What Brand of Hocus Pocus Will Chicago Pull When It Meets Princeton Gridders Saturday

LOOK FOR BUNKO STUFF IF TIGERS' CLAWS GET TOO SHARP FOR STAGG

Chicago Grid Coach Not a Teacher of Psychology, but He Has a Way of Puncturing Concentration of Enemy—Bill Roper Keyed Up

By STONEY McLINN

IOWA conquered in New Haven and beat Yale, 6-0, employing the "fake pass" shift. Centre did not win at Cambridge, but Harvard put in some mighty uncomfortable moments while they were trying to find that "Parcifal Parade" of the Kentucky Colonels. Now comes the third big intersectional football fight of the year, Princeton vs. Chicago. What brand of [illegible] we expect from the Maroons [illegible]

F. A. AND J. P. PINKERTON, brothers who were the great uniform of St. John's College at Annapolis more than a decade ago, have corrected what they declare has been a common statement to the press. Curly Byrd, who coaches University of Maryland, did play football according to the Pinkertons.

"Byrd was a fast and heady quarter on the '07 team of Maryland Agricultural College, now the U. of M.," announced J. P. "I was a St. John's student, remember Byrd well and am certain he was rated the best quarter in Maryland if not in the entire South."

ALTHOUGH this ruins a perfectly good story, we cheerfully print the facts concerning Curly, apologize to him and render thanks to the Pinkerton boys—who, by the way, insist they are not of the de[illegible] family.

Local Battler Finishes Canadian in "Jig Time" With Kidney Punch in 1:54

MAGUIRE BEATS LOPEZ

By LOUIS H. JAFFE

ANOTHER foreign pistic bubble has busted. Knocked out twice in as many bouts within four nights, both [illegible] Sid Morse, a Canadian lightweight, [illegible] much less than three rounds, [illegible] of the manager's denomination, from a pugilistic standpoint.

Joe Tiplitz, the stumbling, pick-'em-up-and-lick-'em battler, of this city, [illegible] the preacher against Stanley at the Olympia last night in one round less than it took Charley White to polish off [illegible] New York last Friday night. Marks was counted out in 1 minute 54 seconds of the first round after Tiplitz [illegible] a terrific left to Sid's kidney.
