Chotain Roberts worked out at full-back, the position at which Coach Moran said the versatile cautain would start tomorrow. Tom Bariett, last year's halfback, is with the equad, but will not be able to play because of a good deal of time to rehearsal of plays. Quarterback Pfann, who will run the varsity Saturday after a two weeks' lay-off, used a dozen or more plays, including several pretty forward passes, and for the most part the varsity put them over smoothly.

ENTHUSIASM RUNS HIGH

Temple University pried open th ockey season by treating the Swarthmore College girls to a defeat, 5 to 1, more College girls to a defeat, 5 to 1, on the latter's field yesterday afternoon.

There was plenty of action and excitement. The city hockeyites were far stronger on the offense than their rivals. They carried the fight to Swarthmore's territory during most of the game, and though the Garnet fought valiantly, they were never in the lead.

Hockey is a major sport at both colleges. In fact, so enthusiastic are the that there is a rule compelling all freshmen girls to come out and cheer the team. They came out, cheered and sang, snake-danced between the halves and did all the other things that enthusiastic collegians do in the fervor of urging its team on toyvictory. urging its team on to victory.

Temple's Captain

There was a peculiar angle to game, aside from the fact that Miss Gertrude East, the English interna-tionalist, taught the finer points of the game to both squads. Grace Gourley, who captained the Swarthmore team last year, is finishing her college carer at Temple, and quite naturally she played with the Broad street team.

PHNN STATE — The demand for tickets to the game with Middlebury College tomorrow, Alumni Homecoming day indicates that one of the best crowds of the season will be on hand for the encouniter with the scrappy New England aggregation. It is estimated that almost 1000 old grads will return for the game and the homecoming celebration.

TO REPEAT IN CAGE

Will Play Both Games This Winter on a Neutral Court

WEIGHTMAN

Southern High, basketball champions of the High School Lengue, and West Philadelphia High, runners-up last year, will play both of their scheduled games this winter on a neutral court.

This agreement was reached recently between the rival coaches, who hope by this method to overcome the crowded conditions of the home courts when these rivals clash. In the two games played last winter seats were at a premium and many ardent fans were

Southern will have another strong team on the floor this winter. On the other hand, West Philly can boast of four veterans ready for the opening whistle, and it looks as though the two schools will once more fight it out for supremacy.

Negotiations will be opened with the University of Pennsylvania in an effort to obtain Weightman Hall. In view of the fact that the authorities at the University bave shown an inclination to favor scholastic basketball as witness the Penn tourney, it would seem that the chances of obtaining the Penn cage are very favorable.

The Speedboys will again be under the guidance of Coach Warren Weiller, who will build his team around Parsons and Mathews, forwards, and Potter and Walker, guards. A center man is
