Nancy Wynne Tells of the Opening of the New Clubhouse for Pennsylvania Society of Colonial Dames Yesterday-Other Matters

THE Pennsylvania Society of Colonial Dames opened its new clubbouse at 1630 Latimer street zesterday is an interesting way. There was a procession to the new headquarters to take formal possession. Mrs. James istarr, who is president of the society, led the march, and Mrs. Frank Cabean and Mrs. Alfred Reginald Allen carfied the flags of the Society. After Mrs. Starr came Mrs. Arthur H. Lee and Mrs. Frederick Packard, who are rice presidents; Mrs. John C. Groome and Mrs. Joseph B, Hutchinson, secretaries, then the board of managers and as many of the members of the society as were able to attend. A WENT out to the Savage tea in Chestnut Hill yesterday afternoon and found Grace looking lovely in a white chiffon frock embroidered in gold. Mrs. Savage, who is a very good looking woman, was receiving her guests near the door of the room on the left near the door of the room on the set of the big square house. She was gowned in handsome black lace over black satin. The bouquets of flowers were wonderful, every mantel and crack and corner being filled with ex-

TODAY we have Alberta Reath and Harry Neilson's wedding at noon in St. Stephen's Church on Tenth street near Market. Alberta will make a lovely bride without a doubt, and she has a beautiful array of bridesmaids. There will be a great many ushers, too; in fact, I think the bridal party will extend the whole length of the aisle.

Alberta was a debutante of last year and one of the most popular. Her engagement was announced in the spring of the beautiful from a trip to Europe after her return from a trip to Europe with the Charlton Yarnalls and Agnes. Agnes Yarnall is a bud this year and will be Alberta's maid of honor. Her cousin, Fifi Widener Leidy, will be hostess on Tuesday, October 24, at a "musical tea," at which Mrs. Louella Carson will be the artist. The program carson will be the artist. The program will include unusual songs by Ronald and a group of Chopin numbers, among them the D minor Scherzo. Mrs. Rudolph Blankenburg will speak on "The Sesqui-Centennial" at the tea on November 14, when Mrs. R. H. Fernald will be the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Brice Rawley, of 425 South Carlisle street, are receiving congratulations on the brith of a son, Palmer Brice Rawley, Jr., on Saturday, October 14. Mrs. Rawley will be remembered as Miss Janet Hershey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hershey, of the Lindens, Wallingford. THE family was talking of college and important futures for the boys, when Uncle Charlie suddenly decided to ask William, aged five, where he would like to spend his college days. "Do' wanter," said William, who is a great ball fan, "do' want school, want ter play baseball and hit the umpire." Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kenneth Hughes have returned to their apart-ments at the Bellevue-Stratford, after spending five months in Norway, Sweden, France, Italy and England. Mrs. Hughes is the daughter of Mrs. Robert Kennedy Reading, of the Belle-vue-Stratford.
