MRS. OGDEN MILLS MARRIES WAR HERO

Becomes Bride of Sir Paul Dukes Secretly at Nyack, N. Y.

NOW ON WAY TO EUROPE

New York, Oct. 18 .- Mrs. Ogden L. Mills, the former Margaret Rutherford, stepdaughter of the late William K. Vanderbilt, and Sir Paul Dukes, British war hero, were married in Nyack, N. Y., last week it became known last night.

Montague Glass, a friend of Sir Paul and his American lecture tour manager, was authority for the statement. The ceremony took place in Nyack a few days before the couple sailed for Europe last Saturday.

A search for the record of the mar-riage in Nyack was ineffectual. An attempt to keep it secret was manifested on every hand, and no tangible evi-dence was unearthed until the town clerk admitted having issued a marriage

PEPPER AND REED SPUR REPUBLICANS

Senators Assert McSparran Victory Would Be Entering Wedge to Wreck Prosperity

URGE BANG-UP CAMPAIGN

United States Senators Pepper and Reed called on the Finance Committee of the Republican State Committee today to put more vigerous enthusiasm into its work so as to prevent the pos-sibility of Democratic success in Pennsylvania leading to an attack on the sylvania leading to an attack of the tariff and high wages for workingmen. Senator Reed particularly urged that the party workers get busy and bury John A. McSparran, Democratic nominee for Governor, under an avalanche of votes.

"The election of McSparran." de-clared Reed, "which of course I don't regard as at all probable or possible. would mean the beginning of a move-ment to lower the tariff to a point which would work untally hear and enforcing would work untold harm and suffering, not only to business men but to work-ingmen. Personally, I don't think Mc-Sparran has a chance; his lack of a constructive program argues greatly in favor of the election of Mr. Pinchot, the Republican candidate, who has a constructive program and who is holding himself aloof from personalities."
