

PRESENT AND FUTURE BRITISH MONARCHS. The King and Prince of Wales take a walk

WITH THE BRITISH AT CHANAK. Passports being carefully examined at most forward British post in Near East. The Kemalists are outside and all fraternizing has ceased

STRUCTURAL WORK ON THE NEW HOTEL SYLVANIA, Thirteenth and Locust streets, is nearing completion. A short while will see another handsome hotel added to Philadelphia's list of fashionable caravansaries

SLAUGHTERING ANIMALS ON CONSTANTINOPLE'S STREETS, on occasion of first official return of Refet Pasha, general said by Turks to have won back Constantinople for them

BARON HAYSHI, recently designated Japanese delegate to approaching Near East peace conference at Lausanne

TWELVE LITTLE HORSEWOMEN SITTING IN A ROW. The Misses Frances Moses, Laure Niles, Janet Lippen, Doris Hofheimer, Meriam Levin, Meriam Hall, Dorothy Clapp, Barbara Hibbard, Aline Hofheimer, Alice Campbell and Georgia Engelhard, members of a riding class awaiting their horses

LUCKY HORSE. "Tiger 2nd," first prize winner at recent Paris horse show, with fair owner, Miss Dorothea Danson

TUNING UP the signals on the new Frankford "L" in anticipation of expected rush of traffic

RAPID PROGRESS IS BEING MADE by the workmen engaged in construction of the new Philadelphia Free Library at Nineteenth and the Parkway. The work of putting in forms for re-reinforced concrete is shown above

PRINCESS LUBOMIRSKA, wife of Poland's Minister, visits America

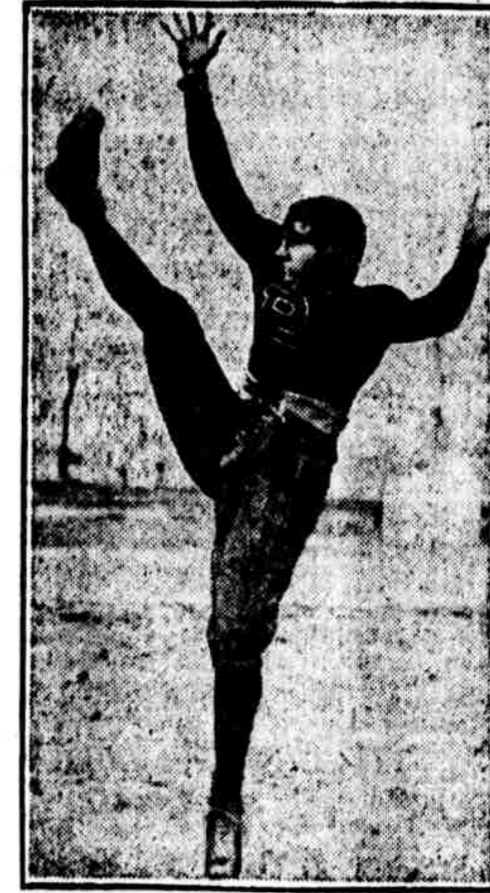

BOBBY CARTY, Wildwood A. A. of Frankford, star all-around athlete

AN EXPERT SHOT, General John J. Pershing enjoying duck hunting on the Pas a Loutra, near New Orleans

JOHN PHILIP SOUSA, noted band leader, attains sixty-eighth year

A BROWN PREP HUSKY. Morrison, one of the stars of that stalwart aggregation, kicking the ball

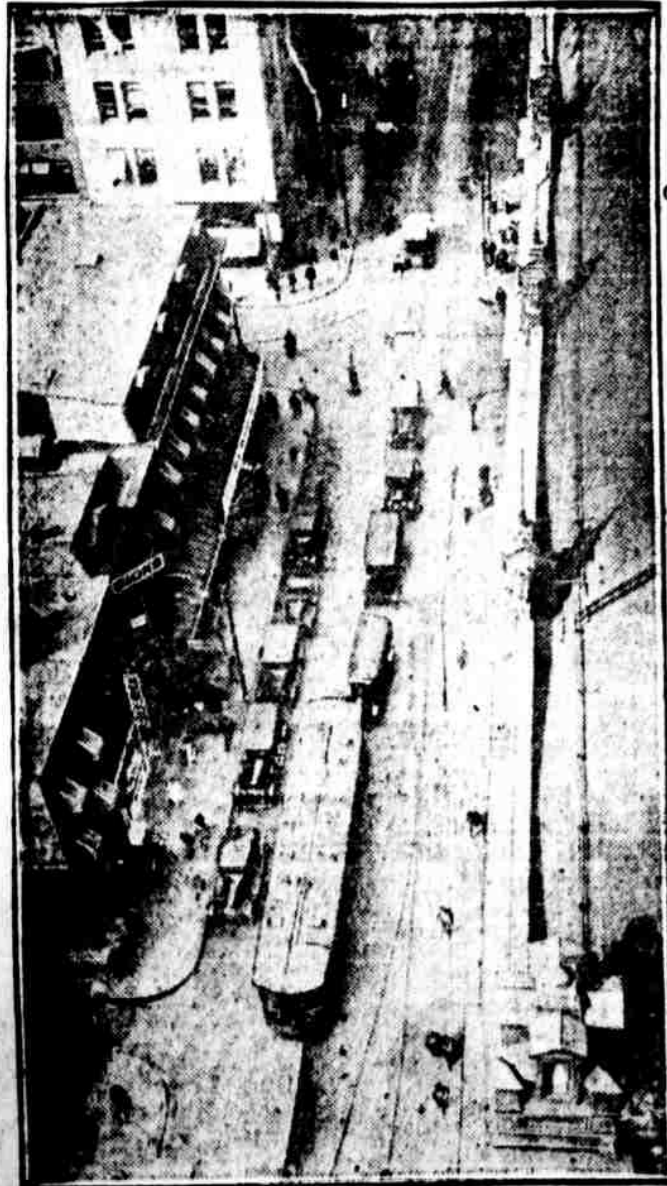

WILLIAM COX, winner of Yale Cross-Country Championship

REPORTED ENGAGED Katherine Force, sister of John J. Astor's widow

VICE-ADMIRAL Sir Osmond Brock, British Naval Com. in Near East

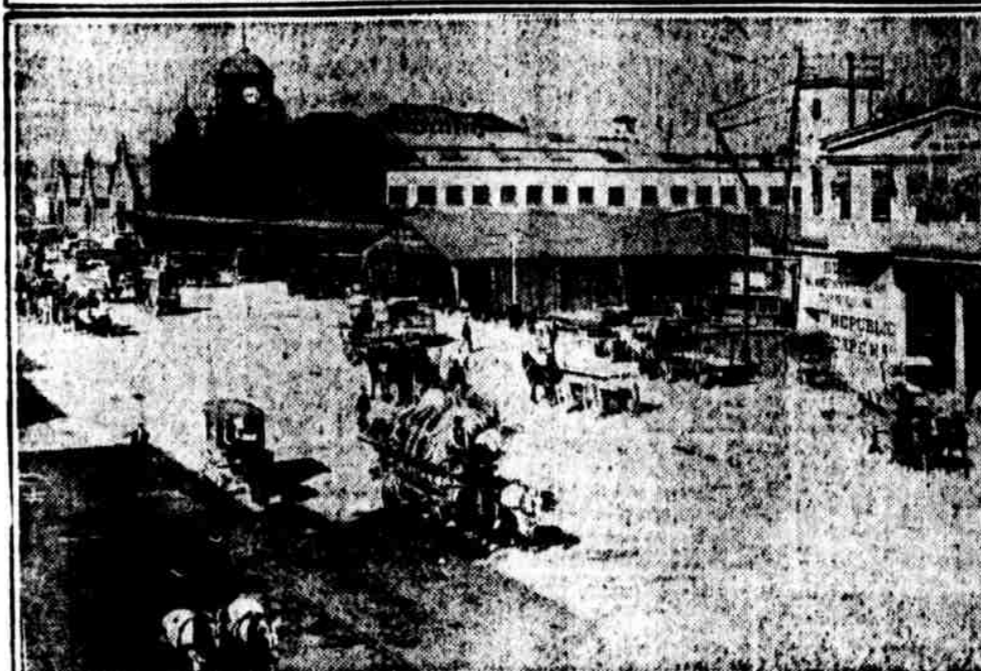

AN UNUSUAL VIEW of Twelfth street, as it looks through the eye of the camera from the Philadelphia and Reading R. R. offices, looking north

RESIGNING DIRECTOR of Geological Survey and his successor, George Otis Smith and Philip F. Smith

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

NO ELEVATED FLUNG ITS SHADOW along Delaware avenue on this sunny afternoon. Looking north on that thoroughfare from Chestnut street in 1900. Send us your old Philadelphia photographs

ANCIENT WHALER, said to be one of oldest ships in world. The "Charles W. Morgan" has sailed to ends of earth

BASKETBALL ON ROLLER SKATES, is the latest innovation of Chicago "Y" girls, expert basketball players and accomplished roller skaters, who relish the added risk, shown above, taking the toss

SAWING WOOD. A survey of the fuel wood supply near Syracuse by the New York State College of Forestry disclosed these fair University co-eds engaged in helping the fuel shortage relief. Incidentally a good form of exercise

ASK $1,800,000 APPROPRIATION FOR COMING YEAR. E. J. Lewis, Charles C. McChord and J. J. Esch of Interstate Commerce Commission visited the White House

SENOR PEDRO M. ARCA Y A, Venezuela's new Minister, arrives