

OWNERS MISSING IN AUTO CRASHES

Two Men Injured in Accidents. Arrest Driver With No License

AN AGED MAN IS VICTIM

Three automobile accidents in the southern part of the city followed by the disappearance of the owners of cars, kept the police on the jump early this morning. Two men were injured in the series of smash-ups and one was arrested.

The first crash occurred at Fifth and Dickinson streets at 1:30 o'clock. A car going west on Dickinson street crashed into another at Fifth street, turning it completely over. After bowling the machine over the men in the Dickinson street car continued westward at a rapid pace.

Lieutenant Connelly, of the Third and Dickinson streets police station, heard the crash and found a youth inside the overturned car as if nothing had happened. He was rescued by a quantity of broken glass.

The occupant of the wrecked car gave his name as Lawrence Foulk, nineteen years old, 230 Quince street. He had no driver's license, and could not give a satisfactory reason for being in possession of the car. He was arrested and will have a hearing this morning before Magistrate O'Connor.

A short time after the Dickinson street crash an automobile got away at a rapid rate of speed struck Alfred Ecker, seventy-five years old, of Fifteenth and Wallace streets, at Sixteenth street and Pasquon avenue.

The police believe that the driver was figured in the Dickinson street accident was the same one who struck Ecker. Ecker was badly cut and bruised and was attended by a neighborhood physician.

About 4 o'clock this morning three automobiles crashed together at Fifth and Lombard streets. The impact threw the cars across the sidewalk of the store of Philip Ostrow, a cigar dealer. Ostrow and his family thought an explosion occurred.

A car driven by Luther Horst, 3306 Hamilton street, was going north on Fifth street. At the same time a Negro was driving an automobile east on Lombard street. He was towing a small auto truck which was being guided by another Negro.

When the automobile approached, Horst swerved around and tried to pass behind it. He did not see the truck in time and struck the rope connecting it with the car. All three vehicles were brought together in the crash and piled on the sidewalk. Horst was badly cut and bruised. He was taken to the Pennsylvania Hospital. The other men were arrested.

CENACOLO GIVES FIRST IMPORTANT CONCERT-BALL

Organization of Italo-Americans Holds Successful Affair

The Cenacolo Leonardo da Vinci, an organization composed of the most intellectual element of the Italian community of Philadelphia of Italian blood, gave its first annual concert and dance last evening at La Lu Temple before a large audience. The affair was given for the benefit of the former service men of Italian birth, many of whom were present in the uniform of the Italian Army.

The concert was begun with a chorus of the former service men, under the leadership of Antonino Scarduzio, and they sang with much enthusiasm and energy. The soloists represented the best of the Italian singers of the city and some very excellent singing was done and some splendid voices revealed. They were Mme. Elvira Cavallieri, Cesare A. Ronconi, who has a remarkable fine voice and excellent control of it; Ermilio Lincei, tenor; Antonino Scarduzio, baritone, who scored a great success with his good voice and excellent stage presence and personality; Anthony Lincei, an accomplished pianist who played the Popper's Turkish fantasy with adequate technique and a good tone, and Benjamin Tarraghi, pianist, who played the difficult Liszt "Campanella." complaints were Ferdinando Titomanlio and Abe Well.

The vocal selections were exclusively operatic and all the performers responded with encore numbers, but principally with songs, which made a good impression, several of the singers being obliged to sing more than once in response to the applause. The first "Où il trasse amor possente," from "Ernani," finely sung by Mme. Cavallieri and Mr. Scarduzio, was one of the features of the concert.

At the close of the concert a dance was given which proved as successful in its way as did the concert. The organizers of the Cenacolo Leonardo da Vinci are: President, Prof. Pasquale Farina; first vice president, Dr. Giuseppe Fabiani; second vice president, Giuseppe Donato; corresponding secretary, Chevalier Constantino Constantini; financial secretary, Giuseppe Brocato, and treasurer, Ferdinando Titomanlio.

The stage was decorated with the Italian colors and the flags of the United States and of Italy, and the affair was given under the patronage of the Royal Italian Consul, Cav. Uff. Luigi Stilli.

Fine Phonographs

At Prices Far Below Cost of Production

A real merchandising phenomenon—which wouldn't happen once in a lifetime—brings to you an opportunity to get one of the best make phonographs in America at unheard-of low prices. Here's the explanation:

The makers of these fine phonographs suddenly found themselves in need of ready money. The banks holding their notes demanded payment. Immediate liquidation of stocks became necessary, and the entire factory output was thrown on the market at enormous price reductions.
