

A social organization of "gentlemen farmers" of wealth.

Mr. Cuyler's death recalls public attention that followed the famous "multi-millionaire" who was killed by him in 1912 to a group of international known financiers.

Mr. Cuyler was born in this city on September 28, 1854. He was a son of the late Theodore Cuyler, general counsel of the Pennsylvania Railroad until the time of his death on April 2, 1870.

Mr. Cuyler received his preliminary education in Philadelphia; was graduated from Yale University in 1874, and was admitted to the bar in his native city in 1876.

Mr. Cuyler was a member of the Second Presbyterian Church, and for many years had taken an active part in its affairs.

Mr. Cuyler was a director of many corporations. Among them are the Commercial Trust Company, the First Trust Company, the Philadelphia Saving Fund Society, Guaranty Company of North America, Pennsylvania Railroad Company, etc.

Mr. Cuyler was chairman of the Railway Executive Association and took a prominent part in strikes. He was often called on over work, but he invariably replied that it kept him fit.

For some years he has been among the foremost of those who have studied and dealt with railroad problems in a constructive way.

Mr. Cuyler was a member of the Young Men's Christian Association and a member of the Biltmore, Philadelphia, Racquet, Country and other clubs of Philadelphia.

Mr. Cuyler was a director of many corporations. Among them are the Commercial Trust Company, the First Trust Company, the Philadelphia Saving Fund Society, Guaranty Company of North America, Pennsylvania Railroad Company, etc.

Mr. Cuyler was a member of the Young Men's Christian Association and a member of the Biltmore, Philadelphia, Racquet, Country and other clubs of Philadelphia.

NOTED FINANCIER AT HIS DESK

Mr. Cuyler was chairman of the Railway Executive Association and took a prominent part in strikes.

For some years he has been among the foremost of those who have studied and dealt with railroad problems in a constructive way.

Mr. Cuyler was a member of the Young Men's Christian Association and a member of the Biltmore, Philadelphia, Racquet, Country and other clubs of Philadelphia.

Mr. Cuyler was a director of many corporations. Among them are the Commercial Trust Company, the First Trust Company, the Philadelphia Saving Fund Society, Guaranty Company of North America, Pennsylvania Railroad Company, etc.

Mr. Cuyler was a member of the Young Men's Christian Association and a member of the Biltmore, Philadelphia, Racquet, Country and other clubs of Philadelphia.

Mr. Cuyler was a director of many corporations. Among them are the Commercial Trust Company, the First Trust Company, the Philadelphia Saving Fund Society, Guaranty Company of North America, Pennsylvania Railroad Company, etc.

Mr. Cuyler was a member of the Young Men's Christian Association and a member of the Biltmore, Philadelphia, Racquet, Country and other clubs of Philadelphia.

Mr. Cuyler was a director of many corporations. Among them are the Commercial Trust Company, the First Trust Company, the Philadelphia Saving Fund Society, Guaranty Company of North America, Pennsylvania Railroad Company, etc.

Mr. Cuyler was a member of the Young Men's Christian Association and a member of the Biltmore, Philadelphia, Racquet, Country and other clubs of Philadelphia.

Mr. Cuyler was a director of many corporations. Among them are the Commercial Trust Company, the First Trust Company, the Philadelphia Saving Fund Society, Guaranty Company of North America, Pennsylvania Railroad Company, etc.

Mr. Cuyler was a member of the Young Men's Christian Association and a member of the Biltmore, Philadelphia, Racquet, Country and other clubs of Philadelphia.

Mr. Cuyler was a director of many corporations. Among them are the Commercial Trust Company, the First Trust Company, the Philadelphia Saving Fund Society, Guaranty Company of North America, Pennsylvania Railroad Company, etc.

Mr. Cuyler was a member of the Young Men's Christian Association and a member of the Biltmore, Philadelphia, Racquet, Country and other clubs of Philadelphia.

Mr. Cuyler was a director of many corporations. Among them are the Commercial Trust Company, the First Trust Company, the Philadelphia Saving Fund Society, Guaranty Company of North America, Pennsylvania Railroad Company, etc.

Mr. Cuyler was a member of the Young Men's Christian Association and a member of the Biltmore, Philadelphia, Racquet, Country and other clubs of Philadelphia.

Mr. Cuyler was a director of many corporations. Among them are the Commercial Trust Company, the First Trust Company, the Philadelphia Saving Fund Society, Guaranty Company of North America, Pennsylvania Railroad Company, etc.

Mr. Cuyler was a member of the Young Men's Christian Association and a member of the Biltmore, Philadelphia, Racquet, Country and other clubs of Philadelphia.

Mr. Cuyler was a director of many corporations. Among them are the Commercial Trust Company, the First Trust Company, the Philadelphia Saving Fund Society, Guaranty Company of North America, Pennsylvania Railroad Company, etc.

Mr. Cuyler was a member of the Young Men's Christian Association and a member of the Biltmore, Philadelphia, Racquet, Country and other clubs of Philadelphia.

Mr. Cuyler was a director of many corporations. Among them are the Commercial Trust Company, the First Trust Company, the Philadelphia Saving Fund Society, Guaranty Company of North America, Pennsylvania Railroad Company, etc.

Mr. Cuyler was a member of the Young Men's Christian Association and a member of the Biltmore, Philadelphia, Racquet, Country and other clubs of Philadelphia.

U. S. SOLDIER DEAD WELL CARED FOR

Church Council Finds Cemeteries in France Are in Excellent Condition

Graves Being Beautified

McSPARRAN BOOM SLIGHT

Washington, Nov. 2.—In striking contrast to the criticism of American cemeteries in France, the report of the members of a special committee of the Federal Council of Churches to visit the various burial places of American soldiers in France expresses the warmest commendation of the work of these churches.

The committee, which make an annual visit to the cemeteries in France, found that the cemeteries were in excellent condition and that the graves were being beautified.

The committee consists of the Rev. Dr. Charles E. Johnson, of New York; the Rev. Charles W. Goodrich, of New York; and the Rev. Dr. Charles S. Macfarland, of New York, general secretary of the Council.

Graves Are Well Cared For

The committee, which make an annual visit to the cemeteries in France, found that the cemeteries were in excellent condition and that the graves were being beautified.

The committee consists of the Rev. Dr. Charles E. Johnson, of New York; the Rev. Charles W. Goodrich, of New York; and the Rev. Dr. Charles S. Macfarland, of New York, general secretary of the Council.

Graves Are Well Cared For

The committee, which make an annual visit to the cemeteries in France, found that the cemeteries were in excellent condition and that the graves were being beautified.

The committee consists of the Rev. Dr. Charles E. Johnson, of New York; the Rev. Charles W. Goodrich, of New York; and the Rev. Dr. Charles S. Macfarland, of New York, general secretary of the Council.

Graves Are Well Cared For

The committee, which make an annual visit to the cemeteries in France, found that the cemeteries were in excellent condition and that the graves were being beautified.

The committee consists of the Rev. Dr. Charles E. Johnson, of New York; the Rev. Charles W. Goodrich, of New York; and the Rev. Dr. Charles S. Macfarland, of New York, general secretary of the Council.

Graves Are Well Cared For

The committee, which make an annual visit to the cemeteries in France, found that the cemeteries were in excellent condition and that the graves were being beautified.

The committee consists of the Rev. Dr. Charles E. Johnson, of New York; the Rev. Charles W. Goodrich, of New York; and the Rev. Dr. Charles S. Macfarland, of New York, general secretary of the Council.

Graves Are Well Cared For

The committee, which make an annual visit to the cemeteries in France, found that the cemeteries were in excellent condition and that the graves were being beautified.

WOMAN MAY BREAK REPUBLICAN SLATE

Mrs. Dornblazer Is Getting Independent Support in Delaware County

Leaders Pledge Full Support to Pinchot

Continued from Page One

for the Organization, except aside all thought of old-time deals when he turned to Pinchot and said most clearly and emphatically:

Incidentally, Hall praised Pinchot for his statement that he did not think much of the town and its handful of Americans who consider the moment when they grasp the President's hand and hear his voice of greeting the climax of their visit; however, and then perhaps a few hours of golf over the course of a nearby country club.

Because Mrs. Harding still is confined to her bed, although recovering from her recent illness, there will not even be a birthday dinner party, but the President will spend the evening with her.

The President, who celebrated his fifty-seventh anniversary of his birth almost as quietly and simply as the average American citizen observes a birthday, there were no invitations to the White House of anything more than just an ordinary day in the life of the Chief Executive of the land.

The President's plans called for his arrival in the town at the regular time, the usual forenoon round of conferences, the customary noonday period devoted to meeting visitors in the early afternoon, and then a number of Americans who consider the moment when they grasp the President's hand and hear his voice of greeting the climax of their visit; however, and then perhaps a few hours of golf over the course of a nearby country club.

Because Mrs. Harding still is confined to her bed, although recovering from her recent illness, there will not even be a birthday dinner party, but the President will spend the evening with her.

The President, who celebrated his fifty-seventh anniversary of his birth almost as quietly and simply as the average American citizen observes a birthday, there were no invitations to the White House of anything more than just an ordinary day in the life of the Chief Executive of the land.

The President's plans called for his arrival in the town at the regular time, the usual forenoon round of conferences, the customary noonday period devoted to meeting visitors in the early afternoon, and then a number of Americans who consider the moment when they grasp the President's hand and hear his voice of greeting the climax of their visit; however, and then perhaps a few hours of golf over the course of a nearby country club.

Because Mrs. Harding still is confined to her bed, although recovering from her recent illness, there will not even be a birthday dinner party, but the President will spend the evening with her.

The President, who celebrated his fifty-seventh anniversary of his birth almost as quietly and simply as the average American citizen observes a birthday, there were no invitations to the White House of anything more than just an ordinary day in the life of the Chief Executive of the land.

The President's plans called for his arrival in the town at the regular time, the usual forenoon round of conferences, the customary noonday period devoted to meeting visitors in the early afternoon, and then a number of Americans who consider the moment when they grasp the President's hand and hear his voice of greeting the climax of their visit; however, and then perhaps a few hours of golf over the course of a nearby country club.

Because Mrs. Harding still is confined to her bed, although recovering from her recent illness, there will not even be a birthday dinner party, but the President will spend the evening with her.

The President, who celebrated his fifty-seventh anniversary of his birth almost as quietly and simply as the average American citizen observes a birthday, there were no invitations to the White House of anything more than just an ordinary day in the life of the Chief Executive of the land.

The President's plans called for his arrival in the town at the regular time, the usual forenoon round of conferences, the customary noonday period devoted to meeting visitors in the early afternoon, and then a number of Americans who consider the moment when they grasp the President's hand and hear his voice of greeting the climax of their visit; however, and then perhaps a few hours of golf over the course of a nearby country club.

Because Mrs. Harding still is confined to her bed, although recovering from her recent illness, there will not even be a birthday dinner party, but the President will spend the evening with her.

The President, who celebrated his fifty-seventh anniversary of his birth almost as quietly and simply as the average American citizen observes a birthday, there were no invitations to the White House of anything more than just an ordinary day in the life of the Chief Executive of the land.

The President's plans called for his arrival in the town at the regular time, the usual forenoon round of conferences, the customary noonday period devoted to meeting visitors in the early afternoon, and then a number of Americans who consider the moment when they grasp the President's hand and hear his voice of greeting the climax of their visit; however, and then perhaps a few hours of golf over the course of a nearby country club.

EDGE PLANS $500,000 VILLA

Senator Will Build Love Nest for Bride at Shore

Atlantic City, Nov. 2.—Senator Walter E. Edge, who is to marry Miss Camille Sewall, of New England, in February, will bring his bride to the shore, according to plans announced yesterday.

Senator Edge has purchased an entire block of beach-front in the central section of Ventnor City, adjacent to this resort, and will construct a villa costing $500,000 for his bride. Plans for the structure are now in the hands of architects and work is to be rushed in having the home completed by spring.

Incidentally, Hall praised Pinchot for his statement that he did not think much of the town and its handful of Americans who consider the moment when they grasp the President's hand and hear his voice of greeting the climax of their visit; however, and then perhaps a few hours of golf over the course of a nearby country club.

Because Mrs. Harding still is confined to her bed, although recovering from her recent illness, there will not even be a birthday dinner party, but the President will spend the evening with her.

The President, who celebrated his fifty-seventh anniversary of his birth almost as quietly and simply as the average American citizen observes a birthday, there were no invitations to the White House of anything more than just an ordinary day in the life of the Chief Executive of the land.

The President's plans called for his arrival in the town at the regular time, the usual forenoon round of conferences, the customary noonday period devoted to meeting visitors in the early afternoon, and then a number of Americans who consider the moment when they grasp the President's hand and hear his voice of greeting the climax of their visit; however, and then perhaps a few hours of golf over the course of a nearby country club.

Because Mrs. Harding still is confined to her bed, although recovering from her recent illness, there will not even be a birthday dinner party, but the President will spend the evening with her.

The President, who celebrated his fifty-seventh anniversary of his birth almost as quietly and simply as the average American citizen observes a birthday, there were no invitations to the White House of anything more than just an ordinary day in the life of the Chief Executive of the land.

The President's plans called for his arrival in the town at the regular time, the usual forenoon round of conferences, the customary noonday period devoted to meeting visitors in the early afternoon, and then a number of Americans who consider the moment when they grasp the President's hand and hear his voice of greeting the climax of their visit; however, and then perhaps a few hours of golf over the course of a nearby country club.

Because Mrs. Harding still is confined to her bed, although recovering from her recent illness, there will not even be a birthday dinner party, but the President will spend the evening with her.

The President, who celebrated his fifty-seventh anniversary of his birth almost as quietly and simply as the average American citizen observes a birthday, there were no invitations to the White House of anything more than just an ordinary day in the life of the Chief Executive of the land.

The President's plans called for his arrival in the town at the regular time, the usual forenoon round of conferences, the customary noonday period devoted to meeting visitors in the early afternoon, and then a number of Americans who consider the moment when they grasp the President's hand and hear his voice of greeting the climax of their visit; however, and then perhaps a few hours of golf over the course of a nearby country club.

Because Mrs. Harding still is confined to her bed, although recovering from her recent illness, there will not even be a birthday dinner party, but the President will spend the evening with her.

The President, who celebrated his fifty-seventh anniversary of his birth almost as quietly and simply as the average American citizen observes a birthday, there were no invitations to the White House of anything more than just an ordinary day in the life of the Chief Executive of the land.

The President's plans called for his arrival in the town at the regular time, the usual forenoon round of conferences, the customary noonday period devoted to meeting visitors in the early afternoon, and then a number of Americans who consider the moment when they grasp the President's hand and hear his voice of greeting the climax of their visit; however, and then perhaps a few hours of golf over the course of a nearby country club.

Because Mrs. Harding still is confined to her bed, although recovering from her recent illness, there will not even be a birthday dinner party, but the President will spend the evening with her.

The President, who celebrated his fifty-seventh anniversary of his birth almost as quietly and simply as the average American citizen observes a birthday, there were no invitations to the White House of anything more than just an ordinary day in the life of the Chief Executive of the land.

The President's plans called for his arrival in the town at the regular time, the usual forenoon round of conferences, the customary noonday period devoted to meeting visitors in the early afternoon, and then a number of Americans who consider the moment when they grasp the President's hand and hear his voice of greeting the climax of their visit; however, and then perhaps a few hours of golf over the course of a nearby country club.

Because Mrs. Harding still is confined to her bed, although recovering from her recent illness, there will not even be a birthday dinner party, but the President will spend the evening with her.

HARDING, 57 YEARS OLD, HAS QUIET DAY

Birth Anniversary to Be Observed With Usual Official Routine

To Play Round of Golf

Washington, Nov. 2.—President Harding today celebrated the fifty-seventh anniversary of his birth almost as quietly and simply as the average American citizen observes a birthday.

There were no invitations to the White House of anything more than just an ordinary day in the life of the Chief Executive of the land.

The President's plans called for his arrival in the town at the regular time, the usual forenoon round of conferences, the customary noonday period devoted to meeting visitors in the early afternoon, and then a number of Americans who consider the moment when they grasp the President's hand and hear his voice of greeting the climax of their visit; however, and then perhaps a few hours of golf over the course of a nearby country club.

Because Mrs. Harding still is confined to her bed, although recovering from her recent illness, there will not even be a birthday dinner party, but the President will spend the evening with her.

The President, who celebrated his fifty-seventh anniversary of his birth almost as quietly and simply as the average American citizen observes a birthday, there were no invitations to the White House of anything more than just an ordinary day in the life of the Chief Executive of the land.

The President's plans called for his arrival in the town at the regular time, the usual forenoon round of conferences, the customary noonday period devoted to meeting visitors in the early afternoon, and then a number of Americans who consider the moment when they grasp the President's hand and hear his voice of greeting the climax of their visit; however, and then perhaps a few hours of golf over the course of a nearby country club.

Because Mrs. Harding still is confined to her bed, although recovering from her recent illness, there will not even be a birthday dinner party, but the President will spend the evening with her.

The President, who celebrated his fifty-seventh anniversary of his birth almost as quietly and simply as the average American citizen observes a birthday, there were no invitations to the White House of anything more than just an ordinary day in the life of the Chief Executive of the land.

The President's plans called for his arrival in the town at the regular time, the usual forenoon round of conferences, the customary noonday period devoted to meeting visitors in the early afternoon, and then a number of Americans who consider the moment when they grasp the President's hand and hear his voice of greeting the climax of their visit; however, and then perhaps a few hours of golf over the course of a nearby country club.

Because Mrs. Harding still is confined to her bed, although recovering from her recent illness, there will not even be a birthday dinner party, but the President will spend the evening with her.

The President, who celebrated his fifty-seventh anniversary of his birth almost as quietly and simply as the average American citizen observes a birthday, there were no invitations to the White House of anything more than just an ordinary day in the life of the Chief Executive of the land.

The President's plans called for his arrival in the town at the regular time, the usual forenoon round of conferences, the customary noonday period devoted to meeting visitors in the early afternoon, and then a number of Americans who consider the moment when they grasp the President's hand and hear his voice of greeting the climax of their visit; however, and then perhaps a few hours of golf over the course of a nearby country club.

Because Mrs. Harding still is confined to her bed, although recovering from her recent illness, there will not even be a birthday dinner party, but the President will spend the evening with her.

The President, who celebrated his fifty-seventh anniversary of his birth almost as quietly and simply as the average American citizen observes a birthday, there were no invitations to the White House of anything more than just an ordinary day in the life of the Chief Executive of the land.

The President's plans called for his arrival in the town at the regular time, the usual forenoon round of conferences, the customary noonday period devoted to meeting visitors in the early afternoon, and then a number of Americans who consider the moment when they grasp the President's hand and hear his voice of greeting the climax of their visit; however, and then perhaps a few hours of golf over the course of a nearby country club.

Because Mrs. Harding still is confined to her bed, although recovering from her recent illness, there will not even be a birthday dinner party, but the President will spend the evening with her.

The President, who celebrated his fifty-seventh anniversary of his birth almost as quietly and simply as the average American citizen observes a birthday, there were no invitations to the White House of anything more than just an ordinary day in the life of the Chief Executive of the land.

The President's plans called for his arrival in the town at the regular time, the usual forenoon round of conferences, the customary noonday period devoted to meeting visitors in the early afternoon, and then a number of Americans who consider the moment when they grasp the President's hand and hear his voice of greeting the climax of their visit; however, and then perhaps a few hours of golf over the course of a nearby country club.

Always welcome

Whether it is a turkey dinner or an every day dinner, there is always room for a luscious portion of Heinz Fig Pudding.

Delicious, light, wholesome and easy to digest, it is always good—and always good for you.

Most people prefer it served with the special sauce, recipe for which is on the can.

HEINZ FIG PUDDING

Carpenier celebrated their golden wedding, the second ceremony being performed by the late Monsignor William Kieran, D. D., for many years rector of St. Patrick's Church, Twentieth and Rittenhouse streets.

Mrs. Carpenier is survived by seven children: Samuel Hope Carpenier, Joseph R. Carpenier, Jr., Charles Thomas Carpenier, Miss Helen Carpenier, Miss Virginia A. Carpenier, Miss Anna D. Carpenier, a religious of the Sacred Heart order, and Mrs. Clyde Hambricht. A surviving sister of Mrs. Carpenier is Mrs. Edward G. Trase, of Havertown.

Isaac E. Goodman

The funeral of Isaac E. Goodman, who died Tuesday in his home, 2140 North Grant street, will be held tomorrow at 10 o'clock. Interment will be in the Adath Jeshurun Cemetery, Mr. Goodman, who was sixty-two years old, died after a lingering illness. He was a member of a prominent New Haven family, and spent his early years in New Haven. For the last five years he was a general insurance broker, with offices at 522 Walnut street. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Fannie W. Goodman, and three children: Lester Bloch, Miss Tracy W. Goodman and Allan Goodman.

William J. Goeckel

William J. Goeckel, a prominent Wilkes-Barre attorney and author of "The Red and the Blue" famous University of Pennsylvania song, died yesterday in the Lamunke Hospital from pneumonia.

Mr. Goeckel wrote "The Red and the Blue" while he was a student at the University in the early nineties. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Fannie W. Goodman, and three children: Lester Bloch, Miss Tracy W. Goodman and Allan Goodman.

Anna A. Kelly

Miss Anna A. Kelly, sister of the Rev. Lawrence J. Kelly, head of the Jesuit Catholic Order in the Maryland-New York division, died yesterday in the Pines Hospital. Miss Kelly was married on last week and was apparently improving all yesterday. For many years she was active in the affairs of St. Veronica's Church.

Chodoff

1517 Walnut St. Exceptional Values A Group of the Latest Fall DRESSES Repriced $49.50 Values to $100

An assemblage of Velvets, Cantons, Chiffons and Cloths reduced until their price is entirely inconsistent with their quality.

Diamonds

The foremost consideration is QUALITY—comprising freedom from imperfections or fissures, pure white color, exact cutting, correct proportion, maximum brilliance—all of which are essential and characteristic of every stone—large or small—in the collection of

JEWELRY SILVER WATCHES STATIONERY

J. E. CALDWELL & Co. CHESTNUT STREET BELOW BROAD