The Landing Athletic Club was the The ays football and baseball in Buccleagh Park, near the scene of the mur-der. The club members decided to give a similar or entertainment within a few o raise money for Hayes' da-There will be a special meeting days to fease.

manke or entertaining on the cancer of the standard terms of the standard term

Deputy Sheriff, who was threat-ened with lynching by angry New Brunswick citizens

FRANK KIRBY

Kirby, seeing that there was real danger, turned and tried to break through the ring. He found a spot a detail armed with night sticks came on the run. They broke through the crowd and rescued Kirby, still in the Schneider, with whom she has always made her home don't know whether I will see Raymond

Insists She'll Go Back

"See him," demanded the voice of the older woman. "See him? I will tell Then turning from her she said in a loan. hard, dry voice: "I will tell you the simple truth.

"My granddaughter is not respon-cause it is for worse now is no reason I should desert him. 1 love him and I im going back to him if he does right.

the Hail-Mills murder.
Mrs. Schneider insists that the only were were from the day the bodies were were closed for multimistic purposes abroad inverse of the minimum enter the maintenance of large armules or the balaxed in the maintenance of large armules or the second purpore.
dealter dorvars, "Good to you?" echoed a volce from the orse arme only two wass in which the tert."
Gasted in the white of her nurses uniform in the second the second will be or entry curves in which was the large of the maintenance of large armules in white were armed here the second will be contained and the maintenance of large armules the second will be contained and the maintenance of large armules in white base of the maintenance of large armules in white base or the second will be contained with the sen

Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 11.-Traffic was suspended for two hours in the heart of Wheeling yesterday and many business places were closed during The State Department has recently felt called upon to express its disap-Disregariling her grandmother, except proval of one foreign loan. This was or a slight change in her expression. In the cas eof Rumania, which was for a slight change in her expression. In the case of Rumania, which was which because subdued, almost cowed, Mrs. Schneider continued wistfully, "I fund its war debts. The debt of Rumania to this country to re-Rumania to this country enjoys certain priorities under the terms under which the toan was made. And Rumania in refunding its obligation was paying no regard to this priority. Naturally the you, you aren't going to see him. You state Department refused its approval when the question was presented by the bankers underwriting the Rumanian

Bankers and United States Co-Operate The State Department has no ausible. I tell you she is not responsible, thority to prevent loans abroad, but it This affair has get on her mind until is the practice of bankers to submit This aftair has get on her mind until she is unbalanced. She wanders from place to place. I ought to be with her all the time, but I have to work for my living. I am a narse, as you see, and I have to be away in the daytime, but I have to be away in the daytime, but I am here at night to see that she is home and safe." "I will go back to him," stubbornly repeated Mrs. Schneider. "I married him for better or for worse and just be-cuuse it is for worse and just be-able feeling on this subject and it is able feeling on this subject and it is not unlikely that Mr. Hughes will treat of it in his address on foreign affairs L. Stevens, fifty-nine years old, first soon to be made at Boston in Senator Mayor of this city under the commis-

Lodge's campaign for re-election. sion-form of government, died at hi States.

Barre.

DEATH3

$25 a share.

business places were closed during funeral services for the Right Rev. P. J. Donahue, Bishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Wheeling. Ponti-FOR SALE

FOR SALE POOL TABLES, 4x8, for sale cheap. Call at 617 S. 2d st. Lombard 4108.

ficial high mass was celebrated in the eathedral by Archbishop Michael J. Curley, of Baltimore. More than 10,-000 persons, including thousands of school children, marched behind the hearse to Mount Calvary Cemetery.

MIFFLIN Relieves Waynesburg, Pa., Oct. 11.-W, S. Vandruff, seventy years old, a well-known oil and gas geologist, is deal at his home here. Mr. Vandruff worked in practically all the fields of the United tired muscles MASSAGE

Golf Match Postponed

Owing to illness of Gene Sarazen and inability to secure 'Jim' Barnes as substitute, the match scheduled at Stenton Country Club tomorrow has been indefinitely postponed.

assuring permanent satisfaction.

J. E.CALDWELL & CO. JEWEIRY - SILVER - WATCHES - STATIONERY

CHESTNUT AND JUNIPER STREETS