SEXTON IS BEATEN, SYNAGOGUE ROBBED

Man and Woman Attack Caretaker With an Iron Bar and Chloroform

TAKE $200 AND ESCAPE

Abraham August, sexton of Amunuth Sholom Synagogue, Fifth and tiaskill streets, was attacked by a Negro man and woman shortly after noon today beaten with an iron bar and chloroformed. His assailants stole $200 from a small desk in a rear room of the synagogue and escaped,

August occupies small quarters in the rear of the building. The woman entered first and ofter engaging Att-Fust in conversation she signaled the man who struck him with the from bar. Although stunned August half rose as to defend himself when the woman pressed a rag saturated with chloroform over his face.

While the woman stood by the unconscious sexton, her companion went to the rear room. He seemed to know where the sexton kept his money, as there was little sign of disorder in the

A neighbor who saw the main woman run from the place supported something was wrong. He found bu-gust and summoned Patrolman Shields, who sent the man to the Penn-sylvania Hospital. August regained conscious-ness there.

SEE OLD MACHINE CRACKING

First signs of the crumbling of the Vare machine are seen by old Penrose enders in the persistent reports that Congressman Vare is to go to the State Senate to succeed his brother and that Joseph C. Trainer, long an opponent of the Vares, is to succeed Congressman Vare at Washington.

These reports tell of a deal between Vare and Trainer, by which harmony in South Philadelphia is to be obtained. This is probably the first time that there ever was talk of harmony through a deal in South Philadelphia.
