Lucile Carter's and Sam Reeve's wedding, which took place at the Church of the Good Shepherd at Rosemont at noon on Saturday, was most striking. The bride wore beautiful lace over silver cloth, and carried Easter lilles and lilles of the valley, and the bridesmaids were in cloth of gold and carried bunches of old rose and golden dahlias. Can you imagine anything more attractive. The effect was stunning and very original. The church was gorgeous; the chancel a mass of white chrysanthemums and every pew in the middle aisle-had a huge bunch of rose-colored dahlias.

A large reception followed at Almonhury House, Mr. and Mrs. George Brookes' place at Ithan.
