

RESCUED from South Second street fire, Anna Coohey, Mary Wilson and Eleanor Coohey had a narrow escape yesterday

EVEN THE PIGEONS SEEMED INTERESTED.
Scene in City Hall courtyard yesterday, showing some of the crowd gathered around the prison van, hoping to glimpse Mrs. Catharine Rosier

MRS. ROSIER SCORED her first victory when she won right to have her baby present during trial. Baby Richard is shown leaving the courtroom in the arms of Mrs. Ralph Chappelle, an aunt

RICHARD WON HIS SPURS. He didn't cry once during yesterday's session. The camera caught him during recess enjoying his milk on grandmother's lap

IN THIS NOVEL LAND SCHOONER Can tain Hailes, lighthouse keeper at Kinse England, sails into town for provision-if the wind's good

WINS FIRST PRIZE. Lady Trowbeidge wearing a monocle, holding Fitzjohn Thorgils of Treenott, adjudged best dog in recent London dog show

SEEN AT THE ROSE TREE HUNT. Crisp breezes sweeping across the Media hills made many shiver in their wraps at the Rose Tree Hunt, which opened yesterday. Among the spectators were Miss Margaret Shober and Miss Charlotte Calhoun, shown on the left. The camera caught Welsh Strawbridge's River Breeze winning the fifth race, shown in the center. On the right is Miss Elaine Sullivan

HEROIC WORK checked the disastrous blat which threatened the entire industrial distri of Los Angeles, when a huge Richfield oil refi ery caught fire

LOUIS MORTON HACKER, Columbia University student, wins K. of C. prize for best monograph on history

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT. Three were injured when their automobile plunged down a thirty-foot embankment at Thirty-third and Thompson streets yesterday. The demolished car is shown above

"BRINGING UP MOTHER." Mrs. Riggs and the two little "Riggses," infant twins of former San Francsico girl just home from a visit to Shanghai, China

ALL STATES CONTRIBUTED to this flag, presented to the Republic of France. Charles W. Alexander is shown on the right presenting it to M. Maurice Paillard, French Consul to Philadelphia, to be raised Armistice Day

ELLIS CUTTING, of low said to be the last survivo of famous "Light Brigade"

SENATOR GEORGE WHARTON PEPPER paid a flying visit to Franklin Field yesterday to meet the members of the football team. Shown above chatting with Coach Heisman

LOUIS F. SWIFT, Jr., who eloped with Mrs. Mary H. Bennett, Pittsburgh

RAYMOND L. HUDSON, president of Baptist conven-JUDGE WALTER F. GEORGE, Georgia's new Senator-elect, succeeds the late Senator Thomas Watson tion in progress at 22d Bap-tist Church, Germantown

BLIND OARSMAN of Harvard freshman crew. William Beggs, Jr., of Winchester, Mass.

MRS. J. C. QUERK with prize-winning Flott von der Pfellburg Miss Elizabeth Lotzen with champion police dog Flock von Be at recent New York dog show

CAPT. CLAYTON MORRIS-SEY, of the Henry Ford, will made the Blue Nose, Nova Scotia

SNAPPY WORK. The Germantown Friends' School girls, with excellent team work, completely outclassed Miss Caskins' School team at Queen lane yesterday. The score was 15 to 0. On the left are a group of enthusiastic rooters. The two fair captains, Ida Lowell, of Miss Caskins' School, and Ruth Pearson, of the Germantown Friends' School, are pictured on the right

WHEN BROAD STREET WAS AUTOLESS. Looking toward the City itall from Columbia avenue in 1895. Bicycling was a popular sport in those days. Please send us your old Philadelphia photographs

by selving I to Laplice But Man hard with the state of th

"SPEED KING" JAILED speeding. Ralph de Palma sentenced to ten days in fornia jail

