ROOKWOOD READY FOR 22D SEASON

Manager Bobby Winskill Again at Helm of Oldest Basketball Team

LINE-UP IS ALMOST INTACT

The Rookwood basketball team, probably the oldest game organization anywhere in point of continued service, is preparing for its twenty-second season. Manager Bobby Winskill is one of the real veterans of the sport, having been connected with basketball since it was played with seven men on a side, and he has managed Rookwood for twenty-one seasons.

Rookwood will have its 1921-22 team almost intact for 1929, with the addition of a new man at center. Last season almost every team of prominence in the State was defeated by Rookwood, as well as the leading teams of other States, all on Rookwood's opponents' floors.

Among Rookwood's victims were: Pottsville, Pa.; Shamokin, Pa.; Danbury, Pa.; Media, Pa. (four times); Quakertown, Pa. (twice, once at Doylestown); St. Nicholas, Atlantic City, N. J.; Kutztown, Pa.; Philadelphia Stars, Atlantic City, N. J.; Philadelphia All-Stars, and several others. Practice starts Thursday night, at St. Peter's.

Madonna will inaugurate the tenth season of its basketball team at the school building, Twelfth street and Girard avenue, on Wednesday, November 20. Madonna has arranged many games, one of the most important being with the Salem Y. M. C. A. on Friday, November 22. Manager Leonard, of Madonna, has in his line-up the following: Bruno, Cimino, Vosta, Reppa and Nocera.

The Westville A. A. started the season by playing East End at home on Saturday, and is prepared for tonight's clash with the Philadelphia Amateur League. On Friday night the E. U. S. All-Stars will be met.

Kennett A. A. has organized and arranged for a game at Houdon, Pa., and will play on November 18. Kennett has arranged many games, one of the most important being with the Salem Y. M. C. A. on Friday, November 22. Manager Leonard, of Madonna, has in his line-up the following: Bruno, Cimino, Vosta, Reppa and Nocera.

E. P. C. has arranged to open the season on Friday, October 20, at the Eastern League team at First Congressional Hall, Seymour street, west of Girard.

West Philadelphia Catholic Club opened its season last night at Houdon, Pa. Manager Larry Sommer led the line-up of the club, which included Sam Lennox, and Jack Hyde and Phil Douglas. Any team which may play the Philadelphia Association, 1524 Chestnut street, Home Local 7800, on Monday, 1929.

Antonia Catholic Club has decided to play the season at home on Saturday, October 20, with the champions of the district. The club is managed by William J. Barnes, 1837 Dauphin street.

Frankie Rice Fouls Andy Chaney Baltimore Md., Oct. 17.—Andy Chaney has declared the winner over Frankie Rice in a fight on a foot last night. The fight came in the sixth round, after the loser previously struck low on three occasions. Chaney, who is a native of Philadelphia, a terrific punting from the bell in their sixth round bout.

South Philadelphia to Take On Murray at the Arena

COMPOSED OF COLLEGIANS

The challenge of the Orange A. C. to the "Golden Tornadoes" of Orange, N. J., has been accepted by Howard Mealy, on behalf of the Frankford Athletic Association Yellowjackets, and the two teams will clash on Brown's Field, Frankford, next Saturday afternoon.

SWARTHMORE TO OPEN FIELD HOCKEY SEASON

College Girls' Team Will Meet the Strong Temple Aggregation

Swarthmore, Pa., Oct. 16.—The field hockey season for Swarthmore opens Thursday afternoon on Cunningham field when the college girls' team meets the strong Temple University eleven to settle the championship of the past three years. Temple was victor last season and the Quaker maids won in 1920, so Thursday's contest is looked upon as the deciding battle between the ancient rivals.

A strange feature of the game this year will be that Miss Gertrude East, fresh internationalist of the past three years, is coaching the university eleven, and has been devoting part of her time to the rival institution, giving the Garnet team several lessons in the fundamentals of play.

Head Coach Miss Helen Cullin, of Swarthmore, has been forced to cut her large squad, to better enable the teaching staff to prepare for the opening game. Thirty-five have been retained on the varsity, while a large overflow group, numbering nearly fifty, has gone to work to prepare for the inter-class games. These will be staged after the regular season gets well under way.

GRIDIRON FOR SOUTHERN

Shetline Park Will Be Used by Red and Black This Season

An appeal was made to the Board of Governors of the South Philadelphia Amusement Company, which organization owns Shetline Park, some time ago to allow the Red and Black the use of the field to prepare for the inter-class games. These will be staged after the regular season gets well under way.

Another "Hole-in-One" Star (Continued) Oct. 17.—Eddie Haseman, city golf champion, has been admitted to the Philadelphia Golf Club in charge of the sixteenth. He took a ribbon-faced hole-in-one, which he calculated the wind carefully and called his ball on the green. It struck about six feet short of a hole, rolled slowly toward the cup and fell in.

The St. John's Greyhounds, of St. John's Lutheran Church, of Westville, N. J., will play a game at home on Saturday, October 20, with the champions of the district. The club is managed by William J. Barnes, 1837 Dauphin street.

The Aresella Club has two teams under the management of Mattie Gorbach, who has been a member of the club for many years. The teams are: Aresella High, Harry Gorbach, center; Aresella, Harry Gorbach, center; High track star; Rosenberg, Hablich, center; Aresella, Harry Gorbach, center. For game address Maxwell Gorbach, care of Aresella Club, 33rd street and Snyder avenue, or phone Oregon 3454 any evening after 7:30 P. M.

Frankie Rice Fouls Andy Chaney Baltimore Md., Oct. 17.—Andy Chaney has declared the winner over Frankie Rice in a fight on a foot last night. The fight came in the sixth round, after the loser previously struck low on three occasions. Chaney, who is a native of Philadelphia, a terrific punting from the bell in their sixth round bout.
