Select the Proper Tax Exempt Securities

For men of the same financial position living in different sections of the United States the net returns from investments vary considerably in accordance with the laws of the various states.

For example, the net return from certain securities for a resident of Ohio may be considerably less than the net return from the same securities for a man living in New Jersey.

Tax laws complicate the problem of investment to such an extent that it would seem advisable for investors to avail themselves of the services of reliable investment bankers.

We shall be glad to submit definite recommendations to meet individual requirements.

CURB SHARES MOVE IN NARROW LIMITS

Market Generally Irregular and Comparatively Quiet—Gilt-llette Razor Off

New York, Nov. 1.—The Curb market was irregular after the opening with trading comparatively quiet. Interest was largely centered in some of the Standard Oil issues, especially Standard Oil of Indiana, which developed fair activity, moving at a range of 3½. Other subsidiaries were comparatively quiet within narrow limits. Gillette Safety Razor sold ex-dividends and yielded about 2 per cent. National Biscuit Company, having rallied a point, R. H. Macy was up 1½. Atlantic Locomotive continued heavy, yielding to a new low at 71½.
