

MT. AIRY PETITIONS FOR NEW SCHOOL

Citizens to Meet Tomorrow Night to Assemble Facts for Education Board

BUILDING CALLED UNSAFE

Mount Airy citizens, appointed on a committee to gather facts as to unsanitary and unsafe conditions in the antiquated public school building at Allen lane and Chestnut street, will meet tomorrow night to assemble the facts they have gathered for submission to the Board of Education.

Must Wade Through Puddles

In order to enter the school building it is necessary for the pupils to wade through puddles of water on rainy days.

Ventilation Poor

The only means of ventilation is the opening of the windows with the consequent draughts and colds.

HILLAIRE BELLOC'S DAUGHTER CALLS U. S. HUMOR 'FLIPPANT'

"Light, Not Ironical or Cynical, as in England," Says Miss Elizabeth, Airing Views on America During Visit Here

Americans are inclined to pride themselves on a national sense of humor and laugh up their sleeves at the English cousin who can never see the point of a joke, but there is another side to this question.

Miss Elizabeth Belloc, daughter of the famous English writer, Hillaire Belloc, is in Philadelphia and in the ten days that she has been in America, this is her opinion of our humor as opposed to that of England.
