FIND WIFE'S BODY, HUSBAND ACCUSED

Brutal Murder Is Charged to Cleveland Man Subjected to Third Degree

MARITAL LIFE TURBULENT

By Associated Press

Cleveland, Oct. 26.—Henry J. Burns was booked on a charge of murder here early today, charged with the brutal killing of his third wife, whose mutilated body was found almost nude in a shallow grave in the woods of Mentor Marsh, seven miles west of Painesville, late yesterday afternoon.

Burns, who lives in Cleveland, was formally charged with first-degree murder after an all-night grilling here by Detective Lieutenant Charles Nevel.

Burns admits he was in the woods near the scene of the killing just before the body was found, according to police, and also admits he saw his wife's blood-stained clothing scattered about on the ground, but he denies all knowledge of the crime.

The backs of his hands were torn as though a woman's finger nails had gouged them as she sought to fight him off, but he told police the wounds were sustained when he fell from a tree.

He was taken into custody here late yesterday afternoon on information furnished by Lake County authorities, and for eight hours was subjected to a third-degree grilling at police headquarters, but no confession was wrung from him.

Just before the murder charge was placed against him he was confronted with a photograph of his wife, Mrs. Hazel Burns, twenty-nine, taken as she lay in the Morgue at Painesville, her face crushed and torn, her nose fractured and her right eye marked by a bullet hole.

The prisoner shaded his hands over his eyes, shrank back in his chair and cried out:

"I wish I knew where she is now."

Burns admitted his third wife, the victim of the murder, had aroused him of paying attention to other women, police declare, and he confessed their marital life had been turbulent for the last few months.

GIRLS IN PAJAMAS MENACE FOOTBALL

Players Rebel at Punishment of Daring Paraders

Huntingdon, W. Va., Oct. 26.—By A. P.—Fifty co-ed students at Marshall College here staged a pajama parade in their sorority houses Tuesday night.

College officials decided, yesterday afternoon that, as punishment, the girls would be prohibited from attending the Marshall-West Virginia Wesleyan football game here Saturday.

The girls were found in the sorority houses last night and locked in their quarters. The doors were chained by the authorities to prevent escapes.

"No girls—no game," was the slogan of some of the players.

GIRL FOLLOWS JUVENILE SWEETHEART IN DEATH

Inseparable Friends Die Within Week of Each Other

Battle Creek, Mich., Oct. 26.—By A. P.—A shovel blocked from the grave of a boy friend, inconsolable grief at his death and a note in which she said she was "off on a party," to here today are possibly laying at rest on the sudden death of Gertrude Nason, fourteen years old.

Her death, physicians from neurasthenia. Her friend, Myrl McClure, died a week ago from a similar cause.

Myrl and Gertrude were classmates in high school. Their friendship had extended since several months. Next week they were to have attended together the annual sophomore Hallowe'en party.

Parents of both the students today said they decided the exclusion of a part and blamed the death largely to accidental pain following the extraction of their daughters' tonsils. Coroner Carl Gregg, however, continued his investigation.

Washington, Oct. 26.—By A. P.—W. P. G. Harding, former governor of the Federal Reserve Board, will spend next week in Cuba to survey the financial situation with a view to assisting in the installation of a bank somewhat similar to the American Federal Reserve.

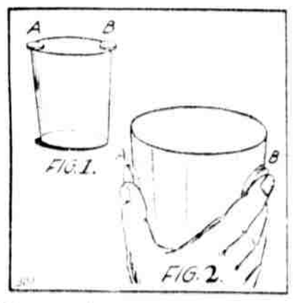
WALES GETS MASON CHAIR

Britain's Heir Is Made Senior Grand Warden

London, Oct. 26. The Prince of Wales became an honorary member of Masons yesterday in the presence of 9000 of his fellow-members. He assumed the office of Senior Grand Warden.

Few events in British Masonry have created such interest. It is said that there were 11,000 applications for admission received since Albert Hall can accommodate.

After-Dinner Tricks



No. 302—The Pennies and the Glass

Two pennies are balanced on the edge of a glass, opposite each other (Fig. 1). The performer states that he can remove both coins at once, with one hand only, in fact, with only the thumb and forefinger of his right hand.

To do the trick, place the thumb on top of coin "A" and the forefinger on coin "B." Press on the outer edges of the coins and slide them down the sides of the tumbler (Fig. 2). Then draw the thumb and forefinger slowly together, pressing them against the glass all the time. When they have come together, the coins can easily be removed by the thumb and forefinger. The left hand can be used to steady the glass during the operation.
