CLUBWOMEN TURN TO COMING ELECTION

Politics Absorbs Interest of Members, Who Urge All to Vote

The election on Tuesday has turned the attention of the members of the women's clubs to the question of politics and other matters of secondary importance just now.

Most of the recent club programs have been in charge of the Citizenship Committees in those clubs which have such departments, and topics of discussion and speech in the programs have included such subjects as "The November Election," and various topics about the woman voter.

Some of the clubs have taken up the slogan "The non-voter is not a good citizen," and all are urging their members to vote at the coming election.

Hathaway-Shakespeare Club
On Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the club will have a musical afternoon, with selections from Beethoven, and also a short sketch of the life of the composer by Mrs. William McCain.

Civic Club
The Reorganization Committee of the club is taking up its work and expects to hold frequent meetings soon.

Miss Laura H. Carnell has consented to act as chairman of the committee in charge of the general meetings, recently authorized to be appointed by the board.

Monday at 11 o'clock the Juniors will meet with Mrs. J. H. O'Hara, senior chairman, and Mrs. F. Hansell, Jr., junior chairman.

The first Industrial Relations meeting of the year will be held at 11 o'clock on Wednesday at the winter's activities will be made.

Woman's Club of Bala Cynwyd
The executive board meeting will be at the home of the president, Mrs. Isaac Kershaw, Friday at 9:45 o'clock.

The community choir will meet at 8 o'clock Monday evening at 315 Bala avenue, Cynwyd.

A rummage sale for the benefit of the building fund will be held by members of the club on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday at 628 Market street.

Wednesday at 3 o'clock, Mrs. Herman H. Birney, president of the Philomathean Club, will give an "Account of the God-dill Delegation to France." There will also be a glimpse of the Holy Land by Miss Laura Bell.

"The American Colony in Jerusalem," by Mrs. H. J. Kellenthaler, and "The Value of the Dollar in the Near East," by Miss Xenia C. Clappitt.

Mrs. Charles W. Nevin will be in charge of the singing, and Mrs. Elizabeth N. Askew and Mrs. Leslie Jefferson will be at the tea table.

The bridge afternoon will commence Thursday at 2:15 o'clock under the leadership of Mrs. F. H. Mills, Mrs. M. M. H. Curtis and Mrs. Leslie Jefferson.

On Armistice Day at noon there will be a short program of songs under the leadership of Mrs. Clarence L. Harper.

Woman's Club of Germantown
Monday at 2:30 a regular meeting will be held at which Mrs. H. S. Prentiss Nichols will speak on "The History of the Industrial Relations from the State Federation will be given by Mrs. Herbert C. Wise and Mrs. I. Parson Willis.

The first card party of the season will be held at the club house Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock. These parties are under the chairmanship of Mrs. D. Wendell Hubbard.

Thursday at 8:30 o'clock in the chapel of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, High street, Warwick Avenue, will give a current events lecture on "England's Obligations: Domestic and Foreign."

Saturday at 4 o'clock there will be an open meeting for members and their friends, both men and women. The program will be the speaker.

College Club
The second of the supper conferences on America's international relations will be held at the College Club on Thursday evening at 6 o'clock.

SAN SALVADOR COUNCIL TO CELEBRATE JUBILEE
Entertainment, Dinner and Dance to Be Features of Event

Conferring of a degree tomorrow afternoon, celebration of a mass tomorrow morning, an entertainment Monday night and a dinner and dance next Thursday evening are the main features of the silver jubilee of San Salvador Council, No. 283, Knights of Columbus.

The ceremonies will begin with a high mass at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow in the Church of the Gesù. Thirty-five candidates comprise the class on which will be conferred the first degree tomorrow afternoon. James A. Mallon, past grand knight, will officiate.

Talented members of the council, assisted by a bevy of pretty girls, will present a skit which will feature the entertainment in Mercantile Hall Monday night. A dance will follow the elegant revue. The climax of the jubilee will come Thursday evening with a banquet in Seashore Hotel. P. H. H. Kelley will be toastmaster. Speakers will include Mayor Moore, Supreme Knight James A. Flaherty, Judge Lewis, of the Municipal Court, the Rev. Charles Lee O'Brien and others.

Wanamaker's Down Stairs Store
Annual November Sale of Fashions
Coats, Suits, Dresses a Quarter, Third and Half Less—for Women and Girls

Added to the thousands of new garments are a number of our regular stock dresses and coats which have been freshly reduced in price. Then for Monday are a number of brand-new "specials" unpacked too late for today's selling. Extraordinarily good clothes. It's easy to see that the prices often hardly cover the cost of the materials.

They are possible in this sale because of the friendly co-operation of fifty of our regular makers with whom we have important business dealings all year 'round. They have helped to make this Annual Fashion Sale by far the best in the whole history of Wanamaker's Down Stairs Store.

Low Heels on Women's Shoes Are Here to Stay
Comfort, fashion and common sense join in heartily endorsing them, and Wanamaker's Down Stairs Shoe Store, anticipating the popular demand there would be for them this season, offers

Low-Heeled Oxfords and Pumps at $5
Comfort in every line of their well-proportioned lasts. The toes are pleasantly rounded. The heels are wide and quite low and they already have rubber top lifts attached. Shoes which a woman can put on and wear and then forget, secure in their good looks and perfect fit and comfort. Black or brown calf.

Closing Out 500 Pair Women's Shoes at $2.50
Kinds formerly two and three times as much. Pumps, oxfords, evening slippers. Tan and black leather, satin, silver and gold metal cloth. Size assortments are broken or the shoes show signs of handling, hence the extraordinary marking down. The styles are good.

The qualities are those of shoes ordinarily priced a great deal higher. The size and style assortments are both large, though not complete.
(Down Stairs Store, Chestnut)

Specially Good Satin Petticoats, $4.50
From carefully placed tape "hangers" at elastic waistband, to dainty pleated frill at hem, these satin petticoats are exactly right. The satin is smooth and lustrous and heavy. The fullness is gathered to back and sides leaving the front plain. Seams and placket are finished with nicety. Henna, jade, midnight and Copenhagen blue, taupe and American Beauty.
They are amazing at the price!
(Down Stairs Store, Central)

Colored Linens, $1 Yard
The good weight and firm "French" weave which deft fingers take joy in transforming into lovely drawn-thread towels. Attractive shades of pink, yellow, blue, tan, rose and lavender. And as they are 36 inches wide, a yard will make two towels. A charming and inexpensive gift thought!

Handkerchief Linen "Squares," 17c Each
In eighteen shades, gay or delicately pastel. Already torn "square," ready to embroider and complete.
(Down Stairs Store, Central)

Marie Antoinette Lace Panels, $3.90 to $8
Snowy white and soft ecru panels of exceptionally good heavy net, beautifully appliqued in the distinctive patterns which have made Marie Antoinette draperies so popular.

They were purchased some time ago, and their present cost at wholesale is considerably higher than their retail prices here Monday, 2½, and 2½ yards long and variously priced according to width and elaboration of pattern.

36 inch panels, $3.90 to $5.50.
42 inch panels, $4.25 to $5.
40 inch panels, $5 to $6.50.
72 inch panels, 2 yards long, $8.

Beautiful New Cretonnes 65c and 75c Yard
This Autumn's new patterns, freshly unpacked and assuredly the most attractive in many a day. Gorgeous flowers and rich tapestry effects. Light and dark grounds.
Heavy in weight, firm in weave; 36 inches wide.
(Down Stairs Store, Chestnut)

November Glove Sale
Thousands of pairs of fresh, perfect new gloves of many fashionable styles, kinds and colors, are marked a fourth to half less than prevailing standard prices.

12-Button Chamois-Lisle Gloves, 85c
A Third Less
Firm, soft fabric gloves in two-clasp style. Spear point stitched backs.

French Lambskin Gloves, $1
More Than a Third Less

Fine imported kidskin gloves, overseas sewn, in two-clasp style.
(Down Stairs Store, Central)

Silky New Fox Scarfs Unexpectedly Low at $30 to $50
Fox animal scarfs of silky, long-furred pelts. Unusually soft and lustrous; undeniably flattering to the wearer. Taupe, brown and black.

Seal-Dyed Coney Coats, $80
Soft, thickly furred, exceedingly like Hudson seal in appearance. Big shawl collars. 40 inches long.

Seal-Dyed Coney Coats With Muffler Collars, $90
44-inch Seal-Dyed Capes $120
44-inch Seal-Dyed Capes with Borders $125
(Down Stairs Store, Market)

Cretonnes, 25c to $1.25 Yard
Tables piled high with new Autumn cretonnes in a perfect orgy of lovely colors. Their average width is 36 inches.

Fresh Curtain Nets 35c Yard
They make pretty and serviceable curtains and are especially nice for panels under draperies. White, cream and ecru in well-chosen patterns.

Window Shades 65c and 85c
Two shades of green, two shades of tan, terra cotta and white. All fixtures for hanging included. 65c for water color opaque shades. 85c for oil color opaque shades. Special orders taken for odd and extra size window shades.

Wool-Mixed and All-Wool Blankets, $5 to $10 Pair
Substitute "warmth and wear" for "warp and weft" and you have a good idea of the comfort and service that are woven into these moderately-priced blankets.

$5 pair for soft silver-gray single-bed blankets with just enough wool to give them the "feel" one likes. 60x80 inches, $6 pair for 72x82-inch size.
$7 pair for fleecy white wool mixed blankets with pink or blue border. 72x82 inches.
$10 pair for delightfully warm, light all-wool blankets, either plain white or plaid. Gray, blue, pink, tan plaids on white and red on black. 70x80 inches.
(Down Stairs Store, Central)

Down Stairs Central Aisle
Real Lace Trims Collar and Cuff Sets at Half Price, 50c

Owing to a manufacturer's price concession, here are collar and cuff sets of creamy, fine mesh net trimmed with rich looking insertions of real Irish and fllet laces.
One must really try them on to see how becoming they are and how they freshen up the individual frock.

White, Cream and Ecru Marquessette Curtains
Less at $1
Fresh, clean curtains certainly do brighten up a room amazingly! These at $1 are especially priced, are made of good firm marquessette and neatly finished with wide hemstitched hems. 2½ yards long.

Upholstery Remnants, Half Price, 10c to $1 Yard
No need to tell any housewife the hundred and one uses she can make of remnants!
These in good, practical lengths are just half their ordinary prices and include cretonne, saten, silkoline, net, marquessette, madras, bur-lap, cotton and silk-and-cotton overdrapery materials.
