

JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Nancy Wynne Speaks of the Costumes Seen at Mr. and Mrs. Glasgow's Dance—She Tells of Other Halloween Parties and of a Bazaar

LAST night there were any number of Halloween parties, and every one had a wonderful time.

The most important and largest was the one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glasgow at their country place at Flourtown, which is just between Fort Washington and Chestnut Hill.

The party was for Bunny Gray, one of the most popular of all the debs, and it was lots of fun. The Glasgows have an attractive inside with all sorts of autumn foliage and flowers, and filled with a crowd of fancy costumes.

There were lots of parties for the young set last night, too. Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin West Fraser gave one for their daughter, Anne, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Hutchinson entertained for Nathalie, Mr. John Barnes entertained for Catherine, and for the very small people Mrs. Flo Hivins gave a party in the afternoon in honor of her daughter, Marion.

The one which Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wright Crawford had planned for their small son had to be called off with Mr. Andrew Jr. was taken down with the measles.

Can you realize that today is the 1st of November? The autumn seems to have flown by, and with renewed vigor. This afternoon Alice Marston will make her debut and this evening Mrs. Edward Ephraim Hall will give a dance at the Merion Golf Club to introduce her daughter, Mary Virginia.

There will be several dinners before the dance. Mr. and Mrs. Marston will give one for their daughter, Alice, and Mrs. Joseph Schenck will give a dinner at the Merion Golf Club for Mary.

Tonight, too, there will be a dance at Jenkintown. Mr. Clement Buckley Newbold will give one for his younger daughter, Anna, at the Belle Harbor house, his country place out there. Anna made her debut last winter, and I imagine the crowd at her dance will be slightly larger than at the Belle Harbor party.

I've been hearing a great deal about a bazaar and dance which is to be held in the ballroom of the Ritz this Saturday. Mrs. Thomas Potter is in charge of the affair which is being given by the Philadelphia Branch of the Southern Industrial Educational Association.

There will be some interesting tables, including one for the sale of dolls and collection of bridal dolls. There will also be a fashion show, several musical numbers and an exhibition dancing, and in the evening a bazaar.

NANCY WYNNE. Mr. and Mrs. John White Geary, of Chestnut Hill, will give a dinner-dance at the Rabbit on Tuesday evening, December 12, in honor of Miss Evelyn Martin, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Neidhard Martin, of Chestnut Hill. The guests will be the guests of honor at a dinner-dance at the Ritz-Carlton which her uncle and Mrs. George Crozer, of Philadelphia, will give on Wednesday evening, December 27. Mrs. William Wallace Crozer, of Philadelphia, will give a theatre party for her niece, Mrs. Martin, on Wednesday evening, January 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Dale, of 1215 Spruce street, will entertain at the Bellevue-Stratford on Tuesday evening, December 12, in honor of Miss Florence Crozer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Crozer, of Philadelphia. The guests will be Mr. and Mrs. William Wallace Crozer, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Mary Virginia Crozer, of Philadelphia. The guests will be Mr. and Mrs. William Wallace Crozer, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Mary Virginia Crozer, of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Simpson, of Lynbrook, overbook, have issued invitations for a dinner at the Bellevue-Stratford, to be given by the guests of Mrs. Anna Mose, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mose, of Philadelphia. The guests will be Mr. and Mrs. William Wallace Crozer, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Mary Virginia Crozer, of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Drayton, of the Wellington, will shortly give invitations for a dinner to be given on Friday evening, November 10, in honor of Mrs. Margaret J. Boyle, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Drayton, of Philadelphia. The guests will be Mr. and Mrs. William Wallace Crozer, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Mary Virginia Crozer, of Philadelphia.
