

“You Gave Us the Key to Prosperity”

GEORGE T. BETTS
President of the Turner County, Georgia, Board of Trade writes George T. Betts, president of the Turner County, Georgia, Board of Trade.

“An article in THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN inspired us to turn disaster into opportunity when one-crop farming and the boll-weevil brought our whole county close to bankruptcy.

“It opened our eyes to the fine possibilities for building up a dairy center here and gave us a workable plan.

“Carloads of dairy cows, cream separators and farm conveniences have come into Turner County as a result. And our biggest business, farming, is now yielding a sure all-year income.

“The service that THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN has rendered the farmers and business men of Turner County and its surrounding territory is beyond any estimate in dollars”

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

THE CURTIS PUBLISHING COMPANY, INDEPENDENCE SQUARE, PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA
The Country Gentleman The Saturday Evening Post The Ladies' Home Journal