

SCHOOLS FACING $200,000 DEFICIT

Increased Pay and Additional Classes Have Wiped Out Appropriations

PUSH BUILDING PLANS

A deficit of $200,000 is faced by the Board of Education for this year. This will have to be made up in the appropriations for 1923 when the budget compiled next month. The total amount which was estimated for this year's expenses by the Board was $22,448,882.50. To this was added about $400,000 from the actual real estate assessment over the estimated assessments.

All this money was appropriated in the budget and the shortage has come about through increasing the number of night school classes, the increased pay of teachers and additional teachers, and the failure of the State to pay the money due by appropriation.

The State treasury now owes the local school financiers $2,151,000. Of this $108,000 was due in July, 1921. One-half of the balance which was granted under the Finegan program adopted by the last session of the Legislature was due last February, and the remaining sum fell due last July. The State to pay its debts has cost the local school authorities about $70,000 through the loss of interest if the cash through the land and in a bank, and also through the cost of borrowing money at 4 per cent to pay current expenses which is supposed to be paid by State bonds.

Work is being made by William D. Wilson, secretary of the board, to supply the deficit out of current funds. The next year's money will be used for the year.

The board is rapidly progressing with its building plans. On October 22, bids will be opened for three new school buildings at an estimated cost of more than $1,000,000. They will be elementary schools, and located as follows: One on Chestnut and Duncannon streets, one on Chestnut and Oregon avenue, and one on Chestnut Hill, to replace the Gillett school.

Mrs. Wilson Plans Home-Made Cakes

The Children Especially Will Delight in Crullers With Raisins, as Well as Speed Sponge Cake

By MRS. M. A. WILSON

My dear friends, I have planned each day to devote this space to easy methods of making toothsome delicacies by the following Sunday. This gives you the week to arrange your supplies and then start the baking early on Saturday, after coming in from the market.

Frangipane Cream Tart
Place in the saucepan
One and one-half cups of milk.
One-half cup of sugar.
Eaten level tablespoons of flour.
Stir to dissolve the sugar and flour, and bring to boiling point, cook slowly for five minutes, now add
Four tablespoons of butter,
Yolks of four eggs.
One cup of finely crushed macaroons.
Three-quarters cup of finely chopped almonds.
Two tablespoons of vanilla.
One-quarter teaspoon of nutmeg.
Beat well to blend, and turn in deep plate that has been lined with wax paper. Bake in slow oven for twenty-five minutes.
Whip the whites of the eggs until like snow, and then whip in
Two-thirds cup of sugar.
One egg, and for best results, cut in tiny bits with a sharp pair of scissors.
Pile high on the hot pie, sprinkle with finely chopped almonds, and place in oven to delicately brown.
This tart is best eaten the same day it is baked.

Raisin Centers
Place in mixing bowl
Four and one-half cups of flour,
One teaspoon of salt,
Three level tablespoons of baking powder.
One-half teaspoon of nutmeg,
One-half teaspoon of ginger,
One-quarter teaspoon of allspice,
One cup of sugar,
Stir twice, and then rub into the sifted flour.
Three level tablespoons of butter,
Place one egg in measuring cup and fill with milk, turn in bowl of beat to mix, then turn cruller dough. Add one cup of finely chopped almonds, and blend well into the dough.
Roll part of the dough and roll on half inch thick, cut, and lift to floured surface until the crullers are cut out.
Place crullers in the hand, shake the flour, and stretch a little and roll in smoking-hot fat, cook two or three minutes. Turn the crullers as quickly as they come to the top and then roll in the following mixture:
Place in bowl,
Three-quarters cup of granulated sugar,
One-half teaspoon of cinnamon,
One-quarter teaspoon of nutmeg,
Mix well, and then place on paper and roll the crullers in this sugar.
Ginger Butter Sponge Cake
Place in mixing bowl,
Five of three eggs,
One cup of sifted brown sugar,
Cream well and then add,
Four tablespoons of New Orleans No. 1 molasses,
Six tablespoons of cold water,
One teaspoon each of allspice, nutmeg and cinnamon,
Four tablespoons of melted butter,
One and three-quarters cups of sifted flour,
The level teaspoons of baking powder,
Beat to smooth batter, and then cut into three equal parts, and bake three cakes in a large well-oiled pan with moderate heat, 450 degrees F. Turn from the pan as soon as baked on a clean towel, folded, and when cold, ice with lemon jelly.

SHOT OVER DISHWASHING

Wounded Man Accuses Fellow Lodger

In a dispute over washing dishes last night at 2042 East York street, the police say, one man fired three shots with a revolver, one of which struck the right hand of another man.

Charles Crowley, the man wounded, ran to the Trenton avenue and Dauphin street police station. Policemen sent to arrest William Mulholland, whom Crowley accused as his assailant, heard three more shots as they approached the house. They found Mulholland with a slight wound on the side of his head. According to the police, Mulholland attempted suicide.

Wanamaker's Down Stairs Store News

The Whole Coat Question Is Easily Solved When Good Coats Are $14.25 to $92.50

Almost a thousand coats in Wanamaker's Down Stairs Fashion Store.

One great avenue of coats leads from close to Juniper Street nearly to Thirteenth. Then the Central Aisle, Market Street, is devoted to sports coats of all kinds, and in addition, the Little Coat Salon has finer fur-trimmed coats at $58.50, $65, $78.50, $82.50, $92.50 and upward.

Beautiful Coats Without Fur Are $50, $65, $75, $78.50, $87.50

—for women who wish to use their own furs. Made of rich bolivia and other soft coatings, they are luxuriously lined and expertly tailored. Sorrento blue, brown, black and navy.

Extra-Size Coats, $57.50 to $92.50
Plain and fur-trimmed coats of various fine materials. Usually only one or two of a kind, so that one's wrap may be pleasantly exclusive.

Fur-Trimmed Coats
$25, $32.50, $38.50, $42.50, $58.50
Substantial velour and bolivia coats mostly silk or satin lined and with various kinds of fur collars.

Sports Coats of Surprising Quality and Style
$14.25 to $42.50
Third shipment just arrived of favorite striped tweed coats in black and white or tan and brown.
Hundreds of other coats of plaid-back double-faced tweed, including the desirable herringbone and small check weaves, $16.50 to $42.50.

Unusual Coats at $25
A dozen or more styles! Plain velour and tan polo coats, also tan chinchilla and tweeds! Some have leather buttons and are typically English in style; others, for "dress," have fur collars.
But there's practically no end to all these exceptional coats!
(Down Stairs Store, Market)

Fur Coats With Choker Collars, $90—Fur Capes With Choker Collars, $125

Two fashionable models in the newly re-opened Fur Shop Down Stairs. Both the cape and the coat are of heavily fur-lined seal-dyed coney, usually called near-seal. Both are luxuriously silk lined. The coat is 40 inches long, the cape 45 inches. These furs are so lustrous that they look much like the higher-priced muskrat.

All the Furs Down Stairs Are of What Is Known as "Wanamaker Quality" and they are selected by the same experts who choose the furs for the Wanamaker Fur Salons, Second Floor.

This year the Down Stairs coats are much better than we can ever recall offering at the prices. All are 40 or 45 inch lengths—long enough for the new longer skirts. Sleeves are wider, too, and many of the collars are gathered, so that they can be adjusted more gracefully.

These Are Some of the Women's Fur Coats
Seal-dyed coney, 40 inches, $80; 45 inches, $90.
Seal-dyed coney with skunk collar and cuffs, $125 to $190.
Seal-dyed coney coats with gray squirrel or beaver collars and cuffs, 40 inches long, $190.
Seal-dyed coney capes, 40 inches, $115.
Natural muskrat sports coats, 40 inches long, $125 and $150.

Extra-Size Seal-Dyed Coney Coats, $100
Coats made especially for women who wear sizes 44 to 54. These coats are 40 inches long and have large shawl collars.

Small Animal Scarfs
are of kit fox at $12.50; gray squirrel, $10 and $13.50; mink, $15; raccoon, $18.50; stone marten, $35.

More Than Fifteen Hundred New Autumn Frocks to Choose From at $5 to $25

Think of the joyous opportunity of it! The almost unrestricted choosing—the really exceptional saving. All the way from $5 to $25 one may choose the sort of good-looking, well-made frock which will cause friends to exclaim amazedly, "Where did you get that attractive new dress?" And all the while one has that feeling of tremendous satisfaction that it is not only a becoming, serviceable frock, but an extremely inexpensive one, as well.

Effectively embroidered and braided serges in more or less tailored models are only $5.

Now crepe de chine dresses with girdle ornaments, panel pleatings and draperies are $7.50 and $10.

A just-new and unusual wool jersey frock, straight of line, with hip-seam draperies and clever vest, is also $10. And there are a dozen other styles at the same price, in Poirer twill, satin, Canton, crepe de chine and tricotine.

From $15 to $20 one may stop often in price and choose from a large assortment of interesting new things. There are Canton creases, dresses, in fact, for every hour of the day, including street frocks and frocks for informal evening wear. Also some out-of-the-ordinary sample dresses, of which there are only perhaps one or two of a kind: Poirer twills and tricotines, mostly, with the new sleeve embroideries and skirt draperies.

And then the $25 dresses! Just to mention the brand-new ones at this popular price would entail a long story. One model has a Canton crepe skirt and gayly printed crepe bodice. A wool crepe has yoke and sleeves of ecru-embroidered Canton. Another Canton model has unique side draperies that fall in closely pleated folds to form the skirt hem. An especially smart new sports frock is made of wool serge and has turn-back collar and gauntlet-like cuffs of striped Canton. Really distinctive!

And these are but a few of the many, many delightful frocks one may choose from at $5 to $25.

New Styles of Women's Shoes Surprisingly Priced, $5 to $6.50

All of them pumps—but such a diversity of styles of pumps that each shoe, almost, deserves a different name. They are all the kinds that are "being worn" this Autumn. They are good shoes, too, that will give service as well as style satisfaction. It is the largest complete assortment of good new shoes offered at about these moderate prices that we know of—and these shoes really fit well.

At $5, one-strap pumps with welted soles and Cuban heels in patent leather, black calf, tan calf and black kid. The same pump in soft brown kid is $5.50.

At $5.50, two-strap Cuban-heel pumps with rubber top lifts and welted soles; in black kid, tan calf and patent leather. Also one-strap Cuban-heel pumps with welted soles and unusually attractive perforations, in tan and black calf.

At $6, one-strap pumps with turned soles and Cuban heels, in patent leather, black calf and black satin.

At $6.50, turned-sole one-strap pumps in brown or black oze calf with brown or black kid trimmings; Spanish Louis heels.

The New Hats at $8 Have a Real "Air"

Fresh from the workrooms of makers who do nothing but think and dream and live HATS the whole season through. Each one, as it emerges from its box, has an interesting feature that belongs to itself alone.

For instance, one most fetching little hat of black panne velvet turns sheer off the face with a plaited facing of bright silver cloth. You've no idea how different and effective it is—and of course, it will look equally well with a suit in the daytime and with a frock after six o'clock.

Another widely drooping hat is banded and bowed with burnished gold ribbon that has high lights of pure sunshine and deeply tarnished shadows.

Another pretty draped hat that turns back softly in front has its velvet facing quaintly smoked and pinned back with stiletto-like pins set with imitation jewels.

Still another hat—quite a big one—is weighted down on one side by fold after fold of leaf-brown velvet set in ruffle-like flouncings.

So you see, they really are "different"—and these that we have told about don't begin to cover the whole charming lot of them!

40-Inch Chiffon Velvet, $5 Yard

Its coloring is exquisitely opalescent, due to the softness and thickness of the silk nap. A combination silk-and-cotton back adds serviceability, and the price is very moderate. Rich navy blue, Copenhagen, garnet, plum, taupe and black.

40-Inch All-Silk Canton Crepe, $3 Yard
Sapphire, cocoa, brown, jade, bonfire, gray, navy, white and black! Whatever one's need for softly luxurious silk, here are colors and a quality that will surely be satisfactory.

These Good Rugs Are All Priced on the Old Lower Basis of Cost

Since their purchase, wholesale rug prices have advanced. It is unlikely that they will decline very soon. Rugs brought in after these are sold will of necessity be higher priced. We offer an exceptional range of desirable room sizes and extra-large sizes. The four most durable and satisfactory kinds of rugs for homes are represented in a majority of the size-groups, affording an unusual choice of moderately priced rugs in good staple patterns and colors.
