

TO MARRY SOON. Miss Camilla Sewall, of Bath, Maine, fiancée of United States Senator Walter E. Edge, of New Jersey

AFTER TAKING THE OATH OF OFFICE. Mr. W. G. Bridgeman, Mr. C. F. L. Wood and Sir Philip Lloyd-Greame, members of new British Cabinet

MODEL BOAT AND A COUPLE OF KISSES AT MARINE SHOW. The Misses Dolly and Birdie Kiss, twins, and model of the Hanseatic Holk, built in the fifteenth century, at the New York Marine Show

REGISTERING THE SMILES with which they greet the traffic cops. All five girls are registered and licensed tractor drivers in Washington, D. C.

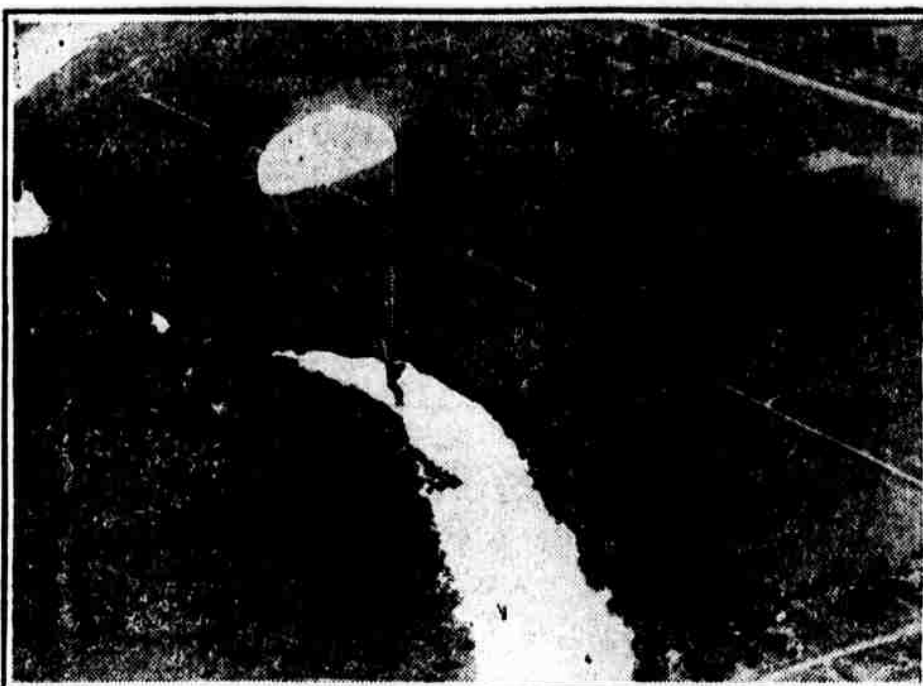

BEHIND THE TOY COUNTER, Mrs. M. B. Huff, 2nd, Mrs. Charles Bell, 3rd, and Miss Ethel Tilly assisted at rummage sale given by Women's Club of Bala-Cynwyd

NOT AFRAID OF A MOUSE. Miss Thelma Connors works among millions of mice in a research laboratory

HELPS KEEP EUROPEAN CHAMPION IN TRIM. Miss Dolores Cassinelli, billiard expert, showing some difficult shots to Edouard Horemans at practice for coming matches

THE DESCENT FROM THE CLOUDS of an army parachute carrying a flier who has leaped from a plane while sailing over McCook Field, at Dayton, Ohio. The photograph was made from another plane

GATHERING INSPIRATION FROM THE BLOOMS at the Flower Show, Miss Muriel Jaison, art student from the School of Industrial Art, is shown on left busily employed with pencil and sketch pad. Miss Ailene Chadwick, also an art student, is pictured on right with bouquet of "Mums"

NEW YORK'S NEW DEMOCRATIC SENATOR. Dr. and Mrs. Royal S. Copeland photographed at their home

WEARING BURMESE SCHOOLBOY COSTUME, Danforth Cope, age five, wearing Japanese garb at Missionary Field Day, yesterday

WEARING BURMESE SCHOOLBOY COSTUME, Mrs. D. G. Harrington with her daughter Frances, wearing Japanese garb at Missionary Field Day, yesterday

A BIT OF ACTION caught by the camera during the Swarthmore-Ursinus girls' hockey game yesterday. The Swarthmore girls were victorious, defeating the Ursinus hockeyists by the score of 6 to 3

Isaac R. Sherwood, Ohio's "Grand Old Man," back in Congress

Mrs. Wintringham, M. P., arriving at Independent Liberal Party meeting

Mrs. B. S. Matthews, figure in National Woman's Party Conference

Capt. Overstreet, possible assistant to Admiral Voelgesang

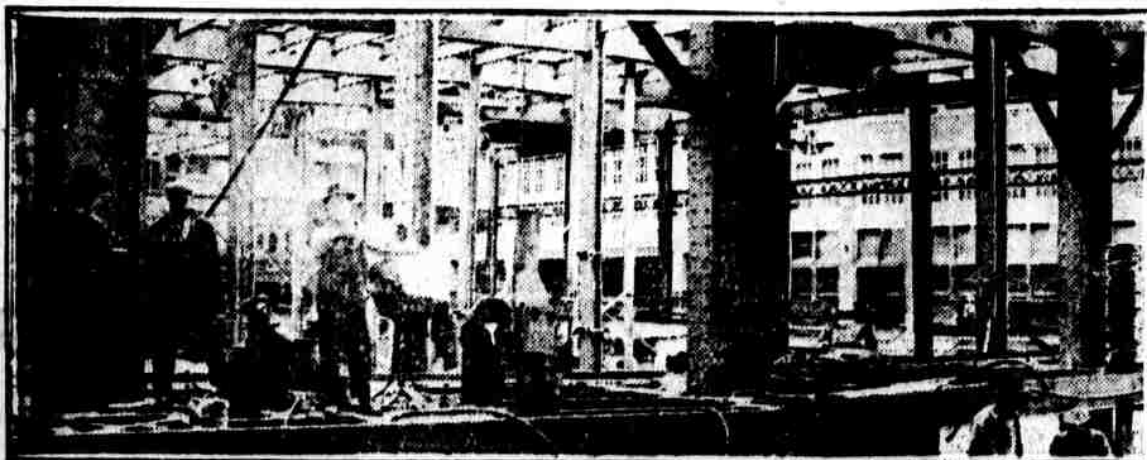

RIVAL CAPTAINS at yesterday's hockey match. Claire Lawrence, who captained Ursinus, and Chic Turner, who led the Swarthmore girls to victory in closely contested game

ROGUES' GALLERY FOR COWS. Prof. W. E. Peterson, demonstrating method of identifying by nose prints

ROGUES' GALLERY FOR COWS. Prof. W. E. Peterson, demonstrating method of identifying by nose prints

WORK ON NEW LEDGER BUILDING IS PROGRESSING RAPIDLY. Already the skeleton-like structural work is nearing completion. The sharp staccato sounds of the riveting guns rise above the rumble of traffic, attesting the speed with which the new building is going up

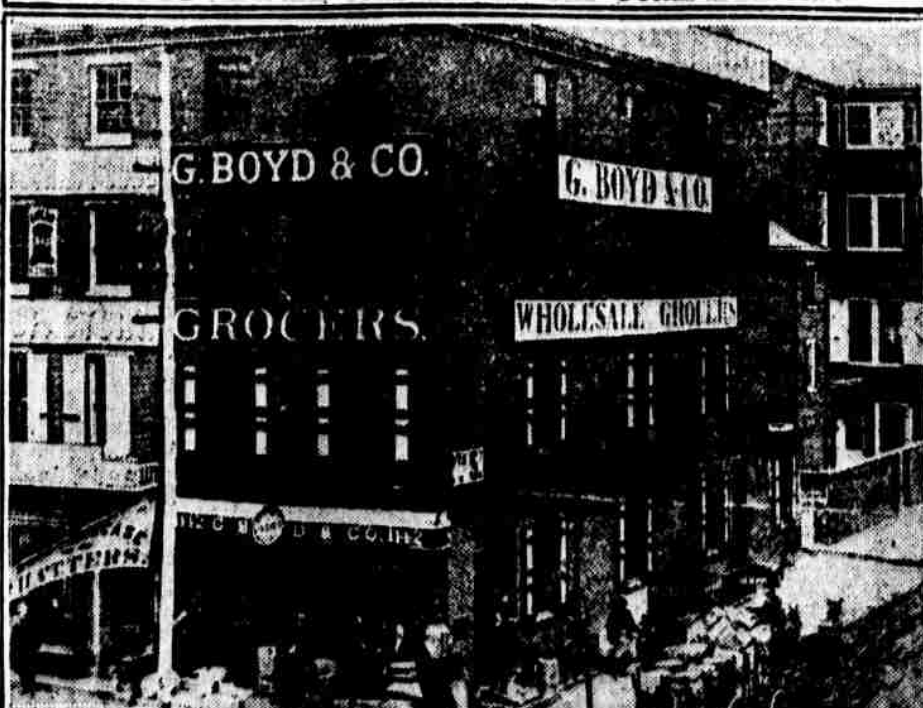

ROBERT JR., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Geeslet

SHOOTING FOR THE LIMEHOUSE CUP. Mrs. H. Radcliffe Roberts was one of the contestants at the recent shoot of the Limehouse Gun Club held on the estate of Truxton Hare, at Radnor

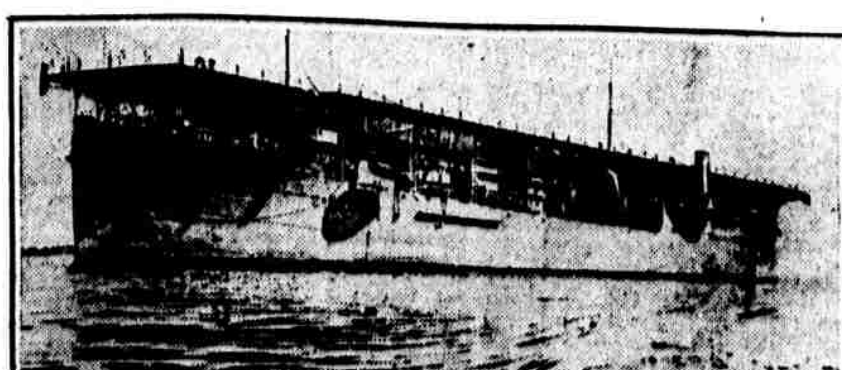

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

PARKING REGULATIONS WERE NOT NECESSARY in the days pictured above, showing the S. E. corner of Twelfth and Market streets, in 1876. Send us your old Philadelphia photographs

DIMINUTIVE PERSONS DESIRING TO GROW TALLER will no doubt be interested in this machine, exhibited recently, said to add to one's height easily and painlessly by a little stretching each day. The young lady in the picture didn't seem to mind it

BAPTIZED. U. S. S. Langley, new airplane "mother ship," took the sea for first time at Norfolk, Va., recently. Pictured above, showing remarkably built deck from which plane may hop off, fly away and return with safety

J.J. Magee kept watchful eye at Franklin Field secret practice