DO NOT DEFEATED FOR BOTH TERMS

Bayard Has Majorities of 110 and 892 in Delaware Senate Contests

BOYCE A WINNER OF 6427

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 9.—Unofficial revision of November returns of Tuesday's vote for United States senator show these totals: Short term—Thomas F. Bayard, Dem., 36,006; Coleman du Pont, Rep., 30,796. Bayard's majority, 5,210.

The canvassing boards, composed of judges of the State courts, began the official canvass of votes at noon today.

In addition to electing Thomas F. Bayard United States Senator and Judge William H. Boyce Representative in Congress, the Democrats also elected a majority of the members of the Legislature.

The Democrats will have ten members of the Senate to seven for the Republicans in the House there will be twenty-three Democrats and twelve Republicans.

There were 6008 voters registered in this city who failed to vote. The total registration was 85,750 and the combined vote of the Democratic and Republican Parties in Wilmington yesterday was 29,742.

The Democrats elected their tickets in Kent and Sussex Counties. The New Castle County Levy Court will be Republican, the Republicans having elected Hamilton Smith, Democrat, to the Board of Supervisors in the Fourth District.

Senator Poindexter in Washington also was asking a majority while the House rejected the remaining Kansas district, the Third, was so hot that it was said an official count might be necessary to tip the scales decisively.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 9.—(By A. P.)—Revised figures on the United States senatorial race between Miles Poindexter, Republican incumbent, and C. C. Deming, Democrat, tabulated today with 200 scattered precincts missing, gave Dill a lead of 4368 votes.

Washington, Nov. 9.—(By A. P.)—Advises received today by the Republican national headquarters here from Senator Poindexter's headquarters in Washington, that he had taken a lead of 700 over his Democratic opponent, C. C. Dill, and that the districts yet to be heard from were expected to increase this total.

Columbus, O., Nov. 9.—Defeat of the boy and wife amendment in Ohio apparently certain in its complete total to the urban vote. With 715 precincts yet to be heard from, the majority against the amendment was 12,150.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 9.—(By A. P.)—Only one congressional seat in Minnesota was undecided today—that in the Eighth District, which was won by the Republican, William L. Carson, Democrat, with slightly more than half the district heard from.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 9.—(By A. P.)—The Democrats of Missouri scored a sweeping victory Tuesday by electing, in addition to Senator Reed, who was carried into office as a result of the plurality in St. Louis, eleven of the sixteen Congressmen, a eleven of the State Superintendent of Schools, all three judges of the State Supreme Court, twelve of the State Senators and a large majority of the 150 State legislators.

Oklahoma City, Nov. 9.—(By A. P.)—Oklahoma will send seven Democrats and one Republican to Congress, it was indicated today when the count from Tuesday's election neared completion.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 9.—(By A. P.)—Re-election of Senator King, Democrat, and Representatives in Congress Don B. Colton and E. O. Leatherwood, Republicans, was assured today with further compilation of votes from Tuesday's election.

Albuquerque, N. M., Nov. 9.—New Mexico, believed to be normally Republican, was carried by the Democratic candidates yesterday, according to latest returns last night.

Senator A. A. Jones, Democrat, was re-elected by a majority which may run above 4000. Mr. Leath, Republican, was elected by a majority of about 8100, while John Morrow, candidate for Representative, would have about the same amount.

7267 Districts Give Reed Majority of 359,039 Over Shull

PEPPER AHEAD BY 331,221

Harrisburg, Nov. 9.—Returns last night from 7267 election districts in Pennsylvania out of 8021 gave Gifford Pinchot, Rep., a lead of 255,402 over Edward Shull, Dem., the Democratic opponent for the governorship.

Both Pinchot and McSparan ran ahead of the candidates for the United States Senate. Pinchot's vote with 401 districts missing is 795,060 and McSparan's 539,577.

Figures from 7267 districts in the State for the long-term senatorship are: Gifford Pinchot, 795,060; Edward Shull, 539,577, a majority for Reed of 255,483.

Senator Pepper, who ran for the unexpired term of the late Boies Penrose, had a majority of 331,221 over John Kerr in 7304 districts. The figures are: Pepper, 733,577; Kerr, 422,356.

Returns from thirty-one counties on the long-term senatorship amendment shows a majority of 77,838 for the proposition.

Philadelphia gave the amendment a majority of 78,000, which shows that many of the interior counties did not favor the new amendment.

Friends of the proposition point to the fact that the city and the three cities of the State are not represented in the vote, and it is expected the amendment will show a safe majority.

Wilson Expected to Claim Leadership

Senator Borah and his radical followers, who owe only a nominal allegiance to the Republican party, will not fall back on the conservative houses. There will be no majority in either house which will obey a club.

Every effort of this wing of the party will be directed toward the defeat of the Republican party out of the present hands and making Mr. Harding's renomination impossible.

To sum up, the whole thing up, the advantage will be with the party in 1924. The Democrats have this advantage over the Republicans—their fall back before the national field, Governor-elect Smith, of New York. It is, however, an advantage which they may not dare to use.

Ex-Judge Clarke a Possibility The Democrats, in case the nomination of Smith seems politically unwise, may fall back before the national field of the United States Supreme Court.

Mr. Clarke might appeal to voters on the record of his extremely liberal opinions on the radical bloc, and the fact that he is a native Philadelphian.

It represents the middle ground in the Republican party between the regular and the radical bloc, composed of Lehigh, Berks, Luzerne, Schuylkill, Brookhart, Frasier, Ladd and the following in the House.

But the farm bloc is rather colorless. It is a group of men, many of whom are middle grounders, a conservative who manages to have a liberal reputation. It makes little appeal to the imagination, but perhaps for that very reason offers a basis of union.

CALLS IDAHO RESULT SLAP AT BORAH Boise, Idaho, Nov. 9.—(By A. P.)—The election of Governor Moore, Republican, as Governor by Idaho voters is only a direct protest against "Bossism," says I. H. Nash, Republican State chairman, in a statement made public today.

Discussing the vote Mr. Nash said: "A situation of unrest, already perceptible in Idaho, is being fanned by the advent of Senator Borah who is being rejected by the Republican nominees of the party took and comfort from his position as Governor."

Notwithstanding these conditions, the party has won. In the vote we see that the party cannot and will not be stampeded to the opposition by one man.

WILL WORK TO UNSEAT NEWBERRY, SAYS FERRIS Senator-Elect From Michigan Believes It His Duty

Grand Rapids, Mich., Nov. 9.—(By A. P.)—Senator-elect Woodbridge N. Ferris, Democrat, announced today his intention to work in Michigan for the Senate for the unseating of Senator Truman H. Newberry, of Michigan.

"It would be premature to state my plans at this time, and details are not yet being worked out," he said, "but upon taking office will be to begin steps for a re-election of Mr. Newberry's case. Mr. Ferris said, "I feel it my duty to the people of Michigan to stand up for their interests."

The Senator-elect used the Newberry case as one of his campaign issues, assailing Senator Charles E. Townsend, a Republican candidate, because he supported the retention of Newberry in the Senate. Ferris was elected by a 15,000 majority. The Democrats also elected a member of the House of Representatives and five members of the Legislature.

TEETH OF VOLSTEAD ACT THREATENED WITH PULLING Treasury Officials See Beer and Wine Legislation Modified

Washington, Nov. 9.—(By A. P.)—Proposals for legislation modifying the Volstead act with respect to the sale of beer of high alcohol content were reported today at the Treasury as extremely unlikely as a result of the outcome of Tuesday's election.

The official count of the Philadelphia vote began at noon today and is in charge of Judges Finletter and Monaghan. Unofficial returns credit the Forister with 401,000 votes, while McSparan polled a total of 64,779. Mr. Pinchot's majority over McSparan was 180,221.

There is much gossip as to probable appointments to be made by the Governor-elect.

Three Indictments in Hall-Mills Murder

An outline of the prosecution's case was obtained from a person close to the authorities. It was learned that the authorities are convinced that the affair between Hall and Mrs. Mills had been known to various members of the congregation for at least two months prior to the murder.

The theory is that members of the church or other active workers in the church were envious of the attention Mrs. Mills received from the rector, and they plotted to murder her.

There is some reason to believe that among other the Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Mills had been reading these epistles for some time before the murder.

The authorities are convinced that some informer in the congregation, male or female, had been in contact with Mrs. Hall, the rector's wife, as long ago as two months before the murder. This conviction is based upon an affidavit made by Mrs. Eliza Barnard, a pastor's wife, who is expected to be an important witness at the trial.

Mrs. Barnard has told the authorities that in a conversation with Mrs. Mills she had seen her in the church, who is expected to be an important witness at the trial.

It was learned that the authorities intend to call other witnesses to support their contention that Mrs. Hall knew about the rector's clandestine love affair. They also intend to produce evidence, it was said, to contradict Mrs. Hall's statements that she never knew of the relations between her husband and the choir singer.

Whitman in Reserve The authorities also intend to produce evidence, it was said, to contradict Mrs. Hall's statements that she never knew of the relations between her husband and the choir singer.
