

NO WONDER "Forget-Me-Not" Day found many such willing purchasers, as shown above, of the little blue flowers sold in aid of wounded war veterans

THE PLODDING YOKE OF OXEN PRESENTED A STRANGE CONTRAST passing under the new elevated structure, Frankford's modern mode of transportation, during parade attending Saturday's ceremonies

SCHOOL CHILDREN DID THEIR SHARE in celebrating the dedication of the new surface speed line linking Bustleton with the P. R. T. lines

ALL BUSTLETON TURNED OUT to witness procession in honor of arrival of one-man trolley cars, heralding great development of that section in the near future

AMONG THE MANY NOTABLES attending the funeral of the late Thomas De Witt Cuyler yesterday were Governor Sproul and Edward F. Beale, pictured above

PENSIONED, Nicholas Laycock, for twenty-five years conductor of Atlantic City flier

FLORIDA HAS UNIQUE MASCOT Miss Martha Willbourn holding live alligator mascot, "Tootie"

USE SOUP AND COFFEE TO KEEP PLANE FLYING. Lieutenants John A. Macready and Oakley Kelly, army aviators, set non-stop record

RUNS IN THE FAMILY. Miss Helen Stokes, sister of Walter Stokes, world's rifle champion, is captain of Washington High School's title-winning girls' rifle team

PLAIN DOGS AND CATS HAD THEIR DAY at S. P. C. A. exhibition, Saturday. Little Genevieve Hasset is shown on the left with her entry. Miss Blanche Weiss is pictured on right with Dick, St. Bernard, whose life President Harding saved

MARRIES TODAY. Miss Katherine Kent, cousin of Countess of Donoughmore

HON. FRANCIS BURKE ROCHE tossed coin for barony and lost

A GATEWAY OF GIRLS, representing every freeholder district in Camden County, swung open to permit procedure of grayly bedecked line of automobiles, driving along the White Horse Pike at dedication ceremonies, Saturday, presenting a picturesque scene

SENATOR FRELINGHUYSEN delivering address to thousands at start of ceremonies attending White Horse Pike celebration

THE GREEK EXODUS FROM EAST THRACE. Scene showing part of the steady streams of refugees passing an old Turkish cemetery near Burgas in their hasty flight from the Turks. Recent reports say a Christians have left East Thrace

ERNST H. KRELAGE, Dutch agriculturist, now visiting in Washington

WITH CHAIN GANG AND MASCOTS REGARDLESS, Penn State's stalwart football eleven went down to defeat before the Navy eleven by a score of 14 to 0, suffering their first defeat in three years

GUARDS nation's Capitol. Capt. L. de Montfroy

BEATRIZ, Spain's Infanta, betrothed to Prince Leopold

BRINGS NEW PLANE FROM FRANCE. Miss Andree Peyre, daring French aviatrix, arrived in America with specially built plane

BIRDS OF A FEATHER flocking together around Miss Doris Isell, fair Washington admirer of nature, at Franklin Park

BARON ROMANO AVEZZANO, Ambassador to U. S.

CARL CHRISTENSSON, Swedish Olympic athlete

PHILADELPHIA'S FASHIONABLE THOROUGHFARE as it appeared in 1880. A view of Chestnut street looking west from Eighth. Contributed by R. Newell & Son, 255 S. Sixth street. Please send us your old Philadelphia photographs

LITTLE MISS JOAN REED, nine years of age, sailed recently on her third trans-Atlantic voyage, unaccompanied

TURNING WARSHIPS INTO MAIL BOXES, newest version of "swords into plowshares," adopted by Government in disposition of millions of dollars' worth of idle naval armament. Completed boxes have two slots, one for mail and one for parcels

BACH CHOIR VISITS CRADLE OF LIBERTY. Among the Bethlehem singers who visited Independence Hall are Miss Claire Wunderly, Mrs. Robert Barron and Miss Nellie Lادن, shown above. The choir gave recital in Academy Saturday