16 th Century Adventure in 20 th Century Comfort

When Drake sailed Round-the-World toward the close of the 16th century he had to rely on sails and favorable winds and his compasses were doubtful. With scanty provisions and inadequate maps his anxieties and privations were indescribable, but his reward was adventure, romance and an experience to be looked back upon with pride. That was a sixteenth century cruise. Today, over three centuries later, comes your World voyage, full of the old-time adventure and romance. You are assured on the "Resolute" and "Volendam" -the great Cruise ships of 1923-of comfort, interest and an experience that it will always be a pleasure to look back upon

Raymond-Whitcomb are travel experts. They are the Oldest American Travel Company and appreciate the way Americans like to travel

Imagine then, the undeniable satisfaction of waking up in a sumptuous stateroom, surrounded by your own things and the comforts of home, and from your window you see not snow and slush, but the clear sun-light of the East sparkling upon an azure harbor alive with junks and sampans and full-sailed dhows

Cruising Round-the-World

A real event in the life of every American traveler of discrimination, the Raymond-Whitcomb Cruises Round-the-World are typical of the "Best in Travel". "16th Century adventure in 20th Century Comfort" is no longer a vision, because the "Resolute" and the "Volendam"—sailing Jan. 9 and lo respectively—enable you to spend two weeks in Japan and three in India. Moreover in going Westbound you visit the various countries at the most enjoyable time, and arrive in Europe just as the flowers and trees are bursting into their sammer glery

Mediterranean Cruise S.S. "Rotterdam", Feb. 10

Planned with the same thorough knowledge that characterizes all Raymond-Whitcomb arrangements this Cruise is an exceptional opportunity to visit the wonderlands of history under ideal conditions—the "Best in Travel" The exclusive features include the Azores, Lisbon, Malaga, Corsics, besides very interesting shore excursions in Portugal, Spain, the Holy Land and Egypt

This Raymond-Whitcomb Cruise has the distinction of being a unique enterprise. In 45 days you can visit the Centennial Exposition at Rio de Janeiro and make a Cruise of the enchanting Caribbean. On an ideal Cruise-ship you can visit Cuba, Panama, Venezuela, Brazil, Barbados, Martinique, Porto Rico, St. For Booklet of
