

RICHARD GOT HIS MOTHER BACK. Mrs. Catherine Rosier, acquitted of the murder of "Jerry" Reckitt and Oscar Rosier, is shown with Richard and her mother, Mrs. Sue Reid

BROUGHT IN A VERDICT OF "NOT GUILTY." This is the jury that freed Mrs. Catherine Rosier yesterday, after a secret ballot had been taken. Though their decision to free Mrs. Rosier of the murder charge had been expected, the delivery of the verdict by the foreman was the signal for an unusual demonstration, which continued for several minutes, despite all efforts of court officers to restore quiet

GOING HOME. Mrs. Catherine Rosier and her escort, photographed on the street as they left City Hall following the woman's acquittal

FRANKFORD'S SENSATIONAL RALLY TIES WEST PHILA. HIGH. A group of enthusiastic Frankford rooters is shown on the left, wildly cheering in the third period, when Frankford High School tied the score, 7 to 7. On the right is pictured a scrimmage at a tense moment in the contest. The game ended with the ball in Frankford's possession on the Speedboys' 40-yard line

MISS "SAFETY FIRST" AND SOME OF HER SCHOOL-BOY AIDES took a ride on the new P. R. T. bus yesterday. Miss Laura Roadifer is Miss "Safety First"

SPECULATION IS RIFE over reported transfer of Major John Jacob Astor's millions to England

GIRL RIFLE TEAM SHOWS SKILL. Four fair co-eds of the University of Maryland girls' rifle team, who are said to rate as well as army rifle experts, are arranging matches with other schools

JUDGE HARRY S. McDEVITT talks of the drug laws in Editorial Page interview

MISS MARJORY EVANS AND MISS IRMA MALDONADO aided at bazaar for the benefit of the Philadelphia Auxiliary of Southern Industrial Education Society, held at Ritz-Carlton

HELPS AMUSE THE KIDDIES. Mrs. Thomas Dolan helped entertain the children yesterday at the Nurses' Home, 1349 Lombard street. She is pictured above with a group of happy youngsters clustered about her

MRS. EDITH McCLURE PATTERSON, chairman of campaign to teach thrift to women

PRESENT "OLD CURIOSITY SHOP." Miss Helene Borden, Mr. G. Brook Loughlin and Mr. James Kniveton, three of characters in play at Wakefield Chapel tonight

AT FIRST MEETING OF AMERICAN-GERMAN WAR CLAIMS COMMISSION in Washington. Dr. Wilhelm Kiesselbach, German Envoy; Justice William R. Day, umpire, and Judge Edwin B. Parker, American Commissioner

MISS MARGARET CROWLEY, secretary to United States Minister to Cairo

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA? THE ROAR OF THE ELEVATED WAS MISSING. Foot of Market street in 1889, showing the P. R. R. ferry house. Send us your old Philadelphia photographs

CHESTER TOWNSEND, 93 years of age, is the oldest living Mason

MRS. ROBERT LEON BUCHER, recent bride at Melrose, Pa. (c) Kober & Sambrade Studios

JUDGE E. H. GARY (left) receives the Louis Livingston Seaman Medal for conservation of human life

NEWLY CROWNED Queen Murie of Romania wearing peasant garb

MRS. GIFFORD PINCHOT addressed Republican women of Chester County in Coatesville yesterday, saying that the women voters are on guard, and that they should insist that those for whom they vote shall keep their campaign pledges. She is shown above at New Century Club, Coatesville