

PEPPER WOULD END LANCASTER BREACH
 Speaks at Rally Tonight in the Interest of Party Harmony

pendents have carefully avoided the State ticket since turned down by Gifford Pinchot.
 The Mayor defeated the Grist candidates in the city elections last year, but his strength in the county districts is the unknown quantity. Senator Pepper may make the rounds of some of the larger county towns today. Grist leaders predict they will break even in the city and carry the county three to one, while the independents forecast a majority of 7000 for Musser in Lancaster.

Senator Pepper will be guest at a reception of Republican women in the afternoon and will speak at a public meeting in the Fulton Opera House tonight. He is the guest of Secretary of the Commonwealth B. J. Myers.
 Last night in a Columbus Day address before the Pennsylvania Sunday School convention here, the Senator said:
 "Columbus grew up in a little world, but he so lived that he died in a big one. There has been nothing little or flat about the world since his time. He made it big and round and wonderful—not only for himself but for all who mean to live as he did. We ought all to be disciples of Columbus ready to make voyages into the unknown and always eager to enlarge our world."
 Senator Pepper urged the develop-
