Oscar Rosier's estate, valued at $25,000, principally life insurance, which he in his dying moments bequenthed to his brother Arthur Rosier, and his son "Junior," is tied up in the Delaware County Court pending the outcome of Mrs. Rosier's trial. A contest has been filed on behalf of Richard Rosier, the one-year-old son, for a share of the estate. In event Mrs. Rosier is acquitted of both bills charging her with the murder of her husband and Mildred G. Reckitt, she may also sue for a widow's share. If convicted of slaying her husband, Mrs. Rosier cannot under the law share in the estate.
